Died From Pneumonia After Lengthy Illness

After undergoing two very serious operations in three weeks, Mr. John Ivison Karstedt, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt of town, was suddenly stricken with pneumonia and passed away in the Toronto General Hospital on Saturday morning. Thursday evening he took a relapse and was given only a few hours to live, when the family was called to his bedside on Friday. He was unconscious until a few moments before he died, when he rallied and recognized and gave each one a smile before his spirit was taken. During the past two weeks his father gave one transfusion of blood after the operations, but all that skilled medical science could do was of no avail.

Jack had been in the Mountain Sanatorium at Hamilton for the past sixteen months and his condition was improving satisfactorily when the operations were performed and it appeared as though he was well on the way to recovery when pneumonia set in. He made a cheerful and gritty fight all through his long illness and was confident of regaining his health. It was a pleasure to visit him at the hospital and his pleasant and cheerful manner won him many friends.

Jack taught school for two years at the Oldfield school in Melancthon township and was an excellent teacher, highly regarded by everyone and had a very pleasing personality. He was a member of Flesherton United church and also a member of Corbetton L. O. L. which he joined shortly before being taken ill.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon when the service was held in St. John's United Church, which was filled to capacity. The pastor, Rev. W. J. Scott adressed the relatives and friends on the text, "I have fought a good fight; I have kept the faith; I have finished my course." His message was very comforting to those who mourned, and he spoke very feelingly of the last hours in which the deceased had lived. Mrs. Jack Perkins sang very sweetly, "Some Sweet Day." The service at the graveside was taken by Rev. Scott assisted by Rev. Frank Sullivan of Priceville.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Jack Karstedt of Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Karstedt and son, Verdun of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dobbins of Lockport, N. Y., H. Blair of Hamilton, Mrs. S. Thaler and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewell of Walkerton, Dr. and Mrs. Thaler of Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Ickler and son, Jack and Mr. and Mrs. S. Thaler of Chesley, Miss Mae Morrison of Owen Sound, Dr. and Mrs. Holmes of Owen Sound and Mr. and Mrs. O. Isaac of Corbetton, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKee of Whitfield, besides members of the Corbetton Loyal Orange Lodge.

The pallbearers were Robt. Down, Alf. Down, C. McTavish, R. Boyd W. Armstrong and F. J. Thurston.

There was a profusion of beautiful flowers that banked the casket and besides those of the immediate family and friends were wreaths from L. O. L., Corbetton, Oldfield's school, Business men of Flesherton and Grey Chapter No. 170, O. E. S. Eighteen pupils of the public school, carrying the floral tributes, formed a guard of honor at the church and cemetery.

Social Evening In Honor of The Clerk

On Friday evening, April 25th the municipalities of the Township of Osprey and the village of Flesherton are holding a social evening in the town hall, Flesherton, in honor of Mr. W. J. Bellamy, who has spent fifty years as clerk of Artemesia. Invitations are being sent out to all the Reeves and Councillors, who have served in the council under Clerk Bellamy and also all the assessors and collectors of the township. An invitation is also extended to any person who wishes to attend and enjoy an excellent social evening.

An Old Prayer Book

Mr. A. E. Preston, manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has in his possession a volume of the prayer book of the Church of England, which has been in the family since the year 1679. It is in a wonderful state of preservation and is one of the most interesting relics we have seen for some time. Mr. Preston secured the book from his sister, who is ill in Chicago, when he visited her several weeks ago.
