What ground there is for the rumor of an influx of Hollanders to the reclaimed land in the Holland river marsh has not been revealed in the Bradford district, but it is stated there and in Newmarket that some 500 natives of Holland, skilled in gardening are about to arrive in this country and take up holdings on the rich land reclaimed from flooded areas in the townships of West Gwillimbury and East Gwillimbury. There are upwards of 1000 acres in this tract.

MRS. ROBERT PARSLOW PASSED AWAY IN TORONTO

Death came on Saturday morning, April 19th to Mrs. Robert Parslow, she having passed away in a Toronto hospital to which she was taken about six weeks ago.

Mrs. Parslow was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith (Grace Aldcorn) and was born in the town of Meaford in September, 1870. Her father dying a few weeks after her birth she, with her lonely mother, came home to the old Aldcorn homestead at Swinton Park. Her maiden name was Margaret Janet Smith,and here she grew up and attended school in S. S. No. 7, Proton. Later she attended Owen Sound Collegiate and Ottawa Normal School. Then for several years she taught school, and twenty-five years ago she was married to Robert Parslow also of this place. They have since lived on the old Durham Road, Artemesia where Providence has prospered them, not only in earthly goods but in the things that are more worthwhile. They ever kept in touch with the friends of their youth in and around Swinton Park, and in their own home made many new friends, all of whom sincerely sympathize with Mr. Parslow in his great loss.

Last summer Mr. and Mrs. Parslow spent touring Western Canada, going as far West as Seattle, visiting their hosts of friends all along the way. They enjoyed the best of health and the awe-inspiring sights in the mountains. Both had the ability to observe and to remember and to relate their pleasant experiences in different places. It was our privilege to visit with them on their return and to enjoy with them their trip as they ably related the pleasures by the way.

Shortly after coming home Mrs. Parslow's health failed, and since Christmas she had quickly gone down. Six weeks ago she was taken to a Toronto hospital for treatment. Inward cancer was declared to be the trouble and little hope was held out for her recovery. All that good nursing and medical skill could do was of no avail, and death came on Saturday April 19th. Nurse Berta Aldcorn, a cousin of the deceased, waited upon her throughout her illness.

The body was taken to the home of Mrs. Camm, an aunt in Toronto, where it remained until Monday morning, and was then conveyed by train to Ceylon, where many friends and neighbors were waiting and was taken to St. Columba Church Priceville. Her pastor, Rev. F. Sullivan, in his very able manner, addressed a church full of people, preaching a comforting sermon in a cheering manner, and showing that the deceased had gone to her reward—that she had fougha a good fight and finished her course. It was not a sermon of death but of life and resurrection, befitting the Easter season.

Then the funeral cortege proceeded to Swinton Park and burial was made in the family plot. Here again there were many of the old neighbors to pay last tribute of respect to the one well known and loved. The pallbearers were six old neighbors, tried and true, namely:Peter Muir, Dan Muir John S. McMillan, Joseph Oliver, John Williamson and Herman McLean. The flower-bearers were five cousins: Bert Haw,Stephen, Charles Walter and Neil Aldcorn, and two nephews: Robt. and Richard Parslow

There are left to mourn, her husband, who has so many friends and cousins but none of his own family near Mother, sister and brothers uncles, James Aldcorn of Corbetton; William Aldcorn, Priceville, and ohn of Swinton Park, and one aunt, Mrs. Moody, of Killarney, Manitoba. Three aunts, sisters of the deseased's father also will mourn. Mrs. Camm, of Toronto; Mrs. Edwards, of Midland, and Mrs. Carmichael, of——, also a great many cousins and other friends.

Another dear one has gone to that other shore, where she will be waiting to welcome those who to follow.

CAR OWNER'S RESPONSIBILITY

The Ontario legislature has passed a law which is going to make the owner of an automobile pay dearly for any accident of which he may be the primary cause. It matters not who drives the car, the licensee is to be responsible for any damage to person or property wrought by the car. If White lends his car to Brown for Brown to take his family out for a ride and Brown is involved in a collision, White must pay the damages and if White has no property which can be seized to satisfy such damages then White will be relieved of the privilege of driving his or any one else's car on the provincial roads or highways till he pays the damages awarded against him. It is not being made compulsory to take out insurance against accident and personal liability, but a man without it is liable in case he gets into trouble on the roads to lose his residential property or his farm if the damages are heavy. It is a heavy price to pay for neighborliness should a car owner become involved, but there seems no other way to protect careful and innocent people from recklessness and it can be overcome by carrying insurance against a possible damage suit.

Because he refused to tell the court where he got his liquor, Ernest Allen of Glencairn had one month tacked on when Magistrate Jeffs fined him $100 and costs or three months in jail in Barrie Police Court on Wednesday of last week.
