CELEBRATES 15th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On April 8th, 1915 Miss Etta Thompson of Flesherton became the bride of Mr. Edgar Betts. That was a happy day, so to celebrate the 15th anniversary another pleasant gathering took place at their home "Maple Lane" farm 8th line, when about forty relatives were present..

A sumptuous dinner was served about 6 o'clock p.m. in the dining room, which was artistically decorated in pink and white. The table was centred with a three storey wedding cake and pink roses. After everyone did ample justice to the "delicious repast," a mock ceremony, which caused much merriment, took place. In this Edgar was dressed as a handsome bride, carrying roses and wearing white gloves and a white veil. The veil, yards in length, was carried by little Edgar Betts, his nephew and little Mary Whitehead, Mrs. Betts' niece. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. R. J. Morrison, the bride and groom took their places, Edgar entering on the arm of his friend, R. J. Morrison who gave him away to the groom, (his wife) by telling faults and virtues. Then followed good wishes, congratulations and confetti. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. All sang "For they are jolly good fellows" before they departed for their homes, after the jolly time. Many lovely gifts were received as tokens of good wishes and remembrance.

Friends attending from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thistle, Shelburne; Mrs. H. Vail and sons, Mansfield; Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Whitehead and daughters of Markdale.

We join in extending our best wishes for many more years of happy and prosperous wedded life.

PORTLAW

(Last Week's Items)

The death of Mrs. Frank Taylor of Flesherton came as a great shock to the friends of this community and the sympathy of all goes out to the bereaved husband and family and other relatives in their sore affliction.

The sad news of the passing of Mr. John H. Jamieson in Detroit was a stunning blow to his brother here, Mr. W. G. Jamieson and also to his former neighbors among whom he lived for a good many years as a young man and by whom he was very much regarded. Our sympathy is extended to all those who mourn his passing.

Word was received by relatives here from Orangeville of the death of Mrs. Thomas Black who moved from this community about a year ago. Besides a stricken husband a family of three girls and three boys mourn the loss of an effectionate wife and mother. Interment took place at Orangeville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Yates took their little boy, who has been suffering from after effects of pneumonia, to Owen Sound hospital for medical examination, and came home cheered by the assurance that he was improving as well as might be expected.

Mrs. Jamieson and Gracie have been quite ill the past week but we are glad to hear that they are again on the way to recovery.

Mr. E. K. Jamieson and Mr. W. J Jamieson of Toronto spent some days with their brother here, also Mr. David and Mr. John Jamieson, all of whom were up from the city to attend the funeral of the brother of the two former mentioned and father of the latter two.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs Thos. Taylor are moving to Flesherton. The people of this community will part with these worthy citizens with genuine regret. They have been a tower of strength to the church and Sunday School. Mrs. Taylor has geen a faithful superintendent for many years and both were enthusiastic workers in every good cause.

VICTORIA CORNERS

The few nice days last week took the frost out of the ground and the gravel road is nearly impassable for the many trucks and cars which are passing over it and a great number had to be helped out of a hole, but we hope a few more days will see them much improved.

We are glad to report that Mrs. A. Stinson is quite a bit better.

Mr. Snellgrove occupied the pulpit on Sunday at Inistioge. Next Sunday Mr. Davis will preach his farewell sermon before going West and the Inistioge people are hoping that Mr. Prosser will again be our minister.

Miss Emma Moore is visiting at Mr. Ruttle's in Dundalk.

Little Mariory Stevens daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevens, who stays on school nights with her grandmother, Mrs. A. Stevens, had a trying experience the other night, which might have proved more serious but for the presence of mind of her grandmother. She was sitting outside eating an apple, one large sized piece slipped down before it was chewed and lodged part way. Mrs. Stevens used every means she knew for first aid, but Marjorie's face was swollen, her eyes nearly shut, etc. from the heavy choking. At last a drink of cream seemed to start the relief and followed by a couple of drinks of water Marjorie was soon much better, only a sore or row throat being the result.
