IN MEMORIAM

McLACHLAN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. D. D McLachlan, who passed away on March 25th 1925.

We are lonely here wthout you,
And sadness marks our way.
The world is not the same to us
Since you were called away.
Sadly missed by the family.

IN MEMORIAM

SAYERS—In loving memory of our dear father, George Sayers who passed away one year ago Dec 31st 1928 and our dear mother, Elizabeth Sayers, who passed away four years ago March 14th 1926.

God knew that they were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed their weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be Thine."
Sadly missed by their three daughters.

(Last Week's Items)

A very interesting debate on the subject "Resolved that $5,000.00 to a young person of eighteen is preferable to a university education," was held in the school house on Monday evening March 3rd. under the auspices of the local Farmer's Club. The affirmative was taken by Messrs. Norman Genoe and Chas. McLean and the negative by Messrs Geo. Buchanan and W. A. Weber. All of the speakers brought forward some strong argument in favor of their contention. The judges were Messrs Howard Graham and Thos. Shannon and Miss Myrtle Freeman, who decided in favor of the negative. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening March 17th.. When two teams will put on the program, half an hour being allowed to each side. Mrs. George Buchanan and Harry Baker are captains.

The Ladies' Aid held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Thos. Shannon on Wednesday afternoon, March 5th. A large number of members and visitore were present. Considerable business was transacted and discussions on various topics. The roll call was answered by a joke. A poem composed by Rev. W. A very enjoyable evening was spent at the Parsons home 8th line, on Thursday March 6, when a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to bid adieu to Mr. and Mrs. John Parson and son Ronald, prior to their departure from the farm to a home in the village of Eugenia. During the course of the evening an appropriate address was read by Mrs. Chas. Martin, while the presentation of a chair was made to Mr and Mrs. Parsons and a pipe and case to Ronald by Messrs. G. Magee, Chas. Hanley and Joe Porteous. Mr and Mrs. Parson and Ronald each made a suitable and feeling reply extending their thanks for the useful gifts which they had received and inviting their friends to visit them in their new home where a hearty welcome would await them. Lunch was served at midnight. The evening was spent in games and dancing till the wee sma' hours of morning. Following is the address: To Mr. and Mrs. J. Parsons and and Ronald:—We, your friends and neighbors have assembled here this evening to spend a few happy hours with you before your departure from the 8th line to your new home. We are sorry we are losing efficient and valuable neighbors from our neighborhood but we are happy to know that your removal is not very far, and we will have the opportunity of meeting you again many times. We have always found you ready and willing to give us an assisting hand if necessary. We have met here at other times which were indeed enjoyable and we are grateful for your hospitality. As we desire to show our appreciation in some tangible form we beg you Mr and Mrs. Parsons to accept this chair and hope you may be spared many years to enjoy its use, and you Ronald please accept this pipe and case and may all your troubles end in smoke.

"Remembrance is a golden chain
Which naught but death can sever
We hope these gifts we give
Will keep us friends forever."

We wish you Mr. Parsons and your estimable wife and Ronald happiness and good health and may God's blessing be upon you in your new place of abode.

Signed on behalf of your many friends and neighbors.

Joe Porteous, Chas Hanley, Garnet Magee.
