PROSPECTUS
OF A WORK TO BE ENTITLED

THE MILESIANS,

Or an Inquiry into the Origin and History of the Irish,

BY ROBERT JEFFERS.

TO THE PUBLIC.

SOME of the Greatest and most Important Discoveries had their rise from (apparently) trivial or accidental circumstances.

One of the most distinguished Members of the Highland Society of Kingston, in a company where the author of this "Inquiry" was present, asserted that "the Irish had their origin from the Highland, or (what he called) Celtic Scots: and that the Progenitors of both the one, and the other, had come across the Strait of Dover, from the continent of Europe!"

This simple occurrence determined the Author to institute this inquiry.

He hopes to prove beyond possibility of successful contradiction—

I. That the Irish are Progenitors, in this case, and not Descendants.

II. That all who have rightful claim to the Gælic and Irish as their native Language had ONE common origin.

III. That their First-Fathers did NOT come across the Strait of Dover, nor from the Continent of Europe.

IV. That although Geographical and Providential, circumstances cause the Highlanders to be now considered as part and parcel of the Scottish Nation, their natural connection is with Ireland. And that as to Origin and Language, they have no more connection with the Low-land Scots, than they have with the population of Sweden or Russia.

In the prosecution of this Work, a "mite" will be thrown in, towards that most desirable of Irish things, a union among the Sons of Erin: as well as a kindly feeling between them and all other Nations

It is also hoped to remove just ground of prejudice against the National Character: and by wiping off the tarnish of unjust misrepresentation—to exhibit the pure EMERALD in all its native lustre: so that it shall be proved an honor (and not a disgrace) to be connected with Ireland.

In fine, the Author is confident he can prove that the IRISH is the most peculiar and interesting nation (the Jews not excepted) that exists, or has existed on the face of the Earth.

CONDITIONS.

The work shall come out in numbers, price one quarter Dollar each. And as the Author does not expect to gain, (except in his National gratification,) so he cannot afford to lose—it is therefore expected that each subscriber will pay for one number in advance, on putting down his name, to the Author, or to Mr. David Leahy of Kingston, with whom the amount will be deposited, until the numbers are given into his hands for delivery.

Public spirited and influential Irishmen in Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, &c. &c. are requested to aid in the subscription, and sale of this work.

When any amount worth forwarding is subscribed, they will please enclose the money directed to Archibald McDonnell, Esq. (not McDonald) Home Bank, Kingston, who shall retain it, until the numbers are delivered to him to be forwarded.

As there is a Fellow Citizen (of Cork) with the Author, who fills a high situation in Charleston, S. C. HE is hereby most respectfully solicited to assist in the furtherance, and sale of this IRISH Work.

All Editors in Canada and the United States, who feel friendly to the "Irish," will please to insert this Prospectus, and those who continue to do so, shall be entitled to a copy of the Work.

Kingston, February 17, 1835.

N. B.—Those who wish to act as Agents for this work, on their forwarding the price of 9 numbers, they shall have forwarded to them 10. For 16, they shall have 18; for 28, they shall have 32, for the price of 54, they shall have forwarded 63.

GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM.

Embracing Dramatic Literature—Sporting—the Turf—Fashions—and various subjects of interest and amusement.

About the first of January, 1835, will be commenced in PHILADELPHIA, a new periodical, bearing the above comprehensive title. Its contents will be carefully adapted to the wants of that portion of the public who patronize DRAMATIC LITERATURE, the TURF, SPORTING, and the FASHIONS. From the growing wealth and increasing population of the United States, and the near assimilation of the national appetite with whatever promotes the rational Recreations of Life, it is presumed that this journal,—possessing, as the projector, of it will, ample means to diversify its pages, and a determination to render them subservient to the formation of a correct taste in all matters relating to its design,—cannot fail to meet with a liberal and creditable support from an enlightened community in every quarter of the country. The difficulty of sketching out such a plan as might be fancifully strewed with any of the charms of novelty to ensure it popularity and encouragement has been not the least embarrassing obstacle which the projectors of this work had to surmount in its inception. Feeling confidently assured however, that its success is certain, when its character becomes properly known, they have already incurred considerable expense in forming correspondents over the Union; and have also ordered regular supplies of the best selected English periodicals to assist in procuring materials for its columns.

It is not altogether feasible, when a new publication is contemplated, to present in detail to the public its prospective attractions It is necessary, nevertheless, that its principal features should be drawn out, as it is by them that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more readily accomplished, the publishers being satisfied that whatever industry and a watchful zeal can effect in completing the filling up, will be done, and that they never will be found deficient or neglectful in the prosecution of this enterprize, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable result to themselves and to others.

THE DRAMA—Will form a material portion of the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum. It is intended to publish alternately, every week, an entire play and farce to be selected with a single eye to their merits alone; a preference, however, will be extended, in all cases, to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, will be regularly inserted,—besides Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots, of prominent Characters of the present and past ages, of which a rare and interesting collection is in store.

THE TURF—A faithful record will be kept of all the Running and Trotting matches in this country and England, Biographies and correct Portraits of celebrated thorough bred Horses will be published once a month. Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of this invaluable animal, will be particularly selected.

SPORTING. Under this caption will be enumerated accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with Anecdotes of noted Dogs.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review will be procured, explanatory of the various improvements and changes which costumes worn in the fashionable circles continually undergo, by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved colors and modern style of dress, at the earliest possible periods. Provided sufficient encouragement shall be given by this portion of the public, a full length engraving, illustrative of the same, will also be prepared and published.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purpose of our sheet may appear to be confined to the four leading subjects which have been stated—we deem it proper to say, that there will be, in addition to these, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matters—such as Tales—Poetry—an Epitome of News—List of Hotels in this city, and Places of amusement—Statistics—the Grain Market—Agriculture—Prices of Stock—List of Broken Banks—Counterfeit Note Detector—and all other matters, regarding which an interest may be supposed to exist at home or abroad.

This work, then, as will be seen, by the above explanation of its probable character, is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. &c. It will prove, also,—as all its publication of facts will be authentic,—a ready of Record for Reference for Travelling Gentlemen, and should consequently be kept in every hotel in the United States. It is worthy of notice, that its patrons, in the course of one year, will be furnished with fifty-two popular Plays and Farces—the price of which, separately, at any of our book stores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars! Here there is an absolute saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Dramatic Library—to be had for an unprecedented small sum!—not taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is to accompany it, without additional charge! Tailors who desire to procure early and correct information of the changes in Dress, will find this an invaluable guide.

THE GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM, &c. will be published every Saturday, on fine imperial paper, of the largest class, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance.

By enclosing a five dollar note to the publishers, postage paid, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. It is respectfully requested that those who desire to subscribe for this Journal will forward their names immediately—the terms will be strictly adhered to.

Address SMITH & ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

The publishers will exchange with any of their Country Brethren who will oblige them with an occasional insertion of this advertisement.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE IRISH ADVOCATE, CONSTITUTIONAL REFORMER, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER. TO BE PUBLISHED THREE TIMES A WEEK, IN MONTREAL.—Although half the population speaking the English language in Lower Canada is composed of natives of Ireland, and descendents of Irishmen, it is a source of regret, if not of mortification, to many of them, that no Press in this Province protects their National Character from misrepresentation and insult, or serves as the accredited organ of their Political sentiments. To remedy this evil, and to give to Irishmen that influence and power to which their numerical strength, their respectability, and growing wealth entitle them, a number of Irishmen, in Montreal, have resolved to establish a Paper, to be called the Irish Advocate, Constitutional Reformer, and Commercial Advertiser; to be published in this City on the MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY of each week.—As the "Irish Advocate" will be essentially the Irishman's Paper, and as it will spare no pains to render itself worthy of this honorable distinction, it must mainly depend on the Irish population of both Provinces for encouragement and support. Besides affording such information on the subject of Politics, Commerce and Literature, as may be attractive to general readers, the "Irish Advocate" will regularly lay before its patrons the most interesting portions of Irish intelligence. Although, from the nature of our position in the present crisis, the energies of the "Irish Advocate" must be directed towards the producting concord among all persons from Great Britain and Ireland, and their descendants; yet it will neglect no fit opportunity of advocating the Reform of abuses under which the latter Country has so long labored. Deeply impressed with the conviction that the speedy developement of the resources of this Province is of paramount importance, the "Irish Advocate" will sincerely encourage Immigration, and cheerfully open its columns to the insertion of such matter as may conduce to the general welfare of Irishmen and Britons, and promote their settlement among us.

Under present circumstances, The "IRISH ADVOCATE" will ever hold in view the counteraction of any attempts to produce Revolution, to sever this Colony from the Mother Country, or to effect a change in the Constitution, upon whose integrity, it is now plainer than ever, that those speaking the English language in this Province, must rely for their existence and prosperity. From the tone and style in which the Paper will be conducted, and the mechanical neatness with which it will be executed, its friends feel assured that it will bear comparison with the most respectable Periodicals in North America.

The proprietors will use their utmost endeavors to render the Paper useful as a medium of Commercial Intelligence, and they, therefore, trust they will receive the support of the influential body of Merchants. The Editorial department will be entrusted to an Irish Roman Catholic gentleman, of ability and character. In Politics, the "Irish Advocate" will support the cause of Constitutional Reform; it will oppose, deprecate and condemn abuses, and will use its utmost efforts for the removal of acknowledged grievances. On all occasions this Journal will display a firm and patriotic determination to advance the prosperity of old countrymen, and particularly of Irishmen.

The IRISH ADVOCATE will be printed on good Paper, of the size now used by the English Journals of this city, and will be charged to subscribers at FOUR DOLLARS per Annum, exclusive of postage, payable semi-annually, in advance.

Postmasters, Country Merchants, and others, in both provinces, who may feel an interest in the success of the paper, are respectfully requested to use their best exertions in promoting its circulation in their respective neighborhoods.

Any gentleman who may procure subscribers, and vouch for the respectability of the parties, will be entitled to one paper for every ten subscribers so obtained. Subscribers names to be forwarded to either of the Agents in this city, on or before the 1st of February next.

Subscriptions will be received in this City at the Book-Stores of John Campbell and H. McGregor, St. Francois Xavier Street, and at the Exchange News Room.
