Mrs. Van Luven
Dies In Toronto

MONTEITH (Special) — Mrs. Josephine Van Luven, 57, died in Toronto, Sunday following a heart attack.

The Monteith woman was in Toronto with her husband to attend the Jehovah Witnesses convention and was staying with her son Carmen.

Mrs. Van Luven was a senior resident of the district having resided in Monteith since her marriage to her first husband James Biglow, who died in 1946. She remarried about six years ago.

She is survived by her husband Leonard; six children and three stepchildren. They are Orvil Biglow, of Monteith, Clifford of Iroquois Falls, Madeleine of Monteith, Betty of Ansonville, Carmen and James Biglow of Toronto. One son Clarence Biglow died overseas in the Second War.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Kingdom Hall chapel at Porquis. Burial was at the Porquis Cemetery.
