Paying On The Installment Plan

Purchasing commodities by paying "a dollar down and a dollar a week" has grown into great popularity. Often the object purchased is worn out before it is paid for, and the purchaser continues to pay. Buy yourself a fortune on the installment plan by placing regular installments of your earnings in a Bank of Commerce savings account. The money is always available for use if required and there is no depreciation. but accruing interest as time goes on.

IT PAYS A MAN WELL

When having an auction sale it pays a man well, in addition to having the usual sale bills printed to have his whole list published in The Advance, for those who have for any reason not had time to stop and read the particulars on the bill, will see it, read it carefully, and maybe thereby be induced to attend the sale as a bidder. A good bidder is worth fishing for and spending a few dollars more to land. Everyone knows that one good bidder may add many dollars to the value of an auction sale. Don't lose any chances of making your sale a big success. Have your sale list published in this paper.

Distillers have been notified they must pay up their arrears to the Dominion government. It's questionable if they will get much of a kick out of that.

Mrs. N. Sayers Passes Was 90 Years Old

On Jan. 18, 1840, ninety yeas ago, there was born in England a little girl named Ann Long. When about five years of age, she came with her parents and resided in Ontario. Sixty seven years ago she married Mr. Nelson Sayers, who predeceased her 26 years ago. They resided on the 14th Con. for over 40 years. By the blessed union there were born two daughters and one son namely—Mary Ann(Mrs. John Tyson)Martha (Mrs. Wm. Butcher). and James. Mrs. Butcher died in Oct. 1917. There also survives 12 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

The late Mrs. Sayers who resided with her daughter, Mrs. Tyson at Maple Grove on 14th Con. had been in failing health for the past four years, having spent the past six months or so in bed. She was a good neighbor and friend. She patiently bore her illness and passed peacefully away to the vast Beyond on Feb. 11 the 67th anniversary of her marriage.

The pastor, Rev. Silas McCausan of Heathcote officiated at the house and grave. Mrs. Geo. Lawlor sang in a comforting manner the beautiful hymn, "There'll be no shadows, etc". Interment took place in the family plot in Providence cemetery.

The flowers placed upon the casket were beautiful, expressing love for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved.

The pallbearers were Messrs Thornton Sayers, Harry and Stanley Butcher, Garfield and Stanley Tyson (5 grandsons) and Mr. Walter Wilson, who is married to her grand daughter, Miss Beatrice Sayers.

We extend our profound sympathy to the relatives and friends in their sad bereavement.

God knew that she was suffering
And the hills were hard to climb
So He closed her weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

Big Orange Celebration

The biggest event in the Orange Order this year is the centenary of the establishment of the fraternity in Ontario which will be commemorated by the Grand Orange Lodge of British America in its annual session at Brockville, beginning on June 4. Lodge No. 1 was inhabited in the pretty little city on the St. Lawrence 100 years ago. From that small beginning the association has grown until it has affected every community in Canada and the neighboring republic. Then on July 12 at a great Orange celebration there will be dedicated the Gowan Memorial Temple in memory of the first Grand Master, Ogle Robert Gowan. The new temple is finely situated in the centre of Brockville. A portrait of the first Grand Master will also be unveiled at the dedication of the building. There will doubtless be a great gathering of Orange leaders at each of these celebrations and Grey county can be depended on to send its quote. The road to Brockville is one of the best highways in the Dominion.

Goods Not Ordered

Considerable annoyance is often caused by the practice of certain firms which send goods by mail to persons who have not ordered them. Sometimes the goods are accompanied by stamps for their return in case the recipient does not desire to keep and pay for them. But the re-wrapping and return of these packages is unnecessary, according to the National Better Business Bureau, which has obtained legal opinions on the subject. "So long as unordered goods are not used by the recipient, he need never return nor pay for them," says the Bureau. All that can be expected is that the recipient hold the goods ready to be returned in case a representative of the sender calls for them. And if they are not called for within a reasonable time, the recipient may have a claim for storage. While no one would ordinarily keep goods for which payment has not been made, the paying for unordered merchandise, or even its return to the sender, simply encourages the practice of trying to force goods upon the public. If everyone woul follow the advice here given, the nuisance would be stopped in short order.

With pay days coming and going without any cash attached, Chicago school teachers can probably give a vivid explanation to their scholars of the word deferred.

To Keep Alive The Old Home Spirit

Toronto, Feb. 20th 1930

Editor Advance:

Dear Sir,—The Executive Committee of Flesherton Old Boys and Girls Assn. held a meeting at my office on Wednesday evening, Feb. 19th, for the purpose of deciding whether to wind up all our activities or make arrangements to put the organization on a permanent basis.

It was decided that in view of the fact that there is considerable sentiment in favor of forming a permanent Association, that we engage a hall and a group of first class entertainers and hold a combined business and social evening on March 12th, for the purpose of ascertaining the feelings of the ex-Fleshertonians in this vicinity. Should there be sufficient response, the gathering will be asked to elect the officers of the new organization and when this has been done, the entertainment would be started, and I am given to understand the entertainers who have been approached are of a high grade and put on a fine program.

I am going to ask a favor of you, and that is that you give us as much publicity as you can, as we realize that practically all of the enthusiasts are subscribers to the Advance, and while we are mailing notices to all whose addresses we have, it is quite possible that a good deal of interest may be engendered before we are in a position to notify the people whose names appear on our list.

We have only a small balance left in our hands after defraying all the expenses incurred during "Old Home Week" and it will be necessary for some of us to dig down again for sufficient funds to foot the expenses, but do not believe there will be any difficulty in securing the additional funds required. It is our intention to make this meeting and entertainment absolutely free in order to induce as many as possible to attend, and it is hoped that the good old folk who supported us so loyally last summer will put their shoulders to the wheel again, and help us to make a success of the movement.

With best wishes to you and yours, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
BURTON E. FIELD

GOING TO CANADA BY CHURCHILL ROUTE

General Motors of Canada will ship a Regina-built Chevrolet to England on the Regina Board of Trade special train from Regina to Churchill this summer, according to a statement made by H. A. Brown, vice-president and general manager.

The Chevrolet will be boxed in a manner similar to the cars shipped to the Orient, so that it may be billed as ordinary freight. The train on which it will be shipped will be the first all-passenger train to Churchill.

ROYALTIES
Dominion Royalty Corporation Ltd.

Now is the time to invest in what has been proven to be one of the soundest propositions ever offered to the public as an investment, namely: Producing Oil Royalties.

Preferred shares of this corporation will yield you 12% annually, and dividend cheques will be sent to shareholders for 1% monhtly.

We are proud to remind you that the Royalties which I have sold in the past, were among the very few securities that the recent slump in the stock markets did not affect at all, only to increae the confidence of clients holding our issues of Oil Royalties.

This confidence is emphasized by the fact that ALL our clients are satisfied with their investments with us in Royalties and practically all are increasing their holdings from time to time.

California auto drivers who had a close call at a railway crossing, admitted he was a fool not to have stopped. He's extraordinarily lucky to be able to voice so great a truth.

One thing is pretty sure, that if the Canadian Wheat Pool collapses there will not be a Dominion election this year. There would be if the Conservatives could call the tune, but they will scarcely get things to suit them that much.
