DEATH OF A BOY FROM HYDROPHOBIA.—Thos. Fitzpatrick, aged seven years, whose parents reside in Willoughby avenue, Brooklyn, died on Monday evening, from hydrophobia. It appears he was bitten by a mad dog some time in May last. A physician was called to examine the injury, and the marks made by the animal's teeth were cut out. The wound healed in course of time, and the boy seeming to be in as good health as previous to the injury, nothing more was thought about it till Monday morning, when a strange, wild look about the eyes of the child attracted the attention of the mother. Doctors Chase, Brady, and Godwin were called in, and found the boy foaming at the mouth, and presenting other unmistakable evidence of the dreadful malady. They did everything possible for his relief, but without avail, and in about twelve hours after the first symptoms were manifested, the child was relieved from farther suffering by death.

A farmer near Davenport, Iowa, was short of help, and two men whom he had hired died from sunstroke. He went to the city to procure coffins, and also to hire others to take their place. Having loaded up the coffins he started out to hire the help, which he soon obtained and brought to the waggon. The men looked rather shyly at the suspicious freight and asked whom the "boxes" were for, and on being told, concluded not to hire, as it looked like hiring men and buying coffins for them at the same time. The farmer concluded to make two trips of it, and bury his dead before hiring others to take their places. The story got out that he hired the men and bought the coffins to save one extra trip to the city, and they didn't like his way of doing business. The men would not believe that the coffins were not bought in advance in anticipation of the necessity of their use.

The Duke of Portland has written an extraordinary letter to the editor of the Nottingham Journal, in reply to some comments made in that paper in reference to certain alleged proceedings of His Grace in the matter of coercing his tenantry at the coming election. The Duke has never been, he says, in disaccord with the leaders of the Liberal party, except when they took action purely for party purposes. He thinks their present course is entirely determined by party considerations, and states his opinion in the following terms: "There is not a single individual in the kingdom thoroughly well acquainted with public affairs, who, if a gentleman, would deny on his honour, or, if otherwise, on his oath (unless a fit subject for committal for perjury!) that party motives, and party motives alone, have been the guiding star of the mover of the present onslaught on the Church, an unholy alliance with Demagogues and Papists, whose openly avowed objects are to pull down the best and most ancient institution of the country, and set up Yankeeism in politics and voluntaryism and Popisdom in religion."

An affair has just taken place in a Welsh village, which, if the details had not been proved in a police court, there might be some difficulty in crediting as a piece of contemporaneous history. A man, named Williams, living at Waenfawr, Carnarvonshire, got tired of his wife, and after living apart from her for some time, married again. It appears that it is the custom to regard the woman, and not the man, as the principal offender in these cases, and according to the unwritten law of the country her penalty is that she shall be seized by her neighbours and placed in an upright position upon a ladder (freshly tarred if practicable), with her legs through the holes, and be carried about the village for such a space of time as seems good to her bearers. Williams's second wife was accordingly seized at 10 o'clock at night by a mob, which surrounded the house where she had taken refuge, and being fixed in the ladder in the position described, she was carried not only all over the village, but for a distance of two miles along the turnpike road, being redelivered at home shortly after midnight. A policeman watched the proceedings from a safe distance, and valiantly taking down the names of ten men and two women whom he recognized in the crowd, they were subsequently summoned before the magistrates and fined a sovereign each.

A most extraordinary slave trade seems to be going on at this moment in Switzerland. It apears that certain "families" in Austria, chiefly in Hungary and Croatia, who canot afford to keep a French governess, have for some time been in the habit of procuring small children of from eight to twelve years of age from the French cantons (Fribourg, Neufchatel, &c). These, while serving as playmates for the "high well-born" children, teach them their French, such as it is. In many cases, however, the small whining boys or girls, left utterly unprotected and helpless in their owners' hands, are brutally ill-treated, and in the end driven out of doors to starve on the roadside. The matter has become so flagrant that the Government has had to take notice of it. A case which occurred quite recently has, indeed, caused an official remonstrance and exchange of notes between Austria and Switzerland. A certain noble in Warasdin had bought a little slave girl for his family, and after a short time turned her out with a whole florin "to go to Vienna with." The child, ten years of age, was picked up at the roadside in a melancholy condition, and bodily forwarded to the Swiss Charge d'Affaires, Tschudi, in Vienna. The Federal Council are about to take energetic steps for the suppression of this disgraceful abuse.

SUGAR-COATED

ARE a safe and reliable remedy in all diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. They are not Quack Medicines puffed up by high sounding testimonials from imaginary people, but are the result of forty years experience of a first-class physician, and their extraordinary success is due to the fact that they answer exactly their name. The formula from which they are prepared, is based on sound, scientific principles, and has received the unqualified approbation of the medical profession. They do not profess to be a cure-all, but for all diseases arising from any derangement of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they furnish an effectual remedy. We have in our possession, over one hundred testimonials from physicians who have used them in their practice and highly approve of them, among which are the following.

THE ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE, invented by R. Freeman, Pharmaceutist, is allowed to be one of the greatest discoveries of the present century. It is largely employed by the most eminent Physicians and Surgeons in hospital and private practice in all parts of the world. It has effects peculiar to itself, and which are essentially different to those produced by the various compounds bearing the name of Chlorodyne, but have no pretence to possessing its virtues. It rapidly relieves pain, from whatever cause, allays the irritation of fever, soothes the system under exhausting diseases, and gives sleep without producing any one of the unpleasant feelings so commonly arising from the use of opiates. It continues to hold its unshaken position in the estimation of the Profession as the best, most reliable, and cheapest preparation. Eminent and scientific Physicians made affidavits that they have tested its effects in careful comparison with those of "DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE," and deposed to the facts that they found it a more certain and reliable preparation, and greatly preferred "FREEMANS."

Earl Russell communicated to the Royal College of Physicians and to Mr Freeman, that in Manilla the only remedy of any use in Cholera was Chlorodine.

The Medical Times and Gazette, January 13th, 1866, states, "It has an immense sale amongst the public, and is prescribed by scores of Orthodox Medical Practitioners, and, of course, it would not be thus singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place."

Manufactured by the Inventor, Richard Freeman, 70, Kennington Park Road, London, S.

The genuine has engraved on the Government Stamp (outside each Bottle), "FREEMAN'S ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE."

CONDY'S PATENT FLUID or natural disinfectant purifies, deodorises, and disinfects, by the agency of nascent or ozonic oxygen,—its active principle. Being entirely innoxious, this truly scientific preparation is peculiarly adapted for the following useful purposes, for which all other disinfectants, on account of their poisonous or other objectionable qualities, are unavailable and useless:—

Detecting organic impurities in air and water.
Purifying drinking and other water from organic matter, lead, &c.
Freshening the air of close places, and removing bad smells.
Freeing meat, fish, butter, or other provisions from taint.
Counteracting the effects of organic poisons taken into the stomach.
Curing Musty provender. Freeing wheat and other seed from smut.
Maintaining the health of plants in pots and conservatories.
Preserving and restoring the freshness of cut flowers kept in water.
Destroying the blight of the potatoe, vine, hop, mulberry tree, &c.
Washing dogs and other domestic animals.
Cleansing bottles, beer barrels, pickling tubs, dairy utensils.
Washing the hair and darkening its colour when turning grey.
Enhancing the purifying and invigorating effects of baths and tubs.
Dressing poisoned wounds and destroying animal virus.
Treating the infectious diseases of cattle, horses, dogs, &c.
One gallon makes 200 to 300 gallons adapted for use.
N.B.—Condy's Fluid is the Standard Scientific Test for Organic Matter in Water, and affords the only known means of rapidly and completely freeing Drinking Water from Organic Taint, which is so common a cause of serious disease.
To rapidly purify the air, use the diluted fluid with "Condy's Ozoniser" or other Spray-producer.

CONDY'S PATENT OZONISED WATER,
(FOR TOILET PURPOSES,)
Removes from the mouth impure and foreign tastes and odours, whether arising from tobacco or other causes, and counteracts the irritation and morbid secretions of carious teeth. It purifies and softens the skin, and, used in the bath, tends to promote a healthy state of the whole body.
H. BOLLMAN CONDY,
Patentee, Battersea, London.

JUDSON'S SIMPLE DYES FOR THE PEOPLE. Any one can use them; anything can be dyed with them. It is impossible in this small space to enumerate the many uses to which these wonderful and beautiful chemical preparations can be applied; while their chief use is for dyeing textile fabrics, they are also invaluable as a colouring agent for almost every known material, the ease with which they can be used and the brilliancy of the result being, indeed, almost magical. By their use almost any article of clothing can be dyed in a few minutes for a few pence without soiling the hands.

MEMORANDA.

MAGENTA: The strength and beauty of this dye is almost incredible. A Sixpenny bottle will dye 20 yards of Bonnet Ribbon in 10 minutes; it will also produce a clear Rose Pink by using less dye. Suitable also for Woollen Goods, Feathers, Silks, &c.
WOOLLENS: Magenta, Mauve, Violet, Purple, Orange, Pink, and Crimson produce the most satisfactory results. Use a large quantity of boiling water in an earthen pan. RIBBONS and SILKS: Brush them with soap and water to avoid greases, and to render them clean. Dye in boiling water.
FEATHERS: Dye in hot water (a few drops of the dye is sufficient for one feather).
COTTON: Mauve, Violet and Purple are recommended.
LEATHER: Blue, Magenta, Violet and Orange. Dye in warm water.
WHITEWASH: To color: Magenta, for Pink or Rose; add half a bottle to a pail of water, then stir in the Whitening as usual. Mauve, Violet, Purple, Blue and crimson produce pretty tints by using one bottle or more, as directed above.
STARCH: Stir in a few drops of Colour—Magenta, Mauve, Violet, Blue or Pink; these impart delicate tints to Lace, Linen, &c.
WILLOW SHAVINGS, Wicker, Ivory, Bone, Hair, Fibres, Seaweed, &c., attract the dye quickly, if applied in boiling water.
BLUE: For laundry purposes is A 1.
BOOK EDGES: A Sixpenny bottle of Magenta, Violet, Crimson or Blue will make from a pint to a quart of beautiful colouring, according to shade required. Apply with a brush.
PAPER and WOOD STAIN: Ditto.
OAK STAIN: A bottle of No. 2 Black to half a-pint of hot water.
SATINWOOD STAIN: A Sixpenny bottle Canary dissolved in a pint of boiling water
PHOTOGRAPHS may be tinted; dilute the dye with water; a bottle of Magenta to a pint of water. &c.
ILLUMINATING: Magenta, Violet, Blue, Orange; pour a few drops into an egg cup add warm water; use with a brush or pen. Borders of books, similar to Ward and Lock's Arabian Nights, &c., may be prettily illuminated in this manner.
BLANCMANGE, JELLY, CORN FLOUR, ICE CREAMS, &c: While in a liquid state add one or two drops of Magenta. A more simple or elegant tinting cannot be had.
CONFECTIONERS will find Magenta, Violet, Orange and Pink useful colours.
GELATINES and GLUES are successfully coloured with these dyes.
INK: A Sixpenny bottle of Magenta to a pint or more of cold water.
WATER: One drop of dye will tint a quart.
PRINTING on Cotton, Silk or Wool in the ordinary way.
BLENDING some of the dyes in the bath will produce an infinity of shade, according to taste.

LEA AND PERRINS' Worcestershire Sauce. This delicious Condiment, pronounced by connoisseurs "The only good sauce," is prepared solely by Lea and Perrins. The Public are respectly cautioned against worthless imitations, and should see that Lea and Perrins' Names are on Wrapper, Label, Bottle, and Stopper. Ask for Lea and Perrins' Sauce.
Sold Wholesale and for Export, by the Proprietors, Worcester; Messrs. Crosse and Blackwell; Messrs. Barclay and Sons, London; &c.-&c.; and by Grocers and Oilmen universally

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.
Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this unrivalled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.
Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.
"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,
Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.
"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,
Coroner for Central Middlesex.
"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the important attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,
Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.
"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholatic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,
Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.
"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of that substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,
Author of the "Spas of Germany."
"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,
Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.
"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."
