Vol. 48 No. 25 | Flesherton Ontario, December 12, 1928 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

MAXWELL

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Binnington on Thursday last. After business was disposed of the officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Pres., Mrs. James Winters; Vice-Pres., Mrs. Geo. Ross; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. A. Morrison; Sec., Mrs. Edgar Betts; Treas., Miss Alice Winters. Buying Com. —Mrs. Buckingham, Mrs. J. Stephen, Miss E. Morrison. Flower Com.—Mrs. Long, Mrs. Bert Porteous and Miss Ella Morrison. The meeting closed with the Benediction, after which a bounteous lunch was served by the hostess.

The young men of Maxwell and vicinity are busy these days preparing an open air skating rink. This will certainly provide a clean sport for the numerous young folks here this winter.

We are sorry to report little Bruce Poole ill with a light attack of pneumonia. We hope to see the little fellow around again soon.

Miss Maynard and pupils are busy practising for a Christmas concert. The young people are also planning one for the Sunday school to be held on Christmas Eve.

Messrs. Guy and Verne Pallister and D. A. Winters, have returned home after a visit to Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Lena (Mrs. R. H. Linley) who passed away on Dec. 14th, 1927.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture
Of one we loved so dear.
She was one who was always with us
In happiness and in cheer.
God only knows how we miss her,
That loved one gone to rest,
But He took her from her suffering
To a home which is for the best.

Sadly missed by father, mother, sisters and brothers.

ROCK MILLS

Admission Adults 25cts. and children 10cts.

ONLY FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

This item from the files of fifteen years ago, says the Simcoe Reformer, is almost amusing in the light of present-day tendencies: "Miss Adamson, aged 22 of Newark, N.J., was sentenced to 30 days in jail for wearing a slit skirt which was slashed to the knee, and no petticoat hid her silk hose." The hussy!

IN MEMORIAM

McKEAN — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Edward Ashton McKean, who entered into rest December 20, 1927.

Our lips cannot speak how we miss him,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
God only knows how we miss him,
In a home that is lonesome to-day.

Sadly missed by wife and family, Ravenna, Ont.

The Highway Department at Toronto the other day made the announcement that drivers who have a license from the Dept. of Highways permitting them to drive a car will not be required to take another examination for renewal of their cards.
