BANKING SERVICE AND PROSPERITY

PROSPERITY on the farm is largely deendent on factors beyond the realm of the farmers' control. There must be a good market demand for farm products and the production costs must be kept in proper relation with market returns. Our Branch Manager is thoroughly familiar with the business of farming and is ready to assist in carrying your farm program to a successful conclusion.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John McDonald.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. John McDonald returned home Wednesday, after spending a week with his daughters, at Toronto and Mimico.

Mr. W. P. Crossley desires to thank friends for flowers sent in and for other kindnesses shown him during his illness.

Mr. Archie McCuaig, an old pioneer of the south end of Glenelg, and an ex-Reeve of that township, died on Monday evening, after a short illness.

THEY DO

The editor found a man on Tuesday who says he will subscribe for The Advance just as soon as his wife dies. My wife goes out every morning," the man says, "and comes back with more news than you have in your newspaper in six months."

The Late Robt. Akitt

The funeral of the late Robt. Akitt whom we mentioned last week as having died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. N. Field, Toronto, at the age of 84, was held from the homstead, Collingwood gravel, on Thursday of last week. Rev. Mr. Saunders of Flesherton Baptist Church, officiated. The remains were interred in Maxwell Cemetery, by the side of his wife, who predeceased him ten years ago. The deceased gentleman was a resident of Artemesia township for 77 years, having come here with his father when only seven years old. All his long life was spent on the farm a mile east of Rock Mills. The funeral was largely attended by the citizens of Artemesia to pay their last respects to a man who was respected by all who knew him. There were floral offerings from the following: a wreath from his son, Walter, and family; spray from daughter, Mrs. F. N. Field; spray from Rock Mills Ladies' Aid; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saijeon.

So far as we know Mr. Akitt was the oldests resident of Artemesia township, being a continuous resident since the year 1852. He knew all about the pioneer life and there are few living to day who had the same intimate acquaintances with it that he had. Mr. Akitt was a man with many sterling qualities, a kind neighbor and a good friend.

More Highway Paving

Gradually the pavement on the Toronto-Owen Sound Highway is being extended northward and a couple of years will have reached this village. On the list of highway construction contracts, for which recently appeared the following: end of concrete north of Orangeville to Primrose corner, 7.8 miles, concrete pavement from Caledon toward Orangeville, 6.5 miles, concrete pavement, with alternative tender requested for mixed macadam pavement. The traffic on the Provincial Highway is growing each year by leaps and bounds and the question of better roads is becoming more important.

Visiting This Locality

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Barber of Blindloss, Alta., are on a visit with friends in Osprey. Mr. Barber informs The Advance that crops were good in most parts of Alberta, and exceptionally good for the past four years. His district is about 200 miles east of Calgary on the Moosejaw-Calgary C. P. R. line. Mr. Barber lives only two miles from the wonderful Red Deer River, where so many prehistoric animal skeletons have been unearthed. He has himself helped in unearthing some of them, including one half of a perfectly petrified fish about fifteen inches long apparently that of a bass or lake trout. The water of the river is of a peculiarly hard nature.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Stewart, Markdale, announce the engagement of their elder daughter, Helen Rae, to Mr. Harold A. Thibaudeau, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thibaudeau of Markdale. The marriage to take place early in February.

Social Gathering at Feversham School

The new room of the Feversham Continuation School was the scene of a happy social event on Friday evening, February 1st, when the teachers and students of the Continuation School entertained the parents and trustees. The decorations were carried out in rainbow effect—long streamers of crepe paper in various colors extending from the central hoop to the ends of the room thus forming a ceiling, while the windows and blackboards were draped with streamers and multi-colored balloons were hung about the room in bunches. The rainbow effect was carried out further in candles with contrasting or harmonizing candle sticks.

The main feature of the evening was progressive crockinole at which the guests displayed their ability at shooting straight; but none were so adapt as Nellie Sheet and Mr. Moor who were pronounced as winners.

The candles were lighted and a dainty lunch was served by the students, after which a balloon chase was indulged in. Several games were then played and the gathering broke up after the singing of the National Anthem.

Married In Toronto

Mr. Winslow Kernahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kernahan, of Feversham, and Miss Minerva Stafford, daughter of the late Prof. Jos. Stafford of Montreal, were quietly married at the home of Rev. L. F. Kipp, in Toronto on Wednesday, January 30th. The previous Friday Mrs. Jno. Latimer gave a kitchen shower, inviting the bride's former schoolmates living in Toronto, when a happy reunion was held. The young couple enjoy the hearty well wishes of a host of friends here and in Osprey township. We believe they will reside in Toronto.

CHAPERONE FOR DOGS

Dogs using Durham's streets from this time henceforth must be properly chaperoned if theor owners hope to escape the payment of a fine. This is deduced from the fines imposed aturday morning by Magistrate Laidlaw in police court here when five of our citizens were brought before him for allowing their pets to be at large without the proper accompaniment. — Durham
