school concert

A record crowd was on hand in the Monteith public school gym recently when students of that school and the Shillington Senior Public School presented their annual Christmas concert. Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Kenn Clark, a student of Shillington Senior school

The program started off with a musical drama entitled

'Where Toys are Made'. This was presented by grades 2 and 3 with Mrs. Kathleen Murray at the piano. They also gave group recitations and songs under the direction of their French teacher, Mrs. Guertin with Mrs. Fortier at the piano.

'The Year without a Santa Claus' was presented by Group 3 of Shillington. Grades 1 and 2 students recited selections in English and in French. The Shillington School Tumblers then presented their act followed by grades 4 and 5 students presenting a play, 'Santa and the Efficiency Expert.' French recitations were given and the Shillington School choir sang.

Another play, 'His Christmas Welcome' was performed by Group 1 Shillington School. The Recorder Group under Mrs. Fortier played several Christmas selections. A play 'Christmas with Snow White' was presented by Group 2 of Shillington school. This was followed by Group 1 of Shillington school. This was followed by the final presentation, a play 'Christmas Shopping' by Group 1 of Shillington.

Master of ceremonies Kenn Clark then called to the stage those teachers who had organized and worked on the program. Mrs. Janice Wells, principal of Monteith School introduced her staff and thanked everyone for coming. Principal Gordon Phillips of Shillington Senior school, then introduced his staff and wished everyone the best in 1977.

Santa Claus was later on stage to give bags of treats to all the pre-schoolers.
