amount of cunning, the smoothest tongue, and the hardest face, will stand the best chance of rising to the top.

If professional education means anything, it must surely comprise a course of training that has some effect in modifying the savage element of man's nature—of elevating him towards that desirable position which teaches him to recognize in his fellow-man, a brother, and which admonishes him that the exercise of his liberty should not conflict with the rights and privileges of others. If medical education does not accomplish this it is a failure in a professional sense, and the so-called medical profession is nothing but a conglomeration of wily men with dissimilar and conflicting interests, practiced in an art which if honestly followed will procure at best a bare subsistence; but which if dishonestly followed, may lead to distinction, and perhaps affluence.

The code of medical etiquette adopted by the Canadian Medical Association is quite explicit on this point.

It decides that it is contrary to the dignity of the medical profession for medical men to have recourse to public notices, to circulars for attracting the attention of persons afflicted with particular diseases, to publicly offer their attendance free to the poor, or to warrant cures; to publish operations and cases in public or non-professional journals, to boast of their cures or their remedies, to produce certificates of cures, and, in fine, to make use of the means that are generally resorted to by charlatans.

If opportunity should serve at some future time, and your readers seem interested in this subject, I may proceed to show the justness of these seemingly stringent rules, and the benefits accruing to the public from a full observance of them by professional men.

Some may think that I was prompted by jealousy, the hope of gain, or malice in making those remarks.

It is plain that it was not the first, for Dr. Maclean and I are not rivals, and where there is no rivalry there can scarcely be jealousy; nor the second, for the position taken was not one to win over the friendship of his friends; and the third, I must deny by saying, that I strive to live free from this mortal sin. It is from an innate and cultivated hatred of quack practices and self-laudation among the members of our profession, that I have acted as I have, whatever the public may think of my motives notwithstanding. Thanking you for your space and time, I remain yours, &c.

FRAS.

P. E. RAILWAY.—We understand that the meeting of the Directors of this road, at Montreal, on Thursday of last week, was in every respect a satisfactory one. The Tenders were opened, and although the contract has not yet been given we are assured work will be commenced next spring and the road pushed forward with as little delay as possible. So mote it be!—Picton Gazette.

Have you a cough, cold, pain in the chest, or Bronchitis? In fact, have you the premonitory symptoms of the "insatiate archer," consumptian? If so, know that relief is within your reach in the shape of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which, in many cases where hope had fled, has snatched the victim from the yawning grave.—Adv.

Cheerfulness, courage, and great activity of intellect are engendered by Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and its capacity of imparting power of endurance to the brain and nervous system is shown in its property of sustaining persons through mental difficulties.—Adv.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE attention of those who have been suffering for a long time from old complaints that have resisted all ordinary methods of treatment, is called to Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya. This remarkable preparation, by promoting the complete digestion and assimilation of food, creates pure vitalizing blood to restore diseased tissues and supply nerve force to all the organs of the body. It is a specific for Dyspepsia in all its forms, Liver Complaint and Disease of the Kidneys; and so speedily does it act, that improvement is frequently manifest the first day of taking it. Being a chemical food, its properties are nutritive, and cannot injure child or adult under any condition of the system whatever.

PSYCHOMANCY, OR SOUL CHARMING.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY

SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass., And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.

LIEBIG'S Liquid Extract of Beef

AND TONIC INVIGORATOR.

BESIDES the Condensed Beef prepared from the best parts of the animal, the preparation contains Quinine, Peravian Bark, and numerous heros and roots grown for their tonic and health-giving properties.

THIS IS THE ONLY CONDENSED BEEF THAT DOES NOT REQUIRE COOKING OR WARMING. It was especially manufactured under the direction of BARON VON LIEBIG, before the FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR, for the German soldiers. Its tonic qualities are much greater than those found in any ordinary Specific or Appetiser, and its nutritive properties are sufficient to sustain the body without the addition of solid food. It is now recommended by the Faculty in preference to anything else as the best remedy for CONSUMPTION, GENERAL DEBILITY, LOSS OF APPETITE, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, LASSITUDE, &c.

No article has yet been discovered that is so effective in all cases of failing health in the old or weakness in the young. This preparation is not only the best, but it is the cheapest Beef Extract offered to the public: TWO TABLESPOONFUL being sufficient THREE TIMES A DAY.

Great care should be taken in purchasing the LIQUID BEEF EXTRACT. See that the bottle contains the German Label and Certificate from Professor Wagner, of the University of Wurtzburgh, and that it is prepared by the Liebig's German Beef Extract Co., of Hamburg, as other Extract of an inferior quality have been put on the market.

Sold by all Hotel keepers, Grocers, and Druggists throughout Canada.

☞ Price 60 cents per bottle.
