"Coming down in an aeropane is the worst sensation." But better than coming down out of it.

The Late W. E. Morgan

EUGENIA

Just as the leaves fadeth away into their beautiful autumnal glory, so fadeth the life of one of our prominent citizens, Mr. W. Ernest Morgan into Life Eternal on that "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Death occurred at 8.25 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 16th at the Christie street hospital after a prolonged illness extending over a year, with valvular trouble of the heart and chronic bronchitis.

Mr. Morgan, who was only 50 years of age, was born in North Ormesby, Yorkshire, Eng. on Sept. 6th, 1879. He was educated in Morpeth, Northumberland, Eng. He was a builder in Canada 27 years. He served in the South African war 1900—1902. He served in C. E. F. in the World War, as non-commissioned officer: reached England and returned through illness, 1916—1917. He acted as assistant Secretary for the Lib.-Con. Association of South Grey several years. He received the Queen's Medal and five clasps for Africa and General Service Medal for Great War. He was a staunch member of the Prince Arthur Lodge A.F. & A.M. No. 333, Flesherton and was an Anglican in religion.

Mr. Morgan was a kind neighbor and friend, always willing to aid in any cause. In his passing we lose a valuable citizen. The funeral was held on Thursday, service being held in the United church, Eugenia, and conducted by his pastor,, Rev. Mr. Pherrill of Markdale, assisted by Rev. Dr. G. S. Smith of Meaford and Rev. Mr. Pope, local minister. Rev. Pherrill spoke impressingly on Mr. Morgan's sterling qualities and preached a very comforting sermon from the text: "O grave where is thy victory? O death where is thy sting?" Rev. Smith spoke feelingly from the text "and others". Rev. Pope gave a fine prayer of consolation. "Oh Love that will not let me go," "Abide with me" and "Son of my soul"—three favorite hymns of the deceased were sung. "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" was beautifully rendered by the choir. The remains followed by a large concourse of friends and sympathizers were taken by motor to Flesherton and interred in the family plot in the cemetry there.

On the casket lay the Union Jack and many beautiful floral tributes showing love and respect for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved. The tributes were viz.—wreath, wife and family; wreath brother Thomas and wife; wreath, comrades of Christie St. hospital; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh and Gladys; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, Georgina and Mrs. Evelina Graham; wreath, Eugenia friends; wreath, High Falls Hunt Club; spray, Col. McFarland; spray, Eastern Star; spray, Toronto relatives; spray, Literary society of F. H. school; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins spray, Large family; spray, Flesherton returned boys; spray, Mrs. Middleton, Ronald and Nancy; Emblematic token, Prince Arthur Lodge. The flower bearers were members of the Masonic Lodge also were the pall-bearers who were—Messrs Geo. McTavish, Ernest Proctor, Jas. Dargavel, George Banks, Thos. Fisher and Cecil Meldrum.

Besides a loving wife, whose maiden name was Daisy Smith, and one daughter Patricia and one son, Douglas, he leaves in sad bereavement three brothers and one sister: Fred, Scotland; Arthur, England; Thos., Toronto and Annie, (Mrs. Storey) in Scotland.

The friends who attended the funeral were:—brother, Thos. of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. F. Pipher, Mrs. Whiting and Mrs. Fingland of Toronto; Dr. and Mrs. N. Douglas and Mr. T. Douglas of Owen Sound and Mrs. (Dr) Rozell of Caledonia.

We extend our profound sympathy to the bereaved ones, who know he has passed on to that "haven of rest".

Away from care of earthly things,
From a winter's cold, grey dawn,
From disappointment, hardship, strife,
Into a fairer sweeter life, his gentle spirit's gone.
He's happy there in that fair land,
Away beyond the blue;
And oft in dreams they'll hear him say,
"Grieve not for I am just away,
I stand at Heaven's unbarred gates
Where myriad hosts of angels wait,
And here I'll wait for you."
