WODEHOUSE

Intended for last week

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Staples and family and Miss Gladys Cornfield of Kimberley were Easter visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cherry.

Mrs. Williard Wiley and three children spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. Clara Wiley, Markdale.

The school is closed for Easter vacation.

Sounds like spring to hear the hum of the old saw mill again which commenced work last week.

Mr. Will Lawson took his little son, Wilbert to the Toronto Sick Children's hospital on Wednesday of last week to have the casts removed from his leg, which we are pleased to know has made good improvement. The little lad also had 21 stitches taken out of his leg, which were put in when operated on while there six weeks ago. Dr. Gillie performed the operation. He will return to the hospital again in a month's time.

Miss Emily Lawson took a carload of ladies to Harkaway on Sunday evening and enjoyed the pageant, "Sunrise in the Garden."

Little Gordon Clarke, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Jos. Cherry has a nice little flock of goslings out. Here's hoping the little ones are soon greeted with warmer weather, so they will be able to enjoy the free range they must have.

The high school pupils are all home from Markdale for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Chapple, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chapple and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapple visited their sister, Mrs. R. Fawcett on Easter, who is only gaining slowly in health. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiley of Cheeseville were also callers.

This Week's Items

Seeding has commenced

Lack of warm spring rains, the green grass is coming very slowly, continuous cold winds have checked growth.

Mrs. Newt Hutchinson had the misfortune to break her arm just above the wrist. Her many friends sympathize with her and wish for her a speedy recovery .

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilcox and Mrs. Sam Wiley were in Owen Sound on Saturday.

Mrs. Annie Gilray of Epping is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Wilcox.

Mrs. James Wiley and sons, Elgin and Clarence were holiday visitors with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilcox

Misses Elsie, Helen and Elva Wiley holidayed with their aunt, Mrs. Clara Wiley in Markdale. Mrs. Wiley and Hazel returned with them and spent the week end.

Misses Verna and Ina Wiley and Caroline Clarke and Messrs Earl Morrison and Elroy Boyle returned to high school duties on Monday at Markdale.

Master Carman Brown is engaged with Jos. Cherry at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherry and two children, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Symes, Barrhead.

Mr. Robert Brown was at Thornbury one day the past week

The Women's Institute met on Thursday afternoon, April, 24th at the home of Mrs. A A. Thompson. A fair crowd was in attendance and several items of business were transacted, after which a good program was given and a dainty lunch was served at the close.

Miss Elda Ward of Markdale is assisting Mrs. Newt. Hutchinson.

IN MEMORIAM

FISHER—In loving memory of our dear parents, James A. Fisher and wife, Kate A. McComb, who departed this life, our mother on April 22nd, 1926, and our father August 29th, 1927.

We laid them away in God's acre to rest,
Where the flowers were laid on the sod.
Though our hearts were sad and sore oppressed.
We yielded them up to God.
And a blissful peace like a holy calm
Comes o'er our hearts like a spell
When we bow in submission to God's will
For He doeth all things well.
Sadly missed by the family.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hawes Brght and Miss Margaret Stinson, Toronto, spent Easter week end under the parental roof at Mr. A. Stinson's.

Mrs. Kate McArthur returned home after spending a month visiting in Niagara Falls.

Miss Margaret McDougall returned on Monday from Hamilton, after visiting friends there.

Mr. Johnny McDougall and his mother and Mrs. John Meads and baby motored to Hamilton over the week end.

IN MEMORIAM

KAITTING—In loving memory of our dear father, J. J. Kaitting, who passed away April 27th, 1927.

Cherished memories of one so dear
Are often recalled by a silent tear
No one knows the depth of our regrets,
For you were ours and we never forgot.
Ever remembered by daughters, Ada and Queenie.

JUNIOR FOUND OUT

The 4-year-old boy, perched on his father's knee in the crowded bus, looked hard at the stout, gaudily dressed woman as she bustled in and edged herself into the only seat left. Then he turned to his mother.

"Mum," he said loudly, "its a lady."

"Hush dear," his mother said; "we know it is."

The little boy looked puzzled.

"But, mummy," he said, " you just said to dad, "Whatever's that object coming in?—Lethbridge Herald.

Premier King is in Bermuda. He will find that a "nickel" is not considered enough for a tip there.

Presentation

Prior to leaving Feversham for their new home at the Club House in the Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaitting and family of Feversham were "lamped" by the citizens of that village, when they were presented with a Coleman lamp as a token of remembrance. Miss Delsa Kaitting also received a manicure set from the pupils of the public school and a jewellery case from the Salvation Army. Mrs. Kaitting was the recipient of a lovely pink silk bedspread from the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church. Appropriate replies were given to the addresses and the donors were thanked for their lovely and useful gifts. The evening was spent in dancing and everyone enjoyed the event to the fullest extent.

BRAWLEY—WATSON

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 1 p.m., Saturday, April 19, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wm. Watson, Priceville, Ont., when her youngest daughter, Louisa Sophia became the bride of Mr. Norval Wellesley Brawley, Beeton. Ont. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Frank Sullivan, pastor of St. Columbia United church, Priceville in the presence of a few immediate relatives. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Miss Martha Watson and W. G. Watson, a brother, gave the bride away.

The bride was becomingly attired in Alice Blue, embroidered georgette trimmed with lace and carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses, lily-of-the-valley and andantiun fern. The bridal couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony the guests sat down to a wedding dinner. For travelling the bride donned a blue broadcloth coat trimmed with beaver and hatch to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Brawley left by motor to visit friends in the Niagara Peninsula. Upon their return they will reside at Beeton.

Dr. J. G. Russell will be at Armstrong's store, Monday and Tuesday, May 5 and 6. Phone your appointments. Open both evenings.

MRS. W. COUSINS PASSES AWAY AT FORWARD

Forward, Sask., April 1—Forward lost one of its old timers on Thursday April 1, when Mrs. Wm. Cousins, age 59, died suddenly at her home here. Mrs. Cousins came to this district 24 years ago with her husband, and settled on the farm here, coming from Singhampton, Ontario.

Following a service at the house, the funeral was held Saturday, burial taking place at Khedive cemetery Rev. Duffield of Ceylon United Church officiated.

Relatives present at the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cousins, of Radville, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cousins, Ogema; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cousins Hardy. The funeral was very largely attended, and many floral tributes sent, showing the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Those left to mourn her loss are her husband and one son, Elson.

The pallbearers were Jim Cousins Tom Earl, Jack Hart, Jack Braniff, Mr. Colbourgh and Mr. Cathcart.—Regina Leader.
