USES OF THE WILD CHERRY.

The Plainfield (New Jersey) Union of Sept. 28, 1848, says:—

The Wild Cherry Tree has been known for ages to be a most valuable and efficacious remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption—and combined as this Balsam is, with other valuable vegetable extracts, by a skilful physician, Dr. Wistar, it must of course be a highly efficacious remedy. Such, we have often been informed by those who have used it, it is, and we are not therefore surprised that it is in greater demand for the diseases named, that any medicine now sold in this vicinity.

DOES ANY ONE DOUBT THE EFFICACY OF THIS MEDICINE?

We do not ask the public to rely solely upon recommendations produced from States far distant, where the persons cannot be known; but having testimony from every state in the Union, we would respectfully invite all persons interested to call at 138 Washington street, Boston, Mass., and examine for themselves the many thousand testimonials, from persons all over the whole country, who have been benefitted or cured by this invaluable medicine.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations, Syrups, and all other preparations of Wild Cherry. Remember they only imitate in name without posessing the virtues. Buy none but the genuine Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, with the written signature of I. BUTTS, on the wrapper.

Prepared and sold, Wholesale and Retail, by Seth W. Fowle, 138 Washingtou street, Boston, Mass.

MARRIAGE,
HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits and happy serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health, should be predominant.

Many of the causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage—were in their origin so light as to pass unnoticed, and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance.

What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every

WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself

YEARS OF MISERY,

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his exertions are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS

By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands.

In view of such consequences, a wife or mother is culpable if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to health, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU,
PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.

One Hundredth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price, 50 cts. [ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1 00.]

First published in 1847, and it is not

SURPRIZING OR WONDERFUL,

Considering that EVERY FEMALE, WHETHER MARRIED OR NOT, can here acquire a full knowledge of the nature, character and causes of her complaints, with the various symptoms, and that nearly should have been sold.

It is impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage, but no female desirous of enjoying health, and that beauty, consequent upon health, which is so conducive to her own happiness, and that of her husband, but either has or will obtain it, as has or will every husband who has the love and affection of his wife at heart, or that of his own pecuniary improvement.

DICKENS' HOUSEHOLD WORDS and UNITED STATES WEEKLY REGISTER.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—The publication of this journal will hereafter be carried on by the undersigned, who have become sole proprietors of the work. With the present volume commenced a new series of the work, under the title of "Dickens's Household Words and United States Weekly Register." [illegible] sustained such an unprecedented [illegible] in England and this country, as [illegible] recommendation of it in this place [illegible] variety and richness of information, [illegible] style, and genial tone of feeling, it has no rival in English periodical literature. It may justly be called the greatest intellectual labor-saving machine of the age. One has only to peruse its pleasant pages to become master of an amount of knowledge which it has required no small degree of research and energy to accumulate in this condensed but fascinating form. Nor is it less valuable in point of pecuniary saving. The price of this work for one year will give more mental entertainment and instruction to the family circle than ten times the sum spent for the common run of books. In the present edition, a copious summary of statistical facts will be given with each number, which cannot fail to prove of service to the American citizen, both for present and future reference. The work will continue to be issued in a style of great typographical neatness, forming two volumes a year, worthy of a distinguished place on the shelves of the library or the drawing-room table.

The "Weekly Register" portion of this work contains a record of important statistics, as well as of other passing events of general interest in the United States.

The present volume of The Household Words commenced with No. 1 of the New Series, with which, and the succeeding numbers, all new subscribers can be furnished.

TERMS.—The Household Words may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, No. 17 Spruce Street, at $2 50 a year, or 6¼ cents a number for single copies; 2 copies for $4 50: 3 copies, $6; 5 copies, $9; 10 copies $15. Clergymen supplied at $1 75 per annum.

Liberal arrangements will be made with Agents and Postmasters for its circulation.

Persons contemplating subscribing to a periodical will do well to procure a specimen number before deciding.

All orders must be addressed to
