ECLIPSE WAS WITNESSED

The rare phenomenon of an eclipse of the sun was witnessed by many people in town on Monday afternoon, from 2 to 4.15. When the eclipse was at its best, about 3.19, the sun's rays were diffused with a yellowish palor, that was quite noticeable. Smoked glass was used to view the path of the moon across the sun, and to many it was the first ever seen.

Services Recognized By The Community

On Friday evening last a reception for Clerk W. J. Bellamy was held in the town hall in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of his appointment as Clerk of the Township of Artemesia. Reeve Daniel McTavish, present Reeve of Flesherton, presided over the gathering and stated that it gave him great pleasure to be chairman at such a gathering, as he had at first become intimate, in a municipal way, 32 years ago and had been in harness practically ever since.

The guests of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy were invited to the platform, also the present members of the councils of Artemesia and Flesherton and all past councillors. Rev. W. J. Scott, pastor of St. John's United church, opened the meeting with scripture reading and a short prayer and then Mr. Herbert Corbett, Reeve of Artemesia read the address and Reeve, McTavish presented Mr. Bellamy with a gold headed cane and a purse of gold and Fred Rutherford, Clerk of the County of Grey, presented Mrs. Bellamy with a bouquet of roses, on behalf of the citizens of the community. Mr. Bellamy replied and stated that it gave him great pleasure to accept the gifts presented.

A short musical program was given, some of the numbers being a solo by Mrs. J. Perkins, solo by Mr. Wm. Pedlar, "Golden Slippers" and a number by Willis Cockburn with a mouth organ and guitar and a quartette by Mesdames Down and McCallum and F. Duncan and Geo. Cairns.

Quite a number of the old councilmen spoke and paid great tribute to Mr. Bellamy with respect to his duties as clerk of the two municipalities, stating that he was ever ready and willing to give correct information on various matters and that the councils relied on his judgment in many technical matters. Some of those who spoke were: Robt. Best, Geo. Thompson, Jas. Best, Jos. Blakely, John Burnett, J. I. Graham, T. R. McKenzie, Alex Cameron, W. J. Meads, I. B. Whittaker, John Hogarth and S. Batchelor. Reeve Reburn of Markdale brought greetings from the sister town, as did Mr. W. L. Taylor of Osprey, while Mr. Fred Rutherford spoke on behalf of the County of Grey.

The hall was crowded for the occasion, many not being able to find entrance and a very enjoyable time was spent in honoring a resident of the district, who has been an excellent citizen and for whom the greatest respect is held. Mr. Bellamy and his good wife have the best wishes of the community for many more years of service.

Have your eyes examined by one of Ontario's Leading Eye Specialists, Dr. J. G. Russell, May 5th and 6th. Day and night examinations at Armstrong's store. Phone appointments.

Quite a number from here attended the presentation and dance in Markdale on Monday evening in honor of the junior champions of the Northern League. Each player was presented with a fine leather club bag and John Nuhn and Fred Gorrell of town were among those who received one. John was a regular player on the team, whose pictures appear on another page in this issue.

The annual commencement exercises of Flesherton high school were held on Monday evening. The program included the presentation of medals for the Field Day contests, and cash prizes to two boys for making collections of insects and weeds. There were seven competitors in an oratorical contest, three of these to be eligible to compete at Miss Macphail's county contest in the high school here on Saturday of this week. There was also a good paper read by Mr Herbert Akins, which created much amusement. The judges in the oratorical contest were Miss MacMillan, Mrs. (Rev.) Scott and W. H. Thurston. Miss Irene Martin came first in this and was awarded a gold medal, while Mr. Herbert Akins came second and Miss Iola Graham third. These three will compete on Saturday next in the larger contest.

Cash prizes were given to Edward Ferris first, and Neilbert McKenzie for collection of insects, and to Joe Gibson first and Edward Patton second for best collection of weeds.

For the Field Day sports Mr. Geo. Mitchell presented silver medals to Bert Morton and W. Patton, the former as Sr. champion of the boys and the latter as Jr. champion.

Mr. W. J. Bellamy presented silver medals to Miss Florence Welton and Miss Doris Bannon, the former as Sr. champion among the girls and the latter as Jr. champion in the field day sports.

A presentation was made to Mrs. Parker as a recognition of her courtesy in making coffee for the school on several occasions.

YAWNS AND DISLOCATES JAW

On arising about 6.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning a Walkerton lady went through the formality of yawning, which is an innocent enough pastime provided that it isn't done while you are listenng to somebody else's troubles, and trying to appear interested, but this lady had troubles of her own when on relaxing she found that she put so much force into her work as to throw her jaw out of joint.

After vainly striving to spring her face back into shape by the use of her hands and other first-aid methods, she had to recourse to a doctor, who, after considerable effort, succeeded in returning the dislocated features to their accustomed habitation and restoring her usual facial expression.— Walkerton Herald-Times.
