

The first school in Clute, after the windows were changed, a porch built on to the front gut, and the drive shed turned round to become a woodshed about 1944.