Hanover Boy Won Oratorical Contest

Wallace Nickle of Hanover high school was the winner of the first prize of $100 at the public speaking contest held in the high school, Flesherton on Saturday afternoon. Second prize and cash ofl $50 was awarde Miss Marion Stuart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stuart of town. The prizes were given by Miss A. C. Macphail, M. P., and were for pupils of the high schools of southeast Grey.

Four contestants took part in the public speaking as follows:- Wallace Nickle, Hanover; Marion Stuart and Irene Martin, Fesherton and Pearl Acheson of Chatsworth. Dr. O. J. Stevenson, professor of English at the O. A. C., Guelph, placed the awards and stated that Miss Stuart had better material than Mr. Nickle, but in a public speaking contest more points were given for delivery, so he made the award as stated.

Between speeches the Hanover high school orchestra delighted the filled auditorium with excellent music, and was led by Mr. J. R. Hamilton, principal of the school. Miss Ruth Armstrong of Markdale have an excellent piano solo and a duet by Miss Margaret Sinclair and Vernon Stewart of Flesherton was well rendered.

Miss A. C. Macphail, M. P. gave an address after Dr. Stevenson made his awards and presented the winners with the prize money. Mr. C. F. Lawrence, principal of the local high school, presided over the meeting.

The following is the speech delivered by Mr. Nickle:

THE SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEMS OF AGRICULTURE

It is written "Whoever makes two ears of corn or two blades of grass to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before deserves better of mankind and does more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together." If that is true the farmer is a great benefactor to our nation—and he certainly is.

But there are many problems which daily confront him and make his toil much more difficult than it should be.

The Canadian Field Artillery Military Band of Toronto has been secured for Sunday and Monday of Old Home Week, and will arrive at any time designated by the local committee. They also propose bringing a ladies softball team from Toronto to play Owen Sound, if this can be arranged. Several other items of entertainment were discussed, but it all depends on the amount of support the Toronto committee receives.

While this committee has been organized in Toronto it is to represent the old boys and girls from all outside points, and any financial assistance tendered the committee from those away from home would be gladly received and faithfluly applied plied for celebration purposes. Any donations should be sent to Dr. Fred Murray, 220 Carlton St., Toronto. Large and small donations thankfully received.

The next meeting will be held in the Daily Star Building on Monday, evening, June 10th, when it is hoped there will be a still larger attendance of old residents of this district now residing in Toronto.

With the excellent help the Toronto committee is contributing Flesherton Old Home Week should go over big and ever to be remembered as the event of a life time. All the old boys and girls are expected home for that week and preparations are being made to house, feed and take care of la bumper crowd.

Messrs. T. Findlay, chaidman of the local committee, F. H. W. Hickling W. A. Hawken and F. J. Thurston attended the meeting, as representative from the local committee.
