Died On The Trail

(The Timmins Advance)

The North Land lost one of its best known and most popular old-time prospectors in the death of T. A. Jamieson on Friday morning. He passed away while being brought by dog team from Kamiskotia to Timmins for medical attention. On Tuesday morning of last week Mr.Jamieson went out by airship to Kamiskotia to work on his claims there intending to return in about ten days by dog team. He reached his camp on Tuesday in safety and that evening Mr and Mrs. Billy Leclare dropped in to see him. Finding him to be unwell they stayed all night so that in case he proved to be seriously ill they could attend to him. On Wednesday morning he was apparently quite ill, having pains in the chest and otherwise evidencing serious illness. By Thursday he was quite evidently very ill and Mr. and Mrs. Leclaire decided to bring him into Timmins for medical treatment. On Friday at daybreak Billy Leclaire and his wife had the patient warmly wrapped and as comfortable as possible on the dog sleigh and started for Timmins by the trail. About nine miles from Kamiskotia Mr. Jamieson asked for a drink of water and while this was being secured he passed peacefully away. The body was brought out to Timmins on Saturday by Messrs Billy Leclaire and Joe Lavellee. Coroner F. C. Evans visited the S. T. Walker undertaking parlours where the body rested and learning the details of the death decided further inquest was unnecessary. Death was due to pneumonia.

The late T. A. Jamiesin was one of the oldest and most popular of the prospectors of this section of country. Everyone liked "Bert," as he was usually known. He had spent practically all of recent years in prospecting in this district specializing in the Kamiskotia area where he had a number of very promising claims. He was a genial, gentlemanly man and had hosts of friends. The late T. A. Jamieson was about 40 years if age. He went to France with the first Canadian Division in 1914 and gave notable service in the war. He was gassed at St. Julien. He is survived by a widow in Toronto and the sincerest sympathy of all goes out to her in her loss and to the near relatives and friends bereaved. Two brothers live in the Porcupine camp, one being George Jamieson, of South Porcupine, the noted prospector whose discoveries in Kamiskotia were responsible for most of the interest in that camp, and Elwyn Jamieson of South Porcupine, the well known hockey coach and manager. Mr. T A. Strain, of South Porcupine, another active prospector in this camp, is an uncle of the late T. A. Jamieson.

The body was taken to Toronto on Sunday's train for interment there.

Mrs. H. Stone Passes

CEYLON

This community was shocked when it was learned on Saturday Apr. 5th that Mrs. Henry Stone had passed away about 8 a.m. after several weeks of severe suffering from dropsy and other internal troubles. Death was but a happy release for her, while all that loving hands could do was done to ease the pain and suffering. Her maiden name was Betsy Holman, daughter of the late Peter and Anastacia Holman and was born in the year 1859 near Woodstock, and lived many years in Nottawasaga Twp, county of Simcoe. She was married to Mr. Ross Robinson, Glen Huron, in the year 1880, and to whom were born four children, Gladys, Herbie, Minnie and Rossie. Death entered their home taking her husband, who was very kind and of a quiet disposition, leaving her with her little family to struggle on and face life's difficulties. She was one of those pioneer daughters who knew what hard work meant and so faced the future bravely, thoughtful always of others and self was placed last. Many who knew her will long remember her many acts of kindness.

She was married in 1892 to Mr. Henry Stone, who now in his 90th year feels keenly the loss of a loving wife, who was very attentive to all his needs. To them was born one daughter, Ruby, who through illness was unable to come to the bedside of her mother. She was a member of the Baptist church and was always liberal in her giving to all christian work.

She leaves besides her aged husband to mourn her loss, Gladys,(Mrs. Loates) of Toronto; Mrs. Clark (Rossie) of Sault St. Marie, Ont., who spent the past two weeks with her mother; Mrs. Watley (Minnie) of Saginaw, Mich.; Mrs. Walter Scott (Ruby) of Delia Alberta also two brothers and two sisters, Henry of Toronto; David of Hersey, Mich.; Mrs. Chard(Minnie) of Westminister, B. C. and Mrs. Strain(Janet) of Vancouver, B. C. Rev. Mr. Scott had charge of the service, assisted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Wolstencroft, who preached a comforting sermon. The pallbearers were Messrs Jas. L. McMullen, S. Hemphill, G. Arrowsmith, J. J. Lyness, J. K. McLeod and R. Allan. The casket was covered with floral offerings of sympathy from R. Allan and family, a spray; Mrs. E. Spicer and family, a wreath; J. Cark and family of Soo, Ont. a cross. The funeral took place on Monday at 2.30 to Flesherton cemetery, where many followed and the remains were laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. The community extends its sympathy to all the bereaved ones.
