$10.00 Down is all you need to pay now to have the wonderful Gilson "Magic" Furnace placed in your home. Pay the balance in easy monthly payments. The "Magic" pays for itself!

Saves 30 to 40% each season on fuel costs. Figure what this saving means. It will pay for itself in no time.

And, besides this, you get a greater supply of healthy glowing heat—the result of the new methods of construction employed in making the Gilson "Magic".

Heavy Toncan steel plate cut and rolled to shape, then welded by electricity into one complete unit. Gas, smoke and dust cannot escape. Booster flues force heat to all rooms. Patented conical grates and many other exclusive features make the Gilson "Magic" an investment you cannot afford to be without.

The Late John Plester

Following an operation for hernia at Guelph hospital, John Plester, an seteemed poineer resident of Proton and Egremont townships, passed away on Aug. 9th. The deceased was born in England and came to Canada with his parents when 9 years old. The family settled at Marden, near Guelph As a young man Mr. Plester came to Proton, settling on con. 15. About 53 years ago he was married to Sarah A. Ferris, who now survives with five sons and three daughters, viz. Charles in Alberta, James in B. C., Wm., con. 9, Proton, John in Flesherton, George on the homestead in Egremont, Mrs. James Matthews, Markdale; Mrs. Jno. D. Ellis, con. 8, Proton; Mrs. Fred Sageman, con. 10, Proton; Thomas at Morden, Man., and William in Seattle, Washington.

The funeral, which was largly attended, was held on Monday from the home, con. 14, Egremont. Services were held in the United Church Hopeville, conducted by Mr. Davis, student pastor, and interment was made in Salem cemetery. The pallbearers were C. Wheeler, Wm. Dingwall, Geo. Blyth, Herb. Love, John Weir and A. McPhail. The deceased was a faithful member of the Methodist church for many years, and latterly of the United Church.—Dundalk Herald.
