LADY BANK

We are favored with good harvest weather at present, as well as grand hay season of the latest.

Mrs. Mullen, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. VanWinkle and son, Master J. VanWinkle, of Toronto have returned to their homes, after spending the past month with Mrs. Mullen's brothers here, Messrs. John and James Ottewell.

Miss Jean and Ruby Allison of Markdale visited the past week with their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Semple.

Mrs. McMillan and Miss Jessie McMillan spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Semple.

Mr. James Ottewell purchased a beautiful new car last week. We wish Mr. Ottewell many happy trips.

There will be service in the church at Providence each and every Sabbath evening through the summer months. Rev. Garbig of Maple Grove Baptist Church will conduct the service. There was service last evening at 7.30 p.m., with a good attendance.

The Ladies' Aid of Providence church and Feversham Presbyterian met at the home of Mrs. Torrance Williams, 10th line, Osprey, on Wednesday of last week with over thirty members and visitors present. The latter opened the meeting, while Providence put on a few contests. Mrs. McMillan and Miss McMillan of Feversham were the lucky ones in winning first prize on the first contest, and Miss Lillian Thompson won first prize on the second contest. Much credit is due to one and all who took such an interest in making the union meeting a success. Mrs. A. Holroyd gave a good reading which caused much merriment, while the Rev. N. Moffatt, Presbyterian pastor of Feversham, closed the meeting with prayer. A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess.

You Need Not Spoil Your Evening

Now that reduced evening rates on "long distance" begin at 7 p.m. (local time) it is possible to get one's telephoning done before evening engagements begin!

From 7 to 8.30 p.m. the rate on Station-to-Station calls is about 25 per cent less than the day rate.

Further reductions are in effect from 8.30 p.m. to 4.30 a.m.—about 50 per cent off day rates.

(The minimum reduced evening rate is 35c; and the minimum reduced night rate 25 cents).

This service —particularly the early evening type of message from 7 p.m. — is a real convenience!

The Ladies' Aid held an ice cream week end with her parents.

The adies' Aid held an ice cream social on Friday evening. The Ceylon boys and girls played ball with the boys and girls of the back line, the score being in favor of the back line team. The evening being cool, the program was given in the church, which was packed for the occasion. Mr. MacGillvray of Priceville was prevailed upon to act as chairman and with his wit and humor added much to the mirth of the program. The first number was the Maple Leaf, which was heartily sung; then came the chairman's address, after which the following numbers were given: several selections on organ, violin and mouth organ by Mrs. Roy Piper, Messrs. Alex. McDonald and George Cairns, which had to respond to encores; Miss Milly Whittaker gave three readings and the applause was loud and long and had to be responded to each time; solos were given by Miss M. Hemphill, duet by Mrs. Alex. McDonald and Mrs. Geo. Cairns; quartette by Messrs. Geo. Cairns and F. Duncan, Mrs. Alf. Down and Mrs. G. Cairns; two comic songs by Brady Irwin. A vote of thanks was then tendered to the chairman and all who so kindly assisted to make the occasion such a success. The program was then closed by the National Anthem, after which ice cream and cake were served. The proceeds amounted to over $30 and the Ladies' Aid is very grateful to all for their help.
