OLD HOME WEEK
Flesherton, August 3-7

Are you coming home for Old Home Week?
A week filled full of joys
Oh! you will have a happy time
With the old girls and boys.
Old friends you will greet,
And joyous days recall,
New friends you will meet,
There's a jolly time for all.
Pleasant memories you'll recollect,
At the snhool house on the hill.
And those by-gone days when you fished,
In the stream by the mill.
There'll be old time dances,
Dances as of yore,
You'll join in and have a dance,
If you've never danced before.

BRYCE — TAYLOR

One of the most attractive weddings of the season was held at five o'clock, Thursday, July 18th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Laughlin G. Taylor, Sarnia, when her youngest daughter, Fried Aileen, was united in marriage to Dr. William Drummond Bryce of Flesherton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryce of Kipling, Sask. The Rev. G. C. Raymer of the Parker street United Church officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her mother, was very charming in her wedding gown of ivory satin trimmed with silk Belgium lace and her veil of silk embroidered net was held in place with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of ophelia roses, lily of the valley, forget-me-nots and a shower of sweetheart roses. Miss Nancy June Cochrane of Martins Ferry, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Miss Lillian L. Bryce of Kipling Sask., sister of the groom, played the wedding music and, during the signing of the register, Lloyd Williams sang "At Dawning." The groom was supported by Morris George of London.

Following the reception a buffet luncheon was served. The house was beautifully arranged with profusions of pink roses, blue delphinium and white hydrangea. Later Dr. and Mrs. Bryce left on a motor trip to the Georgian Bay district, the bride travelling in a poudre blue georgette with accessories of blond shade. On their return they will reside in Flesherton.
