ROCK MILLS

BORN—At Rock Mills, on Wednesday, January 15th, 1930. to Mr. and Mrs. Ned Croft, the gift of a son (Robert Harold)

Weare sorry to learn that Mr. Thos. Fisher is on the sick list, but hope he may be fully recovered soon.

Messrs. George Hargrave of the west back line and George Hargrave of Egremont, were visitors recently with the former's uncle here, Mr. John Hargrave and family.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the Macphail family of Ceylon, in their bereavement by the death of their husband and father.

Mr. Ned Croft had the misfortune to get one of his fingers badly crushed while rolling logs in the mill yard.

The Rock Mills Baptist Ladies' Aid held their January meeting on Wednesday last at the home of Mrs. Laurie Pedlar, 4th line, when there was a good attendance.

Mr. Robt. Croft has been very poorly for some time, and left for Toronto Thursday last to receive treatment. Mrs. Croft went to Toronto with him. We trust he may soon feel much improved.

Chas. Newell purchased a fine working horse and had it delivered to Priceville on Thursday of last week.

EUGENIA

Mrs. E. Doupe of Saugeen is visiting at Mr. Jos Sherwood's and Mr. Donald MacDonald at present.

Miss Mae Carruthers spent a few days with her friend, Miss Margie Park.

Mr. Thos Fenwick is carrying the mail on the rural route for a few weeks. Mr. Haney is enjoying a much needed rest at present.

We are pleased to report Mrs. W. Magee and Mrs. L. Latimer improving from their recent illness. Mr. E. Morgan is still sufering from chronic bronchitis and valvular disease of the heart, which keeps him shut in. We hope Mr. Morgan will soon be restored to his good health again.

We extend our sympathy to the wife and family of the late Mr. John Paul of Feversham, in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Thos. McKee visited a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McKee of Nottawa, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on Monday, January 20th. We join in extending congratulations and wish them more years of happiness and success.

Mrs. P. Middleton of the "Eugenia House" is visiting relatives in Toronto at present.

There was no church on Sunday, owing to the stormy weather.

Mesdames J. Campbell, L. Genoe and T. MiKee atended the meeting re church officers at Maxwell last week. The ladies had a long cold drive and as it was late when they arrived home their supper was indeed welcome.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs Matilda Paul and family wish to thank their friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral tributes and their many acts of kindness in their recent bereavement.

LADY BANK

Zero weather at time of writing, with just enough snow for good sleighing.

Miss Jennett McMullen and Miss Adell Roberts have returned to Toronto and secured positions.

Mrs. Wm. Semple and son, Ernie, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Lougheed and family at Brewster's Lake, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chestnut and Mrs. Semple's aunt, Mrs. D. C. McMillan, at Singhampton.

The Ladies' Aid held a very successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex. Maywell on Wednesday of last week. The meeting was opened by the new President, Mrs. Frank Short, after which the roll call was answered by presenting each other with small gifts. The Ladies' Aid presented the organist with a bedroom clock, and Miss Adel Roberts read the address and Miss Mildred Maxwell made thep resentation. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. Sayers on Feb. 12th.

Mrs. Less McMullen and babe spent a few days last week with Mrs. W. T. Ellis at Kimberley, who is ill, but we are pleased to learn is on the mend again.

PORTLAW

Considerable illness has been prevalent in this community of late and few homes have been altogether exempt.

We learn that Mrs. Boyce Sr. is very ill and her friends are anxiously hoping for her recovery.

After a lengthy illness with pneumonia the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yates is reported to be making good progress toward recovery.

Mrs. Fred Plantt is recovering from a very distressing affection of her throat.

Among others who have been seriously ill, but recovering, are Misses Beatrice Boyce, Marguerite Fisher and Sadie McKee, also Mr. Pearce McMullin.

The Woman's Association of Mount Zion United Church, at their last regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Fred Plantt, decided to hold a supper and entertainment in the near future.

IN MEMORIAM

PEDLAR—In loving memory of our dear father, Sam Pedlar, who passed away Jan. 17, 1928, also mother, who passed away June 8, 1925.

Gone to the light that shines so fair,
Gone from this earth of sorrow and care
Resting those hands that did their best,
Gone dear parents, gone to rest.
Forgotten to the world by some you may be
But dear to our memory you always will be.
Even death has a wonderful mission,
Though it robs us of those we love,
It lifts our hearts from our surroundings
To long for that meeting above.
No matter how heavy the burden
No mater how great the despair
Doesn't Heaven seem nearer and dearer
To know that our loved ones are there.

The Family.

PROTON STATION

On Thursday Jan. 16th the death of Mr. John Roome occured at his residence in Proton Station. Mr. Roome was born in Claremont, Ont. in the year 1855. From there he moved to the township of Osprey and settled on a farm near Maxwell. While there he married the late Mary Roome, who predeceased him nearly three years ago. Later they moved to Wareham, where for over twenty years they managed the post office and Mr. Roome carried from Proton Station, the mail, which was distributed from there. About sixteen years ago, when rural mail routes were established the family moved to Proton Station. Here they have since made their home and until three days before his death, Mr. Roome served the people on the Artemesia-Osprey mail route. He performed his duties in a quiet unassuming manner, and his kind, obliging ways made for him many friends. The deceased is survived by three daughters—Mrs. L. Telford (Ina) of Monckton, N.B., Mrs. A. Coutie (Hannah) of Toronto, and Miss Louie Roome of Toronto; also one full brother, Richard, in Michigan, and four half brothers—Wm. Todd of Toronto, James Todd of Dromore, Samuel Todd of Dundalk, and Andrew in the West.

The funeral service on Saturday was conducted by Rev. Mr. Baker of Dundalk in the United church of Proton and interment was made in Dundalk cemetery, the following acting as pallbearers: Messrs A. Sherson, N. McCannel, R. Acheson, J. Dever, W. Dever and W. Blackburn. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Miss Louie Roome, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Coutie, Mr. Bert Guest and Mr Wm. Todd of Toronto and Miss Lucy Colgan of Caledon. Mr. S. Telford of Moncton arrived later. Floral tributes were sent by Mr. and Mrs. S. Telford, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Guest, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Coutie. Mrs. Coutie Sr. and daughter, Mrs. Smith and Miss Gladys Coutie and friend of Toronto; and the Colgan family of Dundalk.

MARRIED—In Toronto on Jan. 15, Mr. Jack Batchelor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Batchelor of Saugeen, to Miss Vera Moore eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. L. Moore, Victoria Corners. We wish the young couple all the happiness this old world can afford.

Our Postmaster, Mr. Neil McCannel attended the Postmasters' convention in Toronto last Thursday and was present at the banquet tendered the convention by the T. Eaton Co.

Mrs. Love and Mrs. Fisher of Weston and Agincourt are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Neilson.

Mrs. Baguley and children spent the week end in Hamilton.

We are glad to report Miss Emily Acheson, who underwent an operation for appendicitis two weeks ago in Toronto General hospital, making favorable progress.

Mrs. R. G. Acheson has returned home after a fortnight's visit in Toronto.

Miss Louie Roome of Toronto remained for the week end after her father's funeral and was the guest of Miss Lelia Park.

Mrs. Archibald spent the week end in Ceylon with her parents and her sons.

Alex. D. McLeod Passes

Mr. Alex D. McLeod, a highly respected resident of the Priceville district, passed away on Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Neil Campbell, 4th line, Artemesia, in his 75th year.

The deceased gentleman was born in King township. He married Miss Isabella McKay, who predeceased him several years ago. For years he farmed on the 2nd. con., Artemesia, the farm now owned by Mr. David Hincks. Giving up farming he moved to Priceville, where he ran a sawmill for a short time. Then he was employed as assessor and collector for Artemesia township, and a year or so ago went to reside with his daughter, Mrs. Campbell. To Mr. and Mrs. McLeod were born four sons and two daughters—Martin, James and William at Tilbury, Ont.; David at Vancouver; Elsie (Mrs. Neil Campbell) of the store line, and Annabel (Mrs. Standen) of Durham.

The funeral takes place to-day to Priceville cemetery, service in the Presbyterian Hall, Priceville of which body the deceased was a member. Mr. McLeod had been in failing health for sime time past.

D. McPhail, Noted Auctioneer, Passes

CEYLON

Dougald Macphail, well known and highly respected resident of Grey County, passed from this life on Friday, Jan. 17. Mr. Macphail was in his 66th year, having been born in 1864 in the township of Proton, three and a half miles west of Hopeville. He was the eldest of the eleven children of Alexander Macphail and his wife Jean Jack.

In 1889 he married Henrietta Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell. The young couple began farming near the old home. To them three children were born—Agnes, Gertha and Lilly.

Though a successful farmer Dougald Macphail was best known as an auctioneer. His knowledge of values, his understanding of human nature and his ready wit, made him an outstanding auctioneer. He sold his first sale in 1897 and in the following 28 years conducted 1162 sales in Grey County.

A little over 25 years ago Mr. Macphail moved to a farm at the six corners near Ceylon, and four years ago, on account of failing health, sold his farm and moved to the village of Ceylon, where he died.

His personality was vivid and attractive and though quick to anger he was also quick to forgive. His outlook was broad, his insight keen, which made him a good counsellor to those who sought his advice and he was always a good neighbor and true friend. Poor health caused him to live a very quiet and restricted life in late months and for the last seven weeks he was confined to bed. He was tenderly cared for by his wife and daughters and all that medical skill could do was done without avail.

The funeral on Sunday was largely attended in spite of the storm. The Rev. Mr. Scott of Flesherton conducted the brief service at the house, and the Rev. Mr. Stewart at the Presbyterian Hall in Priceville, previous to the interment in Priceville cemetery.

There is left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his wife and three daughters, Agnes at home; Gertha (Mrs. W. M. Raney), Wiarton; and Lilly (Mrs. Hugh Bailey), Dundalk; also three brothers and five sisters mourn his loss—Ainsworth and Malcolm on the old home place; Alexander of Sedro-wooly, Wash. U. S. A.; Agnes (Mrs. Alex McEachnie), Hopeville; Euphemia (Mrs. Thos. Spence) Hopeville; Christena at home; Mary (Mrs. James Henderson), Dromore; and Jean (Mrs. Robt. McHardy), Toronto. All but Alexander were present at the funeral. Two brothers, John and Peter, predeceased him. Many Durham and Markdale friends came on Saturday to offer their sympathy. Mr. J. J. Morrison, Toronto, Sec. of the U. F. O. and Mr. Preston Elliot, former M. P. for Dundas County, attended the funeral.

Beautiful frowers from the following paid tribute to the worth of the departed: the family; brothers and sisters; Jean and Robert McHardy; The United Farmers Political Assoc. of S. E. Grey; Ceylon U. F. O. Club; Ceylon community; Holdfast U. F. O. club; Onward U. F. O.; Osprey and Artemesia Co-operative store; Farquhar Oliver, M. L. A.; Rocky U. F. O., U. F. W. O., U. F. Y. P. O.; Allan Park U. F. O and U. F. W. O.; United Farmers Organization of Ontario; Head Office, Toronto; Live Stock Branch United Farmers Co-operative, West Toronto; Miss Fettes, Matron of Durham Hospital; Mr and Mrs. Allie Muir; Annie and Agnes Harrow, Owen Sound; the Whittaker family; Mr. and Mrs. John Hogarth; Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham and family. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Macphail, daughters and relatives.

Mrs. Bowes of Thornhill and Mrs. Watson of Maple Hill, who attended the funeral of Mr. Paul at Feversham on Friday, spent the week end at Mr. S. Hemphill's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Telford of Toronto called on old friends on Friday who were pleased to see them.

Born Jan. 19th to Mr and Mrs. F. Marshall, the gift of a daughter. Congratulations.

Mrs. H. Piper is visiting her daughter at Lauriston.

Mrs. Cecil Archibald of Proton spent the week end with her parents.

Miss McKenzie of Dundalk was a guest of Miss Margaret Sinclair over the week end.

Mr. S. Hemphill and daughter, Miss Maud, attended the funeral of Mr. Paul at Feversham on Friday.

Mr. A. Sinclair paid a business trip to Owen Sound on Friday.

Mr. M. C. Beckett, License Inspector was a caller in town on Friday.

Mrs Morwood of Markdale has spent the past week at the bed side of her brother, Mr. J. J. Patterson, who was seized with a slight stroke on Tuesday, but is now improving.

We are also pleased to report Mrs. Wilson McMullen and son, Jas. W. improving after a couple of weeks illness.

Miss Vera Marshall, Nurse in training at Durham hospital is spending a fortnight at her home here.

The congregational meeting, which was to have been held in the church on Friday evening has been postponed owing to the storm, to Jan. 27, when it is hoped that the weather will be favorable.

Miss Della White of Toronto is spending a week's holidays at her home here. Her mother, who underwent an operation for Goitre in the General hospital, Toronto is doing splendidly.

It has just been leorned that Mr. Sandy McLeod passed away on Monday afternoon Jan. 20th about 6 p.m at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Neil Cameron, 4th line, where he made his home. For the past year he has not enjoyed good health. A couple of days ago Pneumonia set in and hastened the end. He was in his 75th year and leaves three sons and two daughters to mourn his loss.

The funeral will be held on Wed. Service at the house at 1 o'clock and at the hall in Priceville at 2.30.

Mr. S. Hemphill received word on Sunday that a relative had passed away at McIntyre and attended the funeral on Tuesday.
