ADVICE TO SCHOLARS

May a few words of encouragement be permitted to all pupils and scholars now entering the last lap of their school year, especially to those who are writing examinations that will determine their progress at school. This is perhaps a greater opportunity than you dream of now, it may mean advancement for a lifetime, or it may mean, the beginning of a series of repeated failures. No examination is easy, but to some it may appear almost impossible. There is nothing impossible, and now is the time for you to make up your mind about that. You may be behind with your year's work, or you may feel you are not capable of passing, and so have made up your mind not to try. If you do that now you will do it all your life, but if you are determined that no matter what the difficuty is you will give it your very best effort or positively die in the attempt, then success is almost assured, and you will have acquired a habit of facing every sort of difficulty you may meet with in life hereafter. A little self denial of seemingly legitimate pleasure and sport, a little extra time in study eary and late, a little keener concentration on the work that is almost difficult and you will be surprised how much lost ground may be recovered, and what progress may be gained.—Detroit Free Press.

THE NEW SCHOOL QUESTION

A radical change in the educational system of our province is forecast by Premier Ferguson, who is also Minister of Education. It is proposed to divide the elementary course into two divisions, the first to end with the age of eleven years, and the second to continue till the child is sixteen years of age. The Lower School work, now taken up by High and Continuation Schools will be carried on in the Public Schools, and the first year university course of studies will be transferred to the High Schools and Collegite Institutes. Legislation along these lines will likely be introduced at the next session of the Legislative Assembly. The change is already being criticised and it remains to be seen whether the proposed changes can be satisfactorily carried out.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Alliston is fortunate in owning such a son as Mr. T. P. Loblaw, of Toronto, President of the chain stores of that name. A year or so ago he donated the beautiful Stevenson Memorial Hospital at Alliston and now he comes forward with a donation of $50,000, being half the approximate cost of the paved streets in that town. Another evidence of the public spirited citizen is a donation of $500,000 toward the erection of a new Western Hospital in Toronto. Mr. Loblaw is a citizen who is indeed a credit to this province.

"The law will triumph" is again evidenced b the recapture of Orval Shaw, who escaped from Chatham jail last fall and who has been fleein the police since that time. The misery he has experienced since his escape, living from hand to mouth wherever he could steel food, sleeping wherever nightfall found him, makes one think, and no doubt Orval too, was his foolhardiness worth the effort to outwit the police and remain from custody a few months longer. His sentence was a minor one originally, but will live in his cell many months and regret the escape from justice, which is sure to take its course.

It was decided at the cemetery meeting held in the old town hall on Friday evening to withold the plans of a mortuary chapel for this year, until sufficient funds warrant the construction. Likely the chapel will be built next year. The Treasurer informed the meeting that the final payment for extra land purchased several years ago had been made and was now free of debt. It is a pleasure to see the cemetery in the excellent condition it is now in and those who are responsible are the recipients of deep thanks from those whose loved ones are interred therein —a beauty shot for the last resting place of those who have made this country in the early days and of those who have carried on since that time.

NO WONDER

A man was one day visiting a lunatic asylum and while walking in the grounds he met a patient to whom he said:

" Well, how did you get here."

The man replied: "Well, sir, you see I married a widow with a grown-up daughter, and then my father married my wife's daughter, and made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and my father became my step-son. Then my step-mother, the daughter of my wife, had a son, and that boy, of course, was my brother, because it was my father's son; but he also was my wife's step-son, and therefore, her grand-son, and that made me the grandfather of my step-brother. Then my wife had a son, so my mother-in-law, the step-sister of my son, is also his grandmother, because his step-sister is his wife. I am the brother of my own son, who is also the son of my step-grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, my son is my father's nephew, and I am my own grandfather. That's one reason I am here."—Answers.

The Wellington County Council decided unanimously to do away with payments for mileage and to be more careful about allowances paid for committee work.

Letters to The - Editor -

ALL GOING TO BE HERE

St. Paul, May 8th, 1929.

Dear Sir., Having noticed in your interesting paper of the Home Week for the boys and girls who were born or ever lived in Flesherton, also receiving the kind invitation to be present, which I heartily accept, and am looking forward to the renewing of friendships of boyhood days. I feel greatful to the Flesherton people in thinking of boys and girls who have wandered away from home. Each night we think of faces we expect to meet and we can only ask the Flesherton people to keep the camp fires burning till the boys and girls come home, because we are all going to be there.

Yours truly,
—HARRY STEWART.

Play At Maxwell

On Wednesday evening, May 8th, a comical play called "Always in Trouble" or a "Hoodooed Coon" was presented in the Orange Hall, Maxwell, by the young people of St. James Anglican Church, Dundalk. The actors, which were nine in number, did their parts real well and the audience was delighted by the costumes and sayings of the actors. The hall was filled for the occasion. Between the acts the school children of S. S. No. 17 of Artemesia, Rock Mills sang patriotic songs and rendered other musical selections, under the dirction of Mrs. F. Seeley, their teacher. These itmes were very much appreciated. Rev. M. F. Oldham, Rector of the church, acted as chairman. The amount taken in at the door amounted to $45.20.
