MARRIAGE, HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits and happy serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health, should be predominant.

Many of the causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage—were in their origin so light as to pass unnoticed, and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance:

What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every

WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself

YEARS OF MISERY,

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his exertions are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS

By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands. A view of such consequences, a wife or mother is exceptable if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.

PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.

One Hundredth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price, 50 cts.

SURPRIZING OR WONDERFUL,

Considering that EVERY FEMALE, WHETHER MARRIED OR NOT, can now acquire a full knowledge of the nature, character and causes of her complaints, with the various symptoms, and that nearly should have been sold.

It is impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; but no female desirous of enjoying health, and that beauty, consequent upon health, which is so conducive to her own happiness, and that of her husband, but either has or will obtain it, as has or will every husband who has the love and affection of his wife at heart, or that of his own pecuniary improvement.

An extensive scale of Tables has been computed for Assurance on Joint Lives, the Survivor of two or more lives, and for Contingent Assurances; also for Reversionary Annuities, Endowments for Widows and Children, and for every possible contingency affecting human life, against which it may be prudent or expedient to provide.

The great success of this Institution in Europe, and the numerous Policies, issued by the different Agencies in Canada, evidently show that the advantages of Life Assurance are daily becoming more and more appreciated by those who see the necessity of making some provision for their families, or securing the amount of debts due by or to them in case of premature death.

The rates of the Britannia are the lowest which can be offered consistently with security to the Assured

The income of the Company, independently of the large subscribed Capital, is about Eighty Thousand Pounds, Sterling, per Annum, and of this a great part is continually accumulating for the payment of losses.

A party effecting an Assurance with this Company, may do so for a fixed sum, payable at his or her death, without participating in the profits, and thereby secure an immediate Bonus by not paying more than is absolutely required to provide for the risk.

All claims payable within three months after proof of Death.

No proof of Birth is required at the time a claim is made; the Age of the Assured being, in every case, admitted in the Policy, cannot, under any circumstances, be afterwards called in question.

Policies effected by Parties on their own lives are not rendered void in case of death by Duelling or the hands of Justice. In the event of suicide, if he Policy be assigned, to a bona fide Creditor, the sum assured will be paid without deduction if the Policy be not assigned, the full amount of premiums received thereon will be returned to the family of the Assured.

The necessary forms, and every requisite information as to the mode of effecting Assurances may be obtained either by letter or personal application o
