Monteith Is SCENE Of Military WEDDING

The Anglican Church at Monteith was beautifully decorated with pink and white geraniums, petunias and roses with archways of ferns and flowers decorated with pink, blue and white streamers, for a very pretty wedding recently.

The Rev. Mr. Mitten officiated and Miss Norma Miller played the wedding music accompanying Cpl. N. Dwhyte who sang, "Where E'er you Walk," when Rachel Eleanor Critchley, the eldest daughter of H. F. Critchley and the late Mrs. Critchley, became the bride of Sgt. John Henry Jobson, Canadian Dental Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Jobson, of Toronto.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin and lace with floor-length veil and halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

Miss Evelyn Critchley, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and wore pale blue net with lace top over satin and carried a bouquet of red roses. The groom was attended by Sgt. F. H. Watson, Can. Dental Corps, of London, Eng., and the usher was H. Whittington, of Monteith.

The scene was lent a military touch as the groom arrived at the church in a Jeep followed by the pipe band under Sgt. McKenzie leading the W.O.'s and Sgts. of Camp 23, of which the groom is a member.

After the ceremony the happy couple passed through the archway of canes of the guard of honor, which the N.C.O.'s formed, to where the Jeep was waiting to take them to the reception

tners,
which was held at the home of the bride.
Mrs. Phil. Critchley, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor, and received the guests wearing a lovely flowered blue dress with corsage.
The groom's mother received in a grey ensemble with pink carnation corsage.
Mrs. A. Jobson, sister-in-law of the groom, wore turquoise with corsage of red roses.
Mrs. Powers, aunt of the groom, was attired in poudre blue ensemble with pink carnation corsage. The happy couple left for Timmins and Toronto for their honeymoon.

Fine Efforts Shown At Monteith Camp

Monteith Army Camp has been very much in the picture during the Fourth Victory Loan drive throughout this section of Northern Ontario. Besides helping during the campaign, the camp itself subscribed $21,400 from the 700 men stationed there.

A committee was organized with Lt.-Col. George C. Machum, second in command at the camp, acting as chairman. There were representatives from the different units and detachments in camp, which included No. 8 and No. 35 companies of the Veterans Guard of Canada commanded by Major T. L. Reid and Major W. A. S. Porter, M.C., respectively; camp headquarters staff; No. 2 E. S. & W. company of the R.C.E.; No. 3 works company of the R.C.E.; Monteith Military Hospital; Canadian Dental Corps and R.C.A.S.C., a total of 703 military personnel.

Canvassers for each unit and detachment were appointed and the drive got under way April 26. The first two days produced a total of $7,950 with one subscription from a newly enlisted private with the camp staff, for $3,000. This soldier has a son who was taken prisoner at Dieppe while serving with the Royal Regiment of Canada. The third day, the total reached $11,050, and the fourth day, $14,000. An officer of the staff had subscribed for $2,000. The feature of the fifth day was a subscription for $1,000 from a private soldier in No. 8 company, V. G. C.

After that progress was steady, and the total subscription of $21,400 brought the average per man to $30.57, going far over the top of the Army quota of $20 per man.

Eighty percent of the camp personnel are members of the Veterans Guard and the balance is made up of young men of the new army. Of the final total, Camp Headquarters staff, with 141 in all ranks, subscribed $9,550 or an average of $67.73 per man, and the oldiers feel certain that they have reached a record.

The Camp did not set itself a quota for the campaign, but erected a "thermometer" outside the camp kitchen, displaying a slogan at the top "The Sky's the Limit," and the committee urged efforts until they could guarantee that every man in the camp had had a chance to sign his name on the dotted line.

The evening was spent in playing games and group singing, after which the bride-to-be was seated in a decorated chair and presented with many gifts arranged on a specially decorated table.

Following the opening of the gifts, the guest of honor thanked her friends. Lunch was served by the hostesses, to conclude the evening.

Those present were: Mrs. Elmer McClinchey, (mother of the honoree), Mrs. B. Bellhameur and Lise, Mrs. Henry Laflamme,

On Sunday evening, April 25, the Commandant, Colonel R. Hamilton Bliss, D.S.O., was main speaker at a rally in Timmins and gave an inspiring address. He was accompanied to Timmins by the "Troubadours" of the Monteith Camp, a concert party composed completely of veterans serving at the camp. The Commandant and the "Troubadours" made a big hit and were booked to make a tour of the country. They made an appearance in Cochrane on April 30 and staged a show there.

On Sunday, May 2, they left by convoy for a three-day trip, and took part in rallies at Kapuskasing on Sunday before a packed house; Monday at Hearst, and at Smooth Rock Falls Tuesday night. Colonel Bliss delivered addresses at all these places and the Troubadours performed for the benefit of very appreciative audiences.
