EDITORIAL NOTES

Has anyone seen Shaw? Why not look for Orval in the Proton swamp?

Have you sown your peas yet? Napoleon in his diary, said:- "Often the whole difference between the wealth of two men consists in the one being able to eat green peas a fortnight earlier than the other."

* * *

Already the old boys and the everyoung girls, living at a distance from Flesherton and the classic Artemesia are arranging, in large numbers to join in the home-coming celebration of August next. "We'll all feel gay, "etc.

Newspapers are guying a theater in Richmond, Va., which advertised "The Road to Ruin at Regular Prices." But none of them has suggested that the theatre sell that sign to the Ontario Liquor Commission.—Toronto Star. Certainly an opportunity for publicity lost.

Segrave, the Englishman who won the long-distance championship for autos in Florida, has been knighted by King George. He has wisely resolved not to race again—unless—some one beats his record. The "world's fastest" now stands :- By air, 318.5 miles per hour; by land 231.3 miles per hour; on water, 92 miles per hour.

GIBSON — HAGGART

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at four o'clock in the United Church, Port Loring, when Miss Eloise Madeleine Haggart, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harkness Haggart of Port Loring was united in marriage with Mr. William Franklin Gibson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson. Markdale, Ont. Rev. R. M. Dingwall, Loring, officiated.

The bridal group took their places under an arch of evergreens, entwined with Easter Lillies and white streamers from which hung dainty wedidng bells, to the briday march played by Miss Lily Ernest, Arnstein.

The bride looked charming in a white canton crepe gown with a dainty bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses. The bride was attended by Miss Elva Brooks of Port Loring attired in chin chin blue crepe de chine with fawn hat, carrying a bouquet of roses.

The groom was supported by Mr. Ivan Donnelly, Meaford, Ont.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. The dining room was prettily decorated in pink and white.

The young couple will reside in Port Loring, Ont.

SEEDING JUST STARTED

Readlyn, Sask, April 10th, 1929.

Dear Editor:- I hope you are quite well; all here are well. We are having some snow this morning and just an odd farmer has some wheat in the ground. I hope the recent storm did you no harm. We had no storm here, but zero weather for a day or two, 2 to 4 above. The weather is milder this morning, 30 above. With my best wishes to you all.

I am yours very truly,
R. N. KINNEAR.

SWAMP COLLEGE

The recent storm did a lot of damage around here. Mr. Joe. Watson had his barn struck by lightning while feeding the stock. He was stunned for some time and all the cattle and horses were badl frightened. Mr. Tom Parker's barn was also struck and a sheep was killed. It was lucky there were no fires started.

Mr. Herbert Haw passed away on Sunday morning after a lingering illness. The funeral will be held on Tuesday to Salem cemetery. He is a brother of Mr. Bert Haw of Ceylon. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus McCannell spent a week in Toronto with their daughters.

Mr. Sam Wilson is engaged with Mr. Lou Kinnel for the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks of Priceville visited her parents here on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson visited on Friday with her parents at Priceville.

Mr. John Coulter went to Toronto to see his sister, Mae, who is in the General Hospital, undergoing an operation for goitre.

Born—On March 24th, to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bell (nee Agnes Black) a son.—Robert Clifford.

Mr. Dan McCannell is out these days with his gasoline engine cutting wood.

PORTLAW

The recent torrenial rain did considerable damage to culverts and roads in this district. Although bridges were subject to severe tests they stood the strain and no very serious harm resulted.

Mr. Francis Shier, who has been in a poor state of health, suffered a slight paralytic stroke recently, from which we are glad to say, he appears to be recovering.

Our sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. S. Arnott, Wareham, grand old lady. The family have the great satisfaction of knowing that she bequeathed to them the record of "a life well spent in the noblest ways."

Mr. Abraham Blakey held a successful sale on Monday of last week. The family intend to remove to Toronto in the near future. On Friday evening last the neighbors and friends met at their home and presented them with a purse and a sum of money, accompanied with a suitable speech. He thanked his friends for all their kindness to himself and family.

Mr. Lawrence Lyons has added to his real estate by purchasing one of Mr. Albert Reid's farms.

Mr. Fennell of Toronto had charge of the service in Mount Zion church last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid met last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Thomas Taylor. There was a good attendance and an interesting meeting held.

KIMBERLEY

Mr. and Mrs. McRae of Toronto visited over the week end with friends here. Miss Edith Harris accompanied them home. Miss Merdina Harris of Bowmanville is visiting her father, Mr. W. E. Harris, at present.

Mr. Elgar McConnel of Markdale spent the week end at his parental home.

Mr. W. E. Myers has gone to Toronto for a new Durant sedan.

Miss Kathleen Hutchinson has completed her studies at Dundalk business college.

The Eugenia United Church choir gave their play "A Little Clodhopper" in the hall on Friday night. Although the weather was stormy, a good number were out to enjoy it.

A dress-making class is being held in the hall under the auspices of the Women's Institute.

We are sorry to report that Mr. J. R. Fawcett is ill at precnt.

Mr. Wilmer Turner has purchased a new Star car from Mr. Harry Down of Flesherton.

The last of the community social evenings was held in the hall on Wednesday evening. The big features of the evening were two debates resolved "that a fifty acre farm is becoming more profitable than one of larger acreage," won by the negative and "that the styles of 50 years ago were more desirable than those of the present day," won by the affirmative.

Mr. Albert Myles has gone to the Thornbury hospital for treatment.

Messrs. J. A. Stuart and H. Ellis of Meaford made a business trip to the village recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ellis and Gwen visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodfellow of Duncan.
