The Daily News,

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 21.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

The New York hospitals are so crowded with the unfortunate victims of coup de soleil that additional buildings are being prepared. The Morgue is crowded to excess, and coroners are kept at work night and day attending to the bodies which arrive every few minutes. The stream of carriages that come in line freighted with dead and dying seems interminable. The bodies of the dead are ranged in coffins, which, owing to the pressure, have to be placed in tiers of six and seven deep.

Prof. Goldwin Smith has accepted the chair of Constitutional History at the Cornell University, in the State of New York, during the term of his projected residence in America, for the purpose of writing the history of the country. A New York journal naively remarks, "he will confer upon us the undoubted advantages of his great historical acquirements and professional talent while he is engaged in writing our history—a more questionable boon at his hands. Even now he knows so much more about American affairs than any American does, that we dare not look forward to the astounding discoveries about ourselves and our history that we shall be favoured with when he adds personal observation to his present means of information." We really never imagined that it was possible any American journal could make such an admission as that.

The thermometer, on the 14th instant, marked the following degrees of heat in the shade at the places named:—Washington, 103; Burlington, Vt., 102; Baltimore, Md., 103½; Montreal, 98; Ottawa, 104; Belleville, 102; Toronto, 100; and at nine o'clock in the morning at Halifax, 70; Portland, 77; Boston, 80; New York, 90; Chicago, 91; New Orleans, 80; Havana, 77.

A striking illustration of the force of a mother's love for her child has recently been exhibited in Iowa. The circumstances are reported in noticing the pardon, by Gov. Merrill, of a woman, Catharine McArdle, who had been sentenced four years ago to the State Penitentiary for life. She confessed to the murder of her husband and was sentenced to be hanged, but her sentence was commuted by Gov. Stone. It was afterward found that she was entirely innocent, and that her son was the guilty person. To save him from the gallows, she had avowed that she was guilty of the crime.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN NEW YORK.—The following facts were proved in one of our courts yesterday:—A girl of sixteen or seventeen years of age, who lived as a domestic with a private family in Newark, New Jersey, was recently taken by her father, against her will, and lodged in the house of the Good Shepherd, in this city, a Roman Catholic house of refuge for fallen women. The girl has no mother. Her father has brought her up in the Catholic faith; but she has, in his view, fallen from the true faith; for she has become a pious and exemplary Methodist. There is no doubt she was living a life without reproach at the time of her arrest. She was brought before Judge Sutherland at the Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday, on a writ of habeas corpus addressed to the keepers of the house in which she was detained. Their claim to her custody was under the authority of her father, who appeared in person, and in a coarse and profane way attempted to break down his daughter's character. He brought witnesses, decidedly the reverse of prepossessing in appearance, to testify to her shame and their own. But the effort to destroy her character utterly failed. Judge Sutherland spoke of the case with great hesitation, and plainly admitted that he had serious doubts whether he was doing right; but not being satisfied that the facts justified him in taking the child from her father's custody, he gave her back to the "House of the Good Shepherd." It was shown on the trial that this house is to her a prison, in which other punishment is inflicted than confinement; and it is to be feared that the application of this Protestant girl for personal freedom, and for the protection by law of her conscience against violence, will not improve her situation there.—New York Post.

THE ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE, invented by R. Freeman, Pharmaceutist, is allowed to be one of the greatest discoveries of the present century. It is largely employed by the most eminent Physicians and Surgeons in hospital and private practice in all parts of the world. It has effects peculiar to itself, and which are essentially different to those produced by the various compounds bearing the name of Chlorodyne, but have no pretence to possessing its virtues. It rapidly relieves pain, from whatever cause, allays the irritation of fever, soothes the system under exhausting diseases, and gives sleep without producing any one of the unpleasant feelings so commonly arising from the use of opiates. It continues to hold its unshaken position in the estimation of the Profession as the best, most reliable, and cheapest preparation. Eminent and scientific Physicians made affidavits that they have tested its effects in careful comparison with those of "DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE," and deposed to the facts that they found it a more certain and reliable preparation, and greatly preferred "FREEMANS."

Earl Russell communicated to the Royal College of Physicians and to Mr Freeman, that in Manilla the only remedy of any use in Cholera was Chlorodine.

The Medical Times and Gazette, January 13th, 1866, states, "It has an immense sale amongst the public, and is prescribed by scores of Orthodox Medical Practitioners, and, of course, it would not be thus singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place."

Manufactured by the Inventor, Richard Freeman, 70, Kennington Park Road, London, S.

The genuine has engraved on the Government Stamp (outside each Bottle), "FREEMAN'S ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE."

CONDY'S PATENT FLUID or natural disinfectant purifies, deodorises, and disinfects, by the agency of nascent or ozonic oxygen,—its active principle. Being entirely innoxious, this truly scientific preparation is peculiarly adapted for the following useful purposes, for which all other disinfectants, on account of their poisonous or other objectionable qualities, are unavailable and useless:—

Detecting organic impurities in air and water.

Purifying drinking and other water from organic matter, lead, &c.

Freshening the air of close places, and removing bad smells.

Freeing meat, fish, butter, or other provisions from taint.

Counteracting the effects of organic poisons taken into the stomach.

Curing Musty provender. Freeing wheat and other seed from smut.

Maintaining the health of plants in pots and conservatories.

Preserving and restoring the freshness of cut flowers kept in water.

Destroying the blight of the potatoe, vine, hop, mulberry tree, &c.

Washing dogs and other domestic animals.

Cleansing bottles, beer barrels, pickling tubs, dairy utensils.

Washing the hair and darkening its colour when turning grey.

Enhancing the purifying and invigorating effects of baths and tubs.

Dressing poisoned wounds and destroying animal virus.

Treating the infectious diseases of cattle, horses, dogs, &c.

One gallon makes 200 to 300 gallons adapted for use.

N.B.—Condy's Fluid is the Standard Scientific Test for Organic Matter in Water, and affords the only known means of rapidly and completely freeing Drinking Water from Organic Taint, which is so common a cause of serious disease.

To rapidly purify the air, use the diluted fluid with "Condy's Ozoniser" or other Spray-producer.

CONDY'S PATENT OZONISED WATER,
(FOR TOILET PURPOSES,)

Removes from the mouth impure and foreign tastes and odours, whether arising from tobacco or other causes, and counteracts the irritation and morbid secretions of carious teeth. It purifies and softens the skin, and, used in the bath, tends to promote a healthy state of the whole body.

H. BOLLMAN CONDY,
Patentee, Battersea, London.

JUDSON'S SIMPLE DYES FOR THE PEOPLE. Any one can use them; anything can be dyed with them. It is impossible in this small space to enumerate the many uses to which these wonderful and beautiful chemical preparations can be applied; while their chief use is for dyeing textile fabrics, they are also invaluable as a colouring agent for almost every known material, the ease with which they can be used and the brilliancy of the result being, indeed, almost magical. By their use almost any article of clothing can be dyed in a few minutes for a few pence without soiling the hands.

MEMORANDA.

MAGENTA: The strength and beauty of this dye is almost incredible. A Sixpenny bottle will dye 20 yards of Bonnet Ribbon in 10 minutes; it will also produce a clear Rose Pink by using less dye. Suitable also for Woollen Goods, Feathers, Silks, &c.

WOOLLENS: Magenta, Mauve, Violet, Purple, Orange, Pink, and Crimson produce the most satisfactory results. Use a large quantity of boiling water in an earthen pan. RIBBONS and SILKS: Brush them with soap and water to avoid creases, and to render them clean. Dye in boiling water.

FEATHERS: Dye in hot water (a few drops of the dye is sufficient for one feather).

COTTON: Mauve, Violet and Purple are recommended.

LEATHER: Blue, Magenta, Violet and Orange. Dye in warm water.

WHITEWASH: To color: Magenta, for Pink or Rose; add half a bottle to a pail of water, then stir in the Whitening as usual. Mauve, Violet, Purple, Blue and crimson produce pretty tints by using one bottle or more, as directed above.

STARCH: Stir in a few drops of Colour—Magenta, Mauve, Violet, Blue or Pink; these impart delicate tints to Lace, Linen, &c.

WILLOW SHAVINGS, Wicker, Ivory, Bone, Hair, Fibres, Seaweed, &c., attract the dye quickly, if applied in boiling water.

BLUE: For laundry purposes is A 1.

BOOK EDGES: A Sixpenny bottle of Magenta, Violet, Crimson or Blue will make from a pint to a quart of beautiful colouring, according to shade required. Apply with a brush.

PAPER and WOOD STAIN: Ditto.

OAK STAIN: A bottle of No. 2 Black to half a-pint of hot water.

SATINWOOD STAIN: A Sixpenny bottle

Canary dissolved in a pint of boiling water

PHOTOGRAPHS may be tinted; dilute the dye with water; a bottle of Magenta to a pint of water, &c.

ILLUMINATING: Magenta, Violet, Blue, Orange; pour a few drops into an egg cup add warm water; use with a brush or pen. Borders of books, similar to Ward and Lock's Arabian Nights, &c., may be prettily illuminated in this manner.

BLANCMANGE, JELLY, CORN FLOUR, ICE CREAMS, &c: While in a liquid state add one or two drops of Magenta. A more simple or elegant tinting cannot be had.

CONFECTIONERS will find Magenta, Violet Orange and Pink useful colours.

GELATINES and GLUES are successfully coloured with these dyes.

INK: A Sixpenny bottle of Magenta to a pint or more of cold water.

WATER: One drop of dye will tint a quart.

PRINTING on Cotton, Silk or Wool in the ordinary way.

BLENDING some of the dyes in the bath will produce an infinity of shade, according to taste.

BILL HEADS and other kinds of JOB PRINTING executed with neatness and despatch at the Daily News office, Princess Street.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.

Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this unrivalled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.,
Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,
Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,
Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the personal attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,
Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.

"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholaic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,
Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of that substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,
Author of the "Spas of Germany."

"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,
Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.

"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."
