

Settlers worked for

Abitibi

Just married

In the first picture taken after they were married, Vern Doey and his wife Dollie, pose for the cameraman in Matheson in June, 1924. They had been married in March of that year by Rev. P.C. Howard at the Anglican Church in Matheson.

Pioneers

Vern Doey married Dollie Court in Shillington in 1924. Both the Court and Doey families had arrived in the north twelve years earlier. The Doeys still live in Shillington, just down the road from their old farmhouse and property, which one of their sons has taken over.