USES OF THE WILD CHERRY.

The Plainfield (New Jersey) Union of Sept. 28, 1848, says:—

The Wild Cherry Tree has been known for ages to be a most valuable and efficacious remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption—and combined as this Balsam is, with other valuable vegetable extracts, by a skilful physician, Dr. Wistar, it must of course be a highly efficacious remedy. Such, we have often been informed by those who have used it, it is, and we are not therefore surprised that it is in greater demand for the diseases named, that any medicine now sold in this vicinity.

DOES ANY ONE DOUBT THE EFFICACY OF THIS MEDICINE?

We do not ask the public to rely solely upon recommendations produced from States far distant, where the persons cannot be known; but having testimony from every state in the Union, we would respectfully invite all persons interested to call at 138 Washington street, Boston, Mass., and examine for themselves the many thousand testimonials, from persons all over the whole country, who have been benefitted or cured by this invaluable medicine.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations, Syrups, and all other preparations of Wild Cherry. Remember they only imitate the name without possessing the virtues. Buy none but the genuine Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, with the written signature of I. BUTTS, on the wrapper.

Prepared and sold, Wholesale and Retail, by Seth W. Fowle, 138 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

For sale by E. W. PALMER, Druggist, Market Square, Kingston.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. 'Blackwood,' still under the fatherly care of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as 'The Caxtons' and 'My New Novel,' (both by Bulwer,) 'The Green Hand,' 'Katie Stewart,' and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of 'Blackwood,' after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits and happy serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health, should be predominant.

Many of the causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, perhaps during childhood, or the first years of marriage—were in their origin so light as to pass unnoticed; and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance.

What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every

WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself

YEARS OF MISERY,

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his exertions are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS

By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands.

In view of such consequences, no one who possesses a venerable if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled

PROSPECTUS.

The Waverly Magazine.

A NEW Volume of the Waverly Magazine will commence on 1st January, 1853, much improved in appearance. We hope to give it a more beautiful head than the present, and change the appearance of the type, so as to make it more acceptable to the taste of our readers.

We shall commence a series of original Novelettes, completed each month. One by George W. Bungay, Esq., will commence the series, entitled, "Wallace Farrow, a sketch of City and Country Life." Mr. Bungay has written some of the best stories that ever appeared in print, and this is better than any he has before written. Other tales will succeed it in rapid succession.

Music will still be a prominent feature of the paper, and we have the promise of regular contributions from some of the most prominent American composers,—among whom we would mention the names of J. S. Holloway, and J. Stanley Bird, who have already acquired much notoriety by their compositions. Others will also furnish excellent pieces.

We have made arrangements to receive from Europe many of the most popular monthlies published, as well as the best literary weekly papers, as soon as published, which we hope will place the Waverly on a footing with the best work in the country.

TERMS.—Mail subscribers two dollars a year. Subscribers in Canada must pay $2,25 a year, as we have to pay postage to the line, and lose on uncurrent money.
