Attended Big Radio Convention Last Week

Mr. H. Down has returned from Hamilton where he attended the Radio Dealer Meeting of the Canadian Westinghouse Company, which was held at the Glendale Golf and Country Club.

At this convention there were introduced, two radically new types of receivers, the Consolaire and the Screen Grid Radiolas, and the Westinghouse Pioners in Radio achieved, without doubt, the most impressive and successful Convention since radio has made its first bow to the public.

Enthusiasm for the new models was engendered the moment they were exposed to view, and the many advances made over previous models were smilingly admitted by everyone of this large body of men who make a business of selecting and supplying to the public radio's latest achievements and best values.

Mr. H. Down expects to have the new Westinghouse Sets on display very shortly.

Large Crowds Attended All the Old Home Week Festivities

The Re-Union Was Attended by Hundreds of Old Residents Who Again Renewed Acquaintances of Youth

It was a wonderful home-coming. The dear old Boys and Girls came home in thousands. And everyone who came was loud in his claim that it was worth a trip across the continent to be present on such a wonderful occasion. All met friends whom they had not seen for many years, and would never see aain. This home-coming was the greatest event that has ever been celebrated in this county at least, and everyone pronounced it the finest celebration of the kind that they had ever attended. There was harmony throughout and no jarring notes were introduced to mar the pleasure of the visitors, while the various items on the program were carried through on the time schedule and without a hitch.

Saturday afternoon and evering the old boys and girls commenced arriving in droves and Saturday night the streets were filled with visitors in town and with extra lighting, bunting and flags was in gala dress for the occasion. Sunday morning, however was the first day of the Old Home Week celebrations. The Toronto contingent met at the road in front of the cemetery at 9.00 a.m. but on account of motor trouble with the coach carrying the Canadian Field Artillery Band the parade did not leave to march into town until 10 a.m. The procession was headed by Mr. W. J. Bellamy, clerk of the village carrying the Union Jack and accompanied by the members of the village council, the band playing "Home Sweet Home", which was very appropriate for the occasion. Several selections were given when the motocade reached the market square and then disembarked to allow the people to attend church services.

Rev. Jas. Dudgeon of Peterboro, a former pastor, preached in the United church, which was crowded full for the occasion, many not being able to secure entry even to the inside doors. Rev. Dr. G. Sidney Smith of Mearford and Rev. W. A. Hutchinson of Michigan, former Flesherton boys, assisted in the service. Rev. Dudgeon's text was found in Hebews 13:8, the subject being "The unchangeable Christ." "The Old Wayside Cross" was beautifully rendered by Drs. R. H. Henderson, E. C. Murray, J. D. Russell and F. W. Murray. The choir contained many old boys and girls who formed it many years ago. Dr. Fred Murray gave a soul-stirring tenor solo "I've Found a Friend," that gripped the hearts of the congregation.

The parade of the veterans of No. 6 Company of the 31st Regiment and of the Great War was held Sunday afternoon, headed by C. F. A. band and was in charge of Col. R. Ferguson of Thornbury, O. C. of the Grey Regiment. Mr. Jos. Field had charge of No. 6 Company and Major E. Bellamy the war veterans. There was a large turnout of both classes of veterans and the route from the high school to Memorial Park was lined with spectators. Upon arrival at the Park a minute's silence was observed in memory of those members who had passed on and who gave their all for Kin and Country. The oldest veteran in the parade, Mr. Henry Williams of Eugenia was honored with heading the parade, carrying the Union Jark.

Mr. T. Findlay, reeve, presided at the reception in the park and on behalf of the town welcomed the old boys and girls back for the reunion, and presented Mr. Harry Hooper of Toronto, the oldest visitor registered, with a three-foot silver key of the village, stating that the old home town welcome them with open arms. Mr. Hooper made an excellent reply on behalf of the visitors. Rev. Dudgeon, Rev. Hutchinson and Rev. G. Sidney Smith each addressed the large gathering. Mr. S. W. M. Hardwick rendered a solo and the quartette again rendered the "Old Wayside Cross." Dr. E. K. Richardson, chairman of the Toronto Old Boys' committee, replied to the address of welcome extended by T. W. Findlay. After the service the C. F. A. band rendered several selections. In the evening the concert by the band was held in the rink on account of the cool weather and it was filled to capacity. The concert was of a very high order and gave an excellent ending to a day which commenced with rain and continued until the arrival of the band in the morning.

Monday morning dawned bright and by nine o'clock the streets were crowded with spectators to view the calithumpian and trade procession. Many fine floats were in the parade chief of which were:- D. McKillop's float of bath room fixtures made by the Empire Brass Mfg. Co.; H. A. McCauley with a house built on a truck advertising building materials of all kinds; Bonne Entent coach made by the General Motors of Canada, D. McTavish & Son local representatives; John Nuhn, who had an excellent display of his woollen manufactures at his factory here and who had a weaving machine on his float; Duncan's hardware by a nice float and Morwood's shoe repair shop. There were qute a number of comic turnouts, one of which was the hard-time band made up by twenty-five of the boys of Toronto, who made plenty of noise, even though the rythm was not of the best. Twelve of the boys of town in various costumes formed a band that also made plenty of noise. First prize was given to a wedding party composed of Mr. Vernon Stewart and Mabel Thibaudeau, with Miss Irene Stewart driving them with the farm team hitched to an old time double surrey. Second prize was given to Billy Henry and party with a pony hitched to a cart and third prize was given to Norm McIllraith and Cyril Becker of Durham, who gave plenty of fun to the boys and girls with a goat hitched to a cart.

After the parade arrived at Flesher's pond water sports were indulged in that were quite successful. T. Findlay and Murray Stewart were the winners of the boys swimming race under 12; 12 to 16, Bill Lynn and Ed. Patton; open race, Ken Hemphill and Will Wilson; girls' race Betty Murray; under water, Will Wilson, Leslie Ferris; greasy pole, Leslie Ferris.

The most impressive ceremony of the occasion was the presenting of the flag to the village on behalf of the old boys and girls and raising aloft by Mrs. (Dr.) Sproule, widow of the late Dr. T. S. Sproule, formerly Speaker of the House of Commons and daughter of the late W. K. Flesher, founder of Flesherton. While the huge crowd stood silently with bared heads the C. F. A. band played the National Anthem as the flag unfurled to the breeze and cheers were then given as the flag waved poudly seventy feet above. Afterwads being followed with "Land of Hope and Glory" being sung by the thousands who witnessed the ceremony.

The sports in the afternoon at the fair grounds were attended by a crowd estimated at between four and five thousand people who enjoyed the afternoon of fun and entertainment. Oshawa Chevrolets won a beautiful silver cup by defeating the Lady Greys from Owen Sound by the score of 22-12 and which was presented to the captain of the team at the finish of the game.

This was followed by a junior lacrosse game between Toronto Keystones and Swansea junior, champions of their league, and was won by the latter 10-1. The Keystones were greatly handicapped with the absence of their star goalie, but they gave a splendid exhibition of the national game of Canada. Mr. Albert LeGard of Toronto is manager of the Swansea team and is an old Flesherton boy. His son, Bert plays goal for the Swansea team. Allenford won from Owen Sound in the baseball game 6-2 in a game that was full of interest and fast throughout.

In the horse shoe pitching competition at Flesherton on Monday Messrs. J. W. Boyd and A. E. Colgan of Markdale won first money and Jos. and Fred Stafford of Dundalk won second. In the ringer pitching competition Messrs. J. W. Boyd and J. Whelan were tied for first place and divided first and second money.

The large seating capacity of the rink was inadequate to seat the large crowd which attended the concert in
