Last Week's Items

Election day with all its excitement is over again. The Conservatives came out on top again, with many more seats in the House than there were last term. We hope that Premier Ferguson will make the law harsh in regards the L. C. A.

Two weeks ago a news item stead of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis, and friend of Toronto visited here instead f Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis, as Mrs. Purvis was in the hospital at that time. We are sorry this mistake was made.

Hurrah! for the Fowl Supper in th basement of the United church here, this Friday evening, Nov. 8. A good program afterwards. Come and enjoy yourself and let the fair maidens of Eugenia serve you with a plate of fowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Magee and son Willie spent a few days in Toronto, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and little daughter Lois visited a few days with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Partridge and shildren of Rock Mills spent Sunday at Mr. Chas. Martin's.

Mr. Harry Foester is opening up a blacksmith shop in Flesherton. We wish him success.

The hunters have gone on their annual hunting expedition. Messrs. Peter Munshaw and Ern Proctor from this village have joined their party. We wish them every success, a pleasant time and a good big deer.

There is a group of pigs numbering between 12 and 20, running at large squeezing in through gates and fences, eating apples etc. that people could use to advantage feeding their own pigs. If everybody let their pigs run at large what a menace they would be. If a person keeps pigs they should be able to afford a lodging place for them and not let them trouble other ptople.

That Car of Yours

needs attention for Fall driving... The motor transmission and differential need lighter oil at this time of the year and we have it in proper density for YOUR particular car.

Again — the rough and greasy roads make it imperative that your motor be cleaned up to stand the "gaff" of constant gear changing and hard pulling. Have your brakes inspected often and make sure they are right.

We offer you our usual efficient, prompt service — with courtesy. Drive in.
