

TODAY

The objectives of all levels of Ontario Women's Institutes are:

to help women acquire sound and approved homemaking skills;

to help discover, stimulate, and develop leadership;

to help identify and resolve needs and problems in the community;

to help promote the use of available resource materials; and to help develop better informed, happier and more useful citizens.