INTONING—WHAT IS IT?

1. It is a thing unknown in the primitive Church.—(Justin's apologies.) 2. It is a thing introduced in a mediæval, dark age. 3. It is a badge of the Church of Rome 4. It is, in effect, forbidden; at the Reformation and Restoration, the clergy being enjoined to "read" or "say" prayers." 5. It is an un-Protestant innovation in the establishment. 6. It is a direct violation of several rubrics. 7. It is a direct violation of the declaration which every clergyman makes when he accedes to a benefice.—("Act of Uniformity." See Prayer-Book.) 8. It is a direct violation of the rule laid down by Christ himself—(Luke xi. 2. "When ye pray, say," &c.) 9. It is the service of "feigned lips," an art taught by music-masters, and learnt by proficients after much labour and pains, and that in the unholy use of prayers, for the express purpose of learning to intone them in public! (See third commandment.) 10. It is a superstitious, and therefore a profane thing; as it rests upon the notion that it ought to be used as a sound more reverential, and consequently more acceptable to God than the sound of the natural voice. (But see Ps. lxvi. 19.) 11 It is an instance of "voluntary humility," if God does not require it; as to spend time and labour and pains to acquire the Art, is clearly an humiliation. Now God does not require it. 12. Its introduction into Cathedrals, and into College Chapels in the Universities, is rather a modern thing, than a vocal compromise between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, as some say it is. Dean Peacock introduced it into Ely Cathedral a few years ago; and two years ago Dr. Okes introduced it into King's College Chapel, Cambridge. 13. It keeps many prayerful people from the Cathedrals; for they dislike formalism, and all appearances of evil. 14. If it be introduced (some are trying to introduce it) into the parish churches, they will very soon be deserted by the wise and good and sincere; so anti-Popish, so anti-superstitious, and so straightforward and British is the spirit that is abroad; and so feared is any approximation to Laudian usages begun just previously to the calamitous years of the First Charles. 15. Is that drawling, nasal, artificial mode of prayer which the bigoted members of the Church of Scotland so delighted in, now happily by common sense and piety brought to an end? and will clergymen of the Church of England, a church often styled the "Star of the Reformation," endeavour zealously to introduce and perpetuate that whining, lachrymose, unconfiding, miserable tone, which the foolish and ignorant formalist delights in? Shall not such clergym[illegible] be called "Northern Lights" revived? All artifice in the worship of God is utterly abhorred of all Christians, save the meretricious Church of Rome."—(Luther.)

So swells each wind-pipe; Ass intones to Ass
Harmonick twang.
—Pope's Dunciad; quoted in Johnson's Dictionary, under "intone."

Would Johnson, a High-Churchman, have so ridiculed intoning had it been practised in the Protestant Cathedrals in his days?

JAPANESE AND CHINESE.

The Pittsburg Republican says Americans generally have quite confused and erroneous notions of the every-day life of the inhabitants of Eastern countries, particularly that of China and Japan. Our notions are to too great an extent derived from the personal appearance of the Chinamen we see in our streets, and from the labels on tea chests and Japanese trays. Those who have seen them at home think differently of them. The traveller Drummond says that the Japanese ladies are the most fascinating and elegant women that he ever saw in any quarter of the globe. Music, dancing, the theatre, tumblers, mummers and mountebanks abound to give them pleasure. Punch, who, many people think, is a means of amusement peculiar to the English, appears in China, and has been traced in Tartary, and all through the Asiatic continent, to the Bosphorus and Constantinople. The Japanese are fond of and excel in private theatricals. Their public theatres have three rows of boxes, in the front ones of which sit the young and pretty ladies, or those who fancy themselves such. Printed programmes and "books of the play" are always at hand. Mr Fischer says "the ladies who frequent the theatre make a point of changing their dress two or three times during the representation, in order to display the richness of their wardrobe, and they are always attended by servants who carry the necessary articles of dress for the purpose." The young ladies, in their social gatherings, employ themselves in making pretty boxes, artificial flowers, pocket-books, &c., and in painting fans, birds, and other trinkets to give away as presents. Ponderous books of etiquette have been written to teach them how to conduct themselves at tea parties, where they chat about current topics, talk scandal, and otherwise conduct themselves after the most approved "Sorosis" manner. When they die they go to the eternal rest of Nirwann.

THE DEATH OF COUNT WALEWSKI.

Count Walewski died poor. The following account of his death appears in the Courrier de Bas Rhine:—"Count Walewski, member of the Privy Council and formerly Minister of Foreign Affairs, died yesterday evening, at twenty minutes past five, at the Hotel de la Ville de Paris at Strasburg. He had telegraphed in the afternoon from Ulm to take rooms at that hotel for his family and suite. He was travelling with the Countess Walewski, his daughter, and a female relative; the mother of the Countess had joined them at the station of Oos, coming from Baden-Baden; the suite consisted of three ladies and two servants. The party arrived at Strasburg by the train at a quarter past five, and a carriage took them to the hotel. The Countess, who is in bad health, was assisted to her apartment, M. Walewski himself giving all the orders and helping her to ascend the last few stairs. He seemed in perfect health, talking to the persons about him; there was no appearance of fatigue or of any unusual state. On entering the first room he made the Countess sit down and asked her how she felt; then passing into the next room he suddenly called for his daughter. "A glass of water,' he exclaimed, 'a doctor! quick!' and he sank down into an arm-chair dead. Three doctors were soon on the spot; they bled him, but in vain, and declared the cause of his death to be a cerebral hæmorrhage, instantly extinguishing life."

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

DISEASES OF THE SCALP

PRODUCE GRAY HAIR AND BALDNESS!

The use of
HALL'S VEGETABLE
SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER
will restore it to its natural colour and promote its growth.

Our Treatise on the Hair sent free by mail.

R. P. HALL & Co., Nashua, N.H., Proprietors.

Mental anxiety or excessive thinking tend to deaden the vitality of the scalp; its effects are to produce a febrile affection of the head, which causes gray hair and baldness; and although gray hairs may be honourable in old age, yet a premature blanching, or loss of hair in the young or middle-aged is to be regretted, and as it is natural for us all to desire a youthful appearance, we would recommend to those afflicted in the above manner, the use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. This preparation will soon change gray and brashy hair to its original colour, and make it of silken texture; and will create a new growth when it has fallen off, as it furnishes the nutritive principle which nourishes the glands of the hair, filling them with new life and colouring matter, and giving a healthy condition to the whole fibrous mass.—Dramatic Chronicle.

Coughs and Colds.

Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic affections Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges. Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon attacks the Lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, having a direct influence on the affected parts. As there are imitations, be sure to obtain the genuine. Sold by all dealers in Medicines at 25 cents a box.

It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents. TO A YOUNG MERCHANT—When you pay more for the rent of your business house than for advertising your business, you are pursuing a false policy. If you can do business, let it be known."—FRANKLIN.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also hose they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 494, New York, and 104, South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. PRICE —$1,25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6 50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapper, with fac simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed

H. T. HELMBOLD.
