The Flesherton Advance.

Vol. 49 No. 23 | Flesherton Ontario, November 20, 1929 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietor

KIMBERLEY

Winter arrived today in its pretty white dress. We have had such a beautiful autumn, all should be ready to receive the winter.

Mr. D. L. Weber has a fine Delco-Light plant installed and gives an excellent light.

Mrs. F. Davis is spending a few days with her parents and sister.

Mr. A. Andrews of Galt is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Plewes.

Mrs. F. Smith and little son of Detroit nad Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson and children of Flesherton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs G. Hutchinson.

Mr. Ellis Weber, Miss Geraldine Weber and a number of Orangeville friends spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber also Miss Evelyne Saul.

Rev. Scott of Flesherton took the missionary service in the church on Sunday evening. His sermon was certainly fine. Those who did not attend missed a treat. The missionary question is a very vital one and we all should give it our best thought. Rev. Stotesbury took Mr. Scott's work at Flesherton.

Friday night saw the opening of our community social evenings. It was under the leadership of Mrs. A. E. Myles. Mr. T. S. Cooper, the agricultural representative of Markdale, was present with his picture machine and gave "Out of the Storm," which was much appreciated by all present. He also gave a short talk at the close. The next social evening will be a dance.

Mrs. Carruthers and Mr. Carl Carruthers are preparing the S. S. pupils for their annual Christmas tree to be held December 20th.

Mr. S. S. Burritt has started on his school rounds again. He hopes to visit all in his division before the end of the year.

Miss Ora Stafford of Toronto spent Thanksgiving at her home here. Mr. Ralph Stafford accompanied her for a few days in the city.

Mr. J. Abercrombie leaves this week to spend the winter in Toronto.

Rev. Stotesbury is spending a few days in Toronto this week.

ROCK MILLS

Monday was a very disagreeable day when it rained and snowed all day.

Mrs. Walter Russell and daughter, Bessie, spent the past week with her brothers, Messrs. Henry and Nelson Osborne, at Owen Sound.

Miss Edith Betts is laid up with lumbago at present, but we trust that she may soon be able to be around again.

Don't forget the anniversary services to be held in the Rock Mills Baptist church next Sabbath at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The pastor, Rev. Wolstencroft, will have charge of the services.

Mr. Geo. Johnston intends holding an auction sale of farm stock and implements etc., on Wed., Nov. 27.

The Rock Mills Baptist Sunday School intend having their Christmas tree on Wed., Dec. 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Conn, Rozell and Doris, of Feversam visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Croft.

Have New Quarters

Mr. W. G. Kennedy has rented the upper apartments of his store to Prince Arthur Masonic Lodge, No. 333, and moved his household effects on Tuesday to Mr. W. I. Henry's residence. Mr. Kennedy will renovate the flat for the use of the Lodge, and expects to commence in the spring to build a new residence. Mr. Wes. Armstrong is fitting up the apartment over his store which has been used for Masonic purposes for a great number of years.

MAXWELL

Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock, Lloyd Morrison, age 11 years, was riding a bicycle and in trying to turn onto the cement walk, the wheel turned throwing him on the walk. Concussion of the brain was the result. He was rushed to his home but did not regain consciousness until late Sunday night. Dr. Gauld was in attendance. Lloyd is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morrison of the village. He is doing as well as can be expected.

The annual fowl supper under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Maxwell was held in the church hall Nov. 13th. Supper was served to over three hundred people. A play was then presented by the young people in the Orange hall. The title of the play was "The Pouter Pigeon," in which all players very ably took their parts. The characters were as follows:

Philander Royal.....Chas. Brodie
Orpha Royal.....Ella Morrison
Alice Royal.....Alice Long
Stephen Royal.....Joe Wright
Sylvia Royal.....Mrs. R J Morrison
Richard Royal.....George Morrison
Hilda, the maid.....Mabel Ross

The Pedlar orchestra supplied music between acts, which was much enjoyed.

On Friday last the local institute visited the Maxwell school. They were well entertained by the children with songs, recitations, dancing and a dialogue. The ladies then served lunch of sandwich, cake, tea and candy. The lunch fee of the day was given to the school to assist with the hot lunches for winter months. Our teacher, Miss Maynard, very ably supervises the lunches and they are much enjoyed by the pupils.

LADY BANK

Nov. 18. We might venture to say that this is our first real winter-like appearance to- day, Monday, with some snow falling on soft ground; but take the season all through, we have had one grand, long fall.

The hunters who took in the seasons outing from this district, namely, Messrs. Ed. Harbottle, Joshua and Mannie Dobson, Willard Benson and Mr. Harry Cowshie, all returned the last part of the week, each getting his lawful number of deer and had good luck and a pleasant trip.

Mrs. Wm. Semple and daughter Miss Janie and Master Ernie Semple spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaitting at Feversham.

Mr. and Mrs. Les. McMillan and babe visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McMullen at East Mountain Sunday.

Mr. Gayord Kaitting of Detroit was a welcome caller on a few of his old time neighbors on the 12th line East and Lady Bank a few days last week.

Messrs. Fred Semple and Ross Patterson of Isington spent Thanksgiving at the formers parental home here.

The Chicken pie supper and entertainment provided by the Ladies Aid here was a fair success, considering the cold weather. We wish to thank one and all who helped in every way with both the supper and entertainment.
