CHINESE THEATRE IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The company now employed at the Chinese Theatre, on Jackson street, San Francisco, consists of no less than eighty persons, the most of whom appear nightly on the stage. The latter consists merely of a platform, without dropscenery or side scenes, the latter being with richly embroidered curtains and tapestry, interwoven with silks of various brilliant colours and gold. These stage properties are said to have cost some $7,000 in China, where goods of this kind are cheap as compared with the cost in this country. The expense of bringing these performers to California was $1,000 each, yet the management is likely to make the experiment a paying one, the theatre being crowded every night with spectators, at 75 cents admission each, this being the price to all parts of the house. The costume of the actors and the stage trappings are rich and gorgeous; but the performances are of the most grotesque and any kind, being to "outsiders" quite incomprehensible. Like the entire fitting up surroundings of the place, the acting is truly barbaric.

WHAT HAS FOLLOWED DISENDOWMENT IN CANADA?—The Hon. F. Peel, one of the Liberal candidates for South-east Lancashire, in a speech at Bolton, on Monday evening, gave a most interesting account of the results of the Act which he introduced some years ago for the Disendowment of the Protestant Church in Canada. He said: The Church of England was once endowed in Canada. As in Ireland so in Canada, it was the Church of the minority, and of the richer portion of the population; it was also the source of perpetual tumult and contention. It was the cause of rebellion and at length it came to the issue, whether the rebellion would get the upper hand, or the Church of England be disendowed, and all religions in that country treated alike. The state of the case was this—Under an Act of Parliament passed at the end of last century one-seventh of the unappropriated lands of the country when sold was to be reserved for the support of the clergymen of the Established Church. As the population of Canada increased, extensive sales of land took place, and the clergy reserves accumulated. The population, however, did not all consist of members of the Church of England. There were as many Methodists and Presbyterians in Upper Canada, where the population principally settled, as of the Church of England; and they claimed that this endowment fund, the common property of the country, should not be devoted exclusively to the support of the ministers of only one religion amongst them. When I brought forward that measure it met with precisely the same opposition as that now brought against the proposition regarding the Irish Church. It was said that it would desolate the Church in that country, desecrate its property, and shake the foundation of all corporate property in this country—in fact, that it was a crime. Notwithstanding all that, the measure passed, and the Canadian Legislature hastened to use the power granted to them by the Imperial Parliament. The Church was disendowed. That was in the year 1858, I think, and there has now been time to see what the effects have been. The people of Canada are as loyal now as they were disloyal then; and the Church of England in Canada never was in a more prosperous condition than this moment, and the Bishop of Montreal has recently stated that nothing would induce him to go back to the days of clergy reserves.

A brief telegram from Bombay renews the interest of the public in the travels and processes of Dr. Livingstone. By the arrival at that port of the Octavia from Trincomalee, we learn that Dr. Livingstone was believed to be within a week's march of Zanzibar. There is no statement as to the grounds upon which this belief is founded. It is reasonable, however, to assume that it rests upon some data more or less entitled to confidence, but of the nature of which we are ignorant. In a short time we shall know more, and should the report be true, Dr. Livingstone may himself be the messenger of the good news, and in his own person bring the evidence of his safety, and the record of his labours and discoveries.

A private letter from San Sebastian mentions the curious fact that when on the 27th of September a British man-of-war entered that harbour the belief spread like wildfire among the people that she had come to bombard the place. Old associations had so accustomed them to think that the English always support the Liberal cause in Spain that they may be sure that as on the 5th of May, 1836, when Evans formed the Carlist lines round San Sebastian and some British war steamer assisted his advance by their fire—they should soon see British shot and shell flying ashore. It soon became known, however, that the vessel had come on a pacific mission and with orders to place herself at the Queen's disposal, should she have need of refuge to transport.

A gentleman and his wife were playing at one of the tables in Baden in the midst of a crowd. "Hold!" said the lady, "an idea!" "What is it?" "I am going to bet on the number of my own age." "All right," replied the husband, without turning his head, being occupied in ogling a pretty waitress. His wife placed a louis on the number twenty-five. "Thirty-six!" drawled the croupier, in a nasal tone. "Thirty-six, you have won," exclaimed the husband, with delight. Madame reddened to her eyebrows, watched the rake as it drew away the louis from number twenty-five, and quitted the room, vowing never to lie again about her age.

The boy Prince Royal of Belgium, whose life is despaired of, and whose sufferings are said to be of the most painful character, has exhibited qualities that ought to endear him to the people of whom he may become the ruler. His father, King Leopold, has been so affected by the boy's sufferings that at times he has been unable to remain in his room. A small door behind the bed has been made to admit the King unperceived. By this he enters to ascertain his state. The child knows the peculiar sound of the bolt being withdrawn, and that his father is the only person who enters his room thus. On hearing it he immediately pretends to sleep. The King calls him in a low voice. He makes no reply. His father, knowing the importance of sleep to him, goes back to his apartments more tranquil. The child opens his eyes, and says to his tutor, to whom he is devotedly attached, and who never quits him, "The King will be satisfied now." It is a little strange that all the world should know of this loving stratagem except him whom it is intended to deceive.

Coughs and Colds.

Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges. Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon attacks the Lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, having a direct influence on the affected parts. As there are imitations, be sure to obtain the genuine. Sold by all dealers in Medicines at 25 cents a box.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on the face of the earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents. Sold everywhere.

Be sure and call for

having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.—It is amusing at times to observe the stores of the merchants who don't advertise; to see the anxious proprietors looking into the streets and see the people go by, wondering why they don't come in, while the stores of their neighbours who do advertise are thronged with customers. Some people will learn by observation, others will not.—Daily Palladium.

THE CIRCULATION of the DAILY NEWS is fully one-half larger than that of any other daily journal published in Kingston. The circulation of the old established weekly CHRONICLE AND NEWS is also greater than any other weekly published in the county. Advertisers will perceive that these journals are the best media for attracting public attention in this locality.

ADVERTISEMENTS for the DAILY NEWS, intended to appear the same evening, should be sent in at as early an hour in the day as possible.

NEW STYLES OF TYPE HAVE been added to the DAILY NEWS JOB PRINTING OFFICE. Our two Steam Presses and Automatic Platen Printing Machinery enable us to turn out work in good style, with quick despatch, and at cheap rates. Inquiry solicited.

WOMAN.

FEMALES, owing to the peculiar and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contributes in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline. Nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of these various delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to the sex.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU.

Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucous membrane of the vagina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health, and happiness of woman in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half-clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverting in midnight revels the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon her system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus aggravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive to impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing, must, of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last, an early marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

For Female Weakness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhœa, Too Profuse Menstruation, Exhaustion, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known:

HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF BUCHU.

Directions for use, diet, and advice, accompany. Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BACHU.

is more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron, infinitely safer, and more pleasant.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, having received the indorsement of the most prominent physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symptoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Imbecility, Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at Night, Absence of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, Low Spirits, Disorganization or Paralysis of the Organs of Generation, Palpitation of the Heart, and, in fact, all the concomitants of a Nervous and Debilitated state of the system. To insure the genuine, cut this out. Ask for HELMBOLD'S. Take no other. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1,25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe the symptoms in all communications. Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N.Y.

None are genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed
