VICTORIA CORNERS

her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rogers, motored to Toronto and on Thursday by train to Port Huron, Mich., for a couple of weeks visit.

Miss Jennie Anderson of Berkley is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Milton Bannon.

Bill and Ken. Hyland, Toronto, Delbert and George Bannon, Dundalk visited at Milton Bannon's.

Milton Bannon, Doris and Fred, motored to Mimico last week.

Mrs. Will Ludlow and daughter, of Woodstock, are visiting in the neighborhood.

We are pleased to report that Mina Scott is improving as quickly as her operation will allow. She would like thanks conveyed to the W.C.T.U. for the nice box of fruit sent to her and also to all friends and neighbors who have sent such beautiful flowers.

Elva Batchelor of Proton visited her friend, Helen Moore.

On Saturday, about noon, a truck, belonging to the Perry Transport Comany took fire just between the Bannon's and the Saugeen bridge and was totally destroyed. One of the foremen of the company had come from Toronto to Orangeville to help a disabbled truck there and hearing about this truck came on up, and soon after arriving, received a telephone message that his brother was dying in Oshawa.

Kathleen Bannon is visiting her cousin, Loreena Bannon, Dundalk.

Miss Cook of Toronto has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Acheson, Mr. Walter Acheson, a brother-in-law, motored up on Saturday.

We are sorry not to be able to state much improvement in Mrs. Ernie Stinson. They are having a specialist to-day. We hope for better word next week.

(Last Week's Items)

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Ernie Stinson is very low, but hope for her recovery being held out.

Mr. and Mrs. Sproule and Miss Gracey of Shelburne visited at Mr. W. Acheson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Betts, Mrs. C. Newell, the Misses Betts of Eugenia isivted at Carl Atkinson's.

Congratulations to Doris Bannon, Ina Acheson and Mabel Acheson who pased their entrance. The former two passed with honors, also congratulations to our teacher, Mr. McDonald.

Our garden party was a success last week. The ball game between Flesherton and Dundalk resulted in a 8-5 score, in facor of Dundalk. The program following the supper, consisted of a splendid play by the Shelburne Ladies' Aid, violin duet by the Misses Johnston of Shelburne and a solo by Miss Roszella Stevens and recitations by Misses Marjory Acheson and Betty McTaggart We especially wish to mention Betty McTaggart, who only about seven years old, is second to a very few of the best.

EUGENIA

There has been excellent haying weather the past week. We hope it continues for a few days.

There has been a number of feet of steel pipe added to the pipe in the new bridge here, in order to make the roadway wider. Mr. Taylor of Hamilton, who works for the Pedlar People firm, spent a few days here assisting in putting the pipe together.

Miss Millie McMullen has gone on a trip to the Soo. We wish her a pleasant time.

Mr. andMrs. Wilfred Magee, Eighth Line spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cardwell Graham.

Mrs. Wm. Hanley returned from Port Huron, where she has spent the past three years nursing her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. R. Carson, who passed to her Eternal Home on May 25, after spending the past nine years as an invalaid. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Hanley and relatives in their bereavement.

We are pleased to report Miss Irene Martin, who has returned from Owen Sound hospital, much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Partridge and family called on friends in the village this week.

Miss Lola Blackburn of Flesherton spent a few days with her friend, Miss Irene Martin.

Mr. Thos. Elliott and daughter, Miss Mae, of Markdale, were guests at the Hanley home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Purvis and daughter, of Collingwood, visited this week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Purvis.

Mr. Russell Cameron of the Biological survey motored home and visited over the week end at his parental home, Eighth Line. Russel enjoys his work very much.

We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing husband and relatives of the late Mrs. Geo. Hargrave (nee Miss Annie Pedlar) who died after a prolonged illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lehman of Toronto visited with Mrs. Lehman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams over the week end.

Mr. W. D. Campbell, Toronto, visited over the week end with his wife and son, who are holidaying at "Fairview Villa." Mr. Campbell has purchased a fine new Chevrolet sedan. He, with his wife and son, will go on a motor trip to New Liskeard, Cochrane, and other points. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Kimmerley and children and Mr. Kimmerley's mother, of Watertown, N.Y., are visiting with Mrs. K's mother, Mrs. D. Sloan.

Mrs. Chas. Quesnel and children of Owen Sound spent Friday with Mr. Jos. Sherwood and Miss Lucy MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis of Toronto visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Hanley, Mrs. Lewis (nee Miss Susie McMaster) was married recently. We wish the young couple many happy and prosperous days of weddeed life.

Mr. Lorenzo Martin spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gorley and his sister, Irene, before returning to Detroit, to resume his work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Boyce and sons of Northern Ontario visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood and children of Markdale, Mrs. Thos. Lever of Flesherton and daughter, Miss Marge Lever of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin and family on Sunday.

Mrs. W. Nixon (nee Miss Gertrude Paul) and Mrs. Robt. Watt (nee Ruth Paul) of the West are visiting with their father, Mr. Elijah Paul at present.

We understand that a Miss Milligan of Allen Park will teach in the Eighth Line school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard LeGard and family of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McKee. Mrs. W. Pedlar of Toronto was a caller on her sister, Mrs. Thos. McKee recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell and children visited a few days in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell motored to Toronto for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Graham spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hoggard and family, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrick and Mrs. E. Jamieson of Alliston visited with the Latimer and Proctor families, Mrs. L. Latimer, who has been on a fortnight's visit in Alliston, returned home with them.

We suppose the "resident" who wrote the letter, re horses on streets, is resting easier now, since most or all of the horses have been taken off the streets since a car was damaged by hitting a horse recently.

A TALENTED YOUNG LADY

Aileen Tyrill, the thirteen year old daughter of Dr. E. K. Richardson, and granddaughter of the late Mr and Mrs. M. K. Richardson, who has been attending Moulton College, has had the distinction of standing first in her year in general proficiency first in the college of art, and first in drawing, for which most appropriate prizes were presented her by Chancellor Whidden of McMaster University, recently.

When every man has a number on his house every enquiring reporter will be happy.

Mrs. G. F. Hargrave Passed Away Friday

Annie Gladys Pedlar, beloved wife of George F. Hargrave, passed away at her home, west backline, Artemesia, on Friday, July 19 at the early age of 33 years. The deceased lady was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pedlar of the Collingwood gravel. She had been suffering for a long time with rheumatic trouble. The funeral took place on Monday to Salem cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Farow, Anglican minister, assisted by Rev. Coutts, United Church minister, both of Markdale. She is survived by her husband, father, mother, two brothers and two sisters—Lewis, Flesherton; Hugh D., Oxbow, Sask.,; Dora (Mrs. Cecil Meldrum); Nellie (Mrs. John Wickens) Kimberley; all of whom were at the funeral. The deceased was tenderly nursed during her last days of suffering by Mrs. Lewis Pedlar and Mrs. Ben Hargrave.

The floral offerings were very fine and numerous.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

See Findlay's advt. for particulars to the balloon ascension in connection with Old Home Week.

This week we received a letter from Miss A. C. Macphail, M. P., who is travelling with a chautauqua in the United States. It deals with intresting points in her travels. Next week we hope to publish it, as we are crowded this issue.

Mr. Stewart Thibaudeau, the new principal of the high school, has moved his family and household effects to town and is occupying Mr. C. J. Crossley's residence on Toronto street.

Miss Luella and Emeline Brooks of Buffalo, were the guests of Mrs. C. Wilcock last week. Both ladies were born in Flesherton and were daughters of the late James Brooks, who was by trade a stone manson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pedlar of Oxbow, Sask., arrived on Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pedlar of Rock Mills, and other friends. Hugh is editor of The Oxbow Herald and has made good at editing in the West. He will be more than pleased to meet many of his old friends at the Old Home Week celebration.

Flesherton people and home-comers will be pleased to learn that Mrs. M. A. Sproule, widow of the late Dr. Thos. Sproule, ex-Speaker of the House of Commons, daughter of the late W. K. Flesher, Esq.. after whom the village was named, has graciously consented to perform the little ceremony of hoisting and presenting the new flag on August Fifth, at noon.
