Rev. Argyl Campbell, elder son of the late Rev. Peter Campbell, occuied the pulpit in the United church here on Sunday forenoon and preached a wonderful sermon, taking as his text the 14th Chap. of Judges—"And He said unto them, out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness." He expressed the topic in two words "Unexpected Good." He explained that we could not have peace and good unless the good spirit were there to emphasize it and what were the use of Peace Leagues, League of Nations, etc., if the destructive elements of evil were present in hearts and minds to break up peace at any time. Christ died and rose again that all might do the same and on that glorious resurrection day we shall all rise as Christ did and peace and good shall reign. Rev. Mr. Madden Sr. bestowed a prayer of blessing on all. It was indeed an interesting service throughout. Rev. Campbell was acompanied here by his mother and Miss Daw, the latter rendering a beautiful solo in a clear, pleasing tone. Rev. Campbell will leave in about two weeks for Uncle Sam's domain, where he will continue in the ministry. He told us on Sunday that his first sermon lasted seven minutes and his next one fifteen minutes, but on Sunday he gave us a good lengthy sermon and we are sure that with practice he will become a most proficent man for his profession. We wish him every success and may the blessings of God ever be upon him in his good work.
