The Late Miss Shannon

The funeral of the late Miss Elizabeth Ann Shannon took place on Thursday afternoon of last week, May 15th. Service was held in St. John's United church, Rev. W. J. Scott, her pastor, delivering a very comforting message to the bereaved brothers and sisters. Interment took place in the Irwin cemetery on the provincial highway north. The pallbearers were Messrs. Howard Graham, Elmer Warling, Wm. Hutchinson, Jos. Buchanan of Vandeleur, Robt. Richardson and George Wright of Flesherton.

The floral tributes were beautiful and besides several from the relatives and friends included a wreath from the Vandeleur Ladies' Aid.

Those from a distance who attended were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Porter of Alliston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millsap and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McLaren of Creemore, Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Woods and Arthur Broughton of Corbetton and Miss Lillian Broughton of Port Elgin.

The late Miss Shannon was highly respected and despite six years of illness was always of a bright and cheery nature. She was a member of Vandeleur United church and also taught a Sunday school class there prior to her illness, which was brought on by her devotion to an aunt during a long illness.

She is survived by two brothers, Thos. of Vandeleur, George of Flesherton and one sister, Mrs. Broughton of Corbetton, who had been with her sister for some time.
