

50 YEARS 1944-1994

1959 Staff and Directors posing while Bud Allard, President, remits the last cheque to René Cloutier, leaving manager. Watching is Jean-Marc Massicote, newly hired manager. Back row: Thomas Bélanger and Ernest Lamarche, Directors; Guy Bourdeau, Rolland Lamarche and Raymond Villemure, staff; and Raoul Portelance, agricultural representative.

In 1955, the Cochrane Farmers Co-operative has the John Deere Farm Machinery Dealership. Bud Johnson and Roger Berthoux on a John Deere tractor #60 while Ambroise Génier et Fernand Lamarche are standing by a side discharge square baller.

On behalf of the people and the Government of Ontario I extend warm congratulations to:

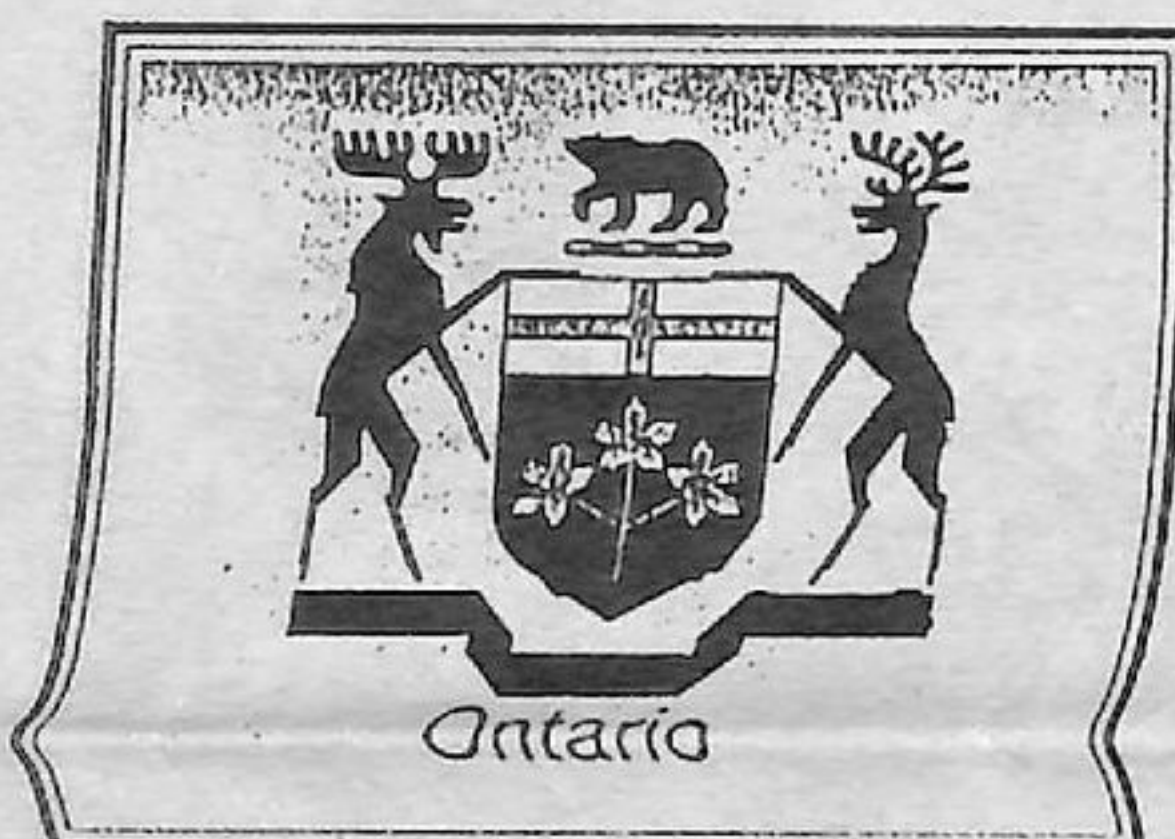

COCHRANE CO-OP

as you celebrate the 50th Anniversary of your business.

The strength of Ontario's business community is based on the entrepreneurial spirit of our many companies both large and small. Over the past 50 years, you have contributed to the economic viability of your community and the development of this province. I am pleased to recognize your achievements in this regard and wish you continued success and prosperity.

Every good wish for a most memorable anniversary celebration.
