Business is Business but Courtesy Pays

Our business friends, and yours with whom we make transactions, demand that precision of efficient execution which is part of the regular service maintained by and bank in its daily affairs. To merit your confidence we must go further. The Canadian Bank of Commerce maintains a policy of personal courtesy in its dealings, regardless of their respective importance, which should be an asset in your business as well as in ours.

Come to Flesherton And See Santa Claus Saturday This Week

Santa Claus has again promised to come and see us again on the above date and there will be good things for all the kiddies who are in town that day. He expects to arrive about 2 o'clock. In one hundred and fifty of the bags of candy there will be a ticket which will entitle the kiddie to get a Special Prize. The merchants and others are interested enough to supply these candies and prizes.

At a meeting of the merchants of the village on Tuesday T. W. Findlay was elected manager of the day and Messrs W. G. Kennedy, Sheldon Myers and Jas. Stewart were appointed as a committee to work with him. The citizens are solidly behind the Santa Claus movement.

T. W. Findlay is giving prizes for the following, $1 for 1st and 75 cts for 2nd—White Cat, Black Cat with small amount of white allowed, Maltese Cat, Cat with two colors, Cat with more than two colors, Kitten, not full grown, Persian barred, Persian Cat, age considered, Cat with Kittens. Dog Races — First $1.50, 2nd $1, driven by boy or girl 12 years and under, and driven by boy or girl over 12 years of age. Best dressed doll, clothes to be suitable for cold weather, $1.00 and 75cts. Best outfit of a doll in either bed, carriage or cradle, clothes to be considered. Best dressed turkey, $1.50 and $1, Best dressed goose, $1.50 and $1, Best dressed duck, $1 and 75 cts. Best dresseed chicken, $1 and 75 cents, to be judged not for size alone, but for quality of work.

These exhibits will be shown in H. Down & Sons' show room. Cats to be in boxes with wire fronts if possible. If necessary the dogs will be raced one at a time to find out the winner. Let everyone be behind our Big Day and boost it and we will have more kiddies than ever.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Tuesday evening, Dec. 4, about 75 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Little, Centre Line, Artemesia, to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Croft, who were moving to their new home on the provincial highway. The presentation was made of a set of dining room chairs, rocking chair, auto rug and pair of towels. The address was read by Mr. Russell Patterson.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Croft — It is with regret that we learned of your intended departure from our community, and have gathered to-night to bid you farewell. We have found you to be kindly and sympathetic neighbors, ever ready to assist in time of need. Your congenial dispositions will not soon be forgotten, but we are consoled with the thought that our loss will be other's gain. We are glad to know that your new home is not so far away as to prevent us from frequently renewing our acquaintance. As a token of our appreciation of your many kindly acts, we do ourselves the honor of presenting to you these gifts, hoping by them you may remember our many associations together. It is the prayer of all gathered here that God's richest blessing be with you and may prosperity be yours on your journey through life. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors—William Taylor, Oliver Cornett, Arnott Menzie.

There is plenty of room at the top, but the distance from the bottom to the top is much greater than the distance from the top to the bottom. Euclid overlooked this.

A Soldier Builds Ships

Joe spends a good deal of time making "model ships." Ah, an old tar, you say. Wrong. Joe was a soldier, and he isn't very old at all—about 30. But there is something rather serious the matter with him. When he was at the front he was wounded twice, seriously too. "Often a fellow seems to get over a wound, but later on in life it seems to come back on him," says Joe. His experience was that when he took a job he became too weak to hold it, seemed to get worse and had pains in the chest. After a while the doctor said it was consumption. Joe is now at the Toronto Hospital for Consumptives, where the kindly doctors and nurses are doing their best to patch up the worn frame and put new life in the wasted lungs. They may succeed, too, for Joe is worth saving, and a big fight is being waged to save him. Would you like to help in such work? A subscription from you would be much appreciated.

Such may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton or A. E. Ames, 223 College Street, Toronto 2, Ontario.

Herbs That Heal When Lungs and Bronchial Tubes Seem all on Fire

Fifty years ago, a quiet-going soul, James Gallagher, came to Peterborough County. His was a marvelous skill in compounding herbal medicine.

One of his many prescriptions—for folk subject to Bronchitis or similar ills and nasty coughs and colds—was his Indian Lung Remedy, full of the health-giving power drawn from Mother Nature, herself. Wonderfully healing to inflamed tissues. A builder of good, red blood. Make the acquaintance of this tried, reliable remedy. Keep well this Winter. Together with the other fine Gallagher Herbal Household Remedies, now obtainable from 33
