The French Corps Legislatif is fairly frightened by the debt which M. Haussmann is imposing upon Paris, and which threatens to make her present heavy taxation a permanent burden on the citizens. The members have, therefore, insisted on a bill which provides that whenever the Prefect of the Seine spends more than £1,200 on any undertaking, he shall obtain the previous authorization of the Legislature. This law will tie M. Haussmann's hands. He is beginning to make work for work's sake, as in knocking down the best part of the Rue de la Paix.

EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.—It is amusing at times to observe the stores of the merchants who don't advertise; to see the anxious proprietors looking into the streets and see the people go by, wondering why they don't come in, while the stores of their neighbours who do advertise are thronged with customers. Some people will learn by observation, others will not.—Daily Pallaidium.

ADVERTISEMENTS for the DAILY NEWS, intended to appear the same evening, should be sent in at as early an hour in the day as possible.

ART OF ADVERTISING.—Horace Greeley, of New York, says:—The most successful business men in this city are those who have advertised liberally and constantly. A small advertisement constantly appearing is better than a display column occasionally.
