The Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner and Superintendents should hold Commissions from the Governor General, and the other officers should hold warrants from the Commissioner.

The first and most important duty of the Commissioners of Police will be to draw up, under the directions and subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Province, a complete Code, consisting first of regulation for general government and discipline of the force, their classification and rank, distribution and inspection, and the description of the Arms, Accoutrements and other necessaries to be furnished them; and secondly of Rules and Orders for the particular guidance of the Sergeants, Constables and Sub-Constables, pointing out in detail the whole of their duties, powers and responsibilities, with appropriate directions for their general conduct under all circumstances.

The Code should be printed in a portable form, and every member of the force should be supplied with a copy.

Strict discipline should be maintained, and for this purpose Constabulary Courts of Inquiry should be instituted and in case of misconduct, such punishments as Fines, suspension, or degradation from rank imposed, and in extreme cases the commissioner should have the power to dismiss.

Any further detail should be left to the Commissioner of Police, whose attention should be called to the admirable organization of the English and Irish Police and Constabulary.

The Province should be divided into 7 Police Districts, with Head Quarters at the following places, viz: Quebec, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Bytown, Kingston, Toronto and London, to each of which a Superintendent should be appointed with such a number of officers and men under his charge, as may from time to time be deemed necessary.

The Commissioners recommend that three horses be attached to the Head Quarters of each District for Police purposes.

The Commissioners are of opinion that if the system of which they have given an outline be adopted, Canada will possess a body of Police, who, by their activity and intelligence will be able to prevent much crime; by their courage and discipline to put down any serious disturbance within and by their training and thorough knowledge of the use of arms, in conjunction with the Volunteer Militia Force, repel any sudden aggression from without.

It is not improbable that the suggestions which the Commissioners have thought it their duty to make, may meet with some opposition from the Municipal Corporations who have hitherto had the appointment and control of the Police; they would, however point to the deplorable events which have within a short period, taken place in two of the principal Cities in the Province, to show the utter inefficiency of the Police under the present system, either to repress outrages or to bring to punishment the perpetrators; and they confidently believe that the people at large will hail with delight, a change, which, judging from the success which has attended the working in the Mother Country, of a system similar to that now proposed for this Province, cannot fail to add security of person and property to the many blessings already enjoyed by the inhabitants of the favored portion of Her Majesty's Dominions.

The Commissioners having given their best consideration to the important matters submitted to them by Your Excellency, indulge in the hope that their Report has embraced the most important points to be considered, although very possibly, some may have escaped their notice, and they trust that the measures they have now submitted, will meet with Your Excellency's approbation and prove acceptable to the Country generally.

GEORGE F. DE ROTTENBURG,
Colonel,
Assistant Quarter-Master General in Canada.

Quebec, 19th February, 1855.

[Reported for the British Whig, by the Grand Trunk Telegraph Line.]

Quebec, March 10th.

Imprisonment of Returning Officers on Warrant of the Speaker of the House of Assembly.

This morning at 2 o'clock, the Saguenay Returning Officers Louis Lavoe, Edward Tremblay, Antoine Guay and Michael McCarty were committed to Jail on the Speaker's Warrant, for disregard of the oaths, in permitting more names to be added to the Poll Books than there were voters for the County.

The Rouge party—Mr. Chaveau, Mr. Turcotte, and one or two other French Canadian members were inclined to discharge the prisoners, but the evidence being strong and conclusive, 63 members voted for a very proper punishment.

Sir Allan McNab expressed his great satisfaction at the vote of the House in vindication of the rights of the people and the privileges of Parliament.

John McLaren, another of the Saguenay Returning Officers, seeing the judgment passed upon his fellows, asked for delay to adduce exculpative evidence, which was granted to him on condition of his remaining in the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms.

STILL LATER.

ESCAPE OF ONE OF THE PRISONERS.—Antoine Guay escaped from the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, immediately after judgment was passed upon him, with the aid of some people outside the Bar, who suddenly spirited him off. He will be re-arrested.

Quebec, March 10th, 10 A. M.

Mr. Christie is the sitting Member for Wentworth, and not Mr. McKerlie. The Election Committee this moment made their Report.

Another of the "We"ing Tribe.

"GEORGE BROWN, THE INCORRUPTIBLE."

Now that our Parliament has assembled, and we shall anon hear the distant sounds of war, we shall most likely resume in our pages, the course of 'Parliamentary Portraits,' painted by themselves, which during its last sitting, our readers found in our columns. But as our "most potent, grave, and reverend Signors" have not yet begun to paint one another, we just now beg to present our readers with a peep-hole glimpse of the noisy Mr. Brown.—[Montreal Sun

 The above is the commencement of a tirade of abuse, a column long, against George Brown. When Falstaff was scolded by Sir Hugh Evans, the jolly old knight complained of the Welch parson's bad English; in like manner may the well-abused George call out against the 'Sun's' Editor. Here in nine lines are nine we's and our's, and were the whole article re-published, the number would be nine times ninety. And this is the newspaper that presumes to criticise the ablest writer in Canada! Say newspaper, because the man is unknown. He is not David Kinnear, nor J. M. Ferries, nor E. Goff Penny, nor W. Bristow, nor the late Messrs. Abraham or Fleet, nor any Montreal person known in these diggings. Still he must be some pumpkins, in his own opinion at least, or he could not be so very impertinent. He makes up in conceit for what he lacks otherwise.

Few are aware how frequently Publishers are compelled to insert among their advertisements, statements which they can neither sanction or believe.

A pleasant exception to this disagreeable necessity are the advertisements of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Pills, which will be found in our columns. We have published for him before, and always with the feeling that in so doing we in no wise lend ourselves to deceive or mislead the public, for we have had indisputable proof that his words are strictly true, with abundant reason to believe that his medicines will do all they promise, and all that can be reasonably expected from any medicine. His Cherry Pectoral is too well known in this community to need any commendation from us, and his Pills we are credibly informed are not inferior to his Pectoral.—[Providence Mirror, R. I. 53

There are few things which afford us greater pleasure than sitting down to write a notice of the celebrated Hoofland German Bitters, because we are fully conscious we are conferring a public benefit and our heart tells us that by our notices many have been induced to take these Bitters, and been rescued from death by dyspepsia, liver complaint, &c., for the cure of which it is certain. It is prepared and sold only by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia. See advertisement.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—A Miraculous Cure of Ulcerous Sores.—Augustus Cook, a compositor, of Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, was afflicted for a long time with scrofulous sores on his arms and legs, his case in the end became so desperate, that it appeared evident he must forsake his employment. A friend, however, persuaded him to use Holloway's Ointment, and to take the Pills according to the printed directions, which he did. After a short time, he found himself considerably better, and by persevering with these remedies, in a few weeks he was completely cured, and is now able of work with renewed vigour.
