Buying on the Instalment Plan

PURCHASING commodities by paying "a dollar down and a dollar a week" has grown into great popularity. Often the object is worn out btfore it is paid for, and the purchaser continues to pay. Buy yourself a fortune on the instalment plan by placing regular installments of your earnings in a Canadian Bank of Commerce savings account. The money is always available for use if required and there is no depreciation, but accruing inttrest as time goes on.

Robber Was Caught

Through the efforts of the police, the watch and other effects recently stolen from the residence of Mr. F. W. Nicholson of Toronto, was found and the property restored to the owner. As soon as the robbery was discovered Mr. Nicholson informed the police. Photographs from the rogue's gallery were produced and Mrs. Nicholson recognized one of them as being that of the man who was at their home shortly before the loss was discovered. The man was hunted up and when confronted with the evidence he confessed having entered the house and lifted the articles. It was another feather in the cap of the Toronto police force in bringing the offender to justice so quickly and protecting the rights of its citizens.

Barnyard Golf Was Success

McLaughlin and Mustard of Strathavon were the winners at a most successful horseshoe pitching contest which was held in the Flesherton rink on Friday evening of last week. Whalen and Stafford of Corbetton took second money and Richardson and partner of Honeywood were 3rd. There was a large crowd of pitchers in attendance and the indoor pitching was much enjoyed. Richardson won the prize for most ringers in ten shots. Three men were tied with five ringers each, and in the play-off Mr. Richardson won with four.

Another tournament is to be held in the rink this Friday evening, October 17th, at 7 p.m. in the skating rink.

IN MEMORIAM

HAXTON — In loving memory of my dear son, Joseph, who was accidentally killed October 4th, 1924.

How sweet to know we'll meet again,
Where parting is no more,
And that the one we so dearly love
Has only gone before.

Inserted by his mother,

Dundalk Won Debate

Dundalk debating team won the final debate in the debating series of the Young People's Union of the Grey Presbytery, which was held in Annesley church, Markdale, Monday evening, October 6th.

The debate was between the Annan and Dundalk Y.P. Societies on the subject resolved "that complete disarmament on both land and sea is long overdue and should be proceeded with immediately." Miss Florence Bell and Mr. Clarence Armstrong of Annan upheld the affirmative and Miss Evelyn Shouldice and Mrs. Neil Stewart of Dundalk supported the negative. All four of the speakers did exceptionally well and brought forward strong arguments to support their cause.

The judges, Dr. L. G. Campbell, W. J. Messenger and R. D. Carruthers, decided in favor of Dundalk by a narrow margin. They are now champions of the Presbytery.

Following the debate Miss Irene Martin of Flesherton, winner of the public speaking contest in group 1, gave a speech on "The League of Nations." This was also exceptionally good. As there were no contestants from the other three groups of the Presbytery Miss Martin is now champion. Miss Maxine Lyons, president of the Markdale Y.P.S., spoke a few words of welcome. Miss Ruth Armstrong presided at the organ and Mr. Howard Graham, convenor for the Presbytery, occupied the chair during the evening.

Teachers' Convention

The annual East Grey teachers' convention was held in the Clarksburg community hall Oct. 9, with a good attendance.

Thursday morning session was devoted, after the opening exercises led by Rep. Orsborne, to the O. E. report ably given by Misses Burrows and Babbington, followed by an address by the President, Mr. G. B. Littlejohns. The morning session was brought to a close by the salutation of the flag and singing of the National Anthem.

The afternoon session opened with community singing followed by an address by Mr. Holland, Flesherton, on "Remembrances," in which he recalled some of his past teaching experiences. He impressed, also, the fact that teachers should work for the good of children, community and country, and not for the almighty dollar. A very pleasant feature at the close of this address was the presentation of a purse to Mr. Holland on behalf of the teachers of East Grey by Mr. Petch. Mr. Holland made a very fitting reply.

Next we were favored with selections from the Erskine Quartette, which were much enjoyed.

Mr. Charles Pye, then on behalf of Clarksburg school board welcomed the teachers to Clarksburg and also extended to them an invitation to visit Clarksburg school.

Mr. A. N. Scarrow, College of Education, Toronto, addressed the teachers on 'Manual training and public school curriculum. Mr. Scarrow says "Education does not begin nor end in the school. If this were so, the school problem for a beginner would be too difficult for him. The child learns first outside of school, then you adapt your lessons to his life. This address was much appreciated. Then followed the grand mix-up in which everyone became acquainted. This completed the program for the first day.

GRAHAM — SEMPLE

A pretty but quiet wedding took place on Tuesday, October 7 at the parsonage, Markdale, when Matilda Jane, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Semple of Lady Blank, Artemesia, became the bride of John Clifford, third youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham, Eugenia Falls. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Warren.

The bride, who was unattended, was charmingly gowned in pilot blue, silk crepe satin with patent shoes, hose and gloves to match and carried a bouquet of autumn asters, bridal roses anl maiden-hair fern.

Afte the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding reception was held. Only the immediate relations of the contracting parties were present. We join in wishing the happy young couple a long and prosperous journey through life.

Recently charivaris were held for two newly married couples in town Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimble and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnston. Mr. Trimble was presented with a smoking stand and Mr. Johnston with a table lamp, with the money extracted

Laying Tile In Road

The work of laying tile for the draining of the provincial highway in preparation for the laying of the cement pavement has been progessing very favorably and the men are now being employed on the road north of Flesherton. Wm. Moore dug up a large rock elm log that had been buried in the road in front of George Stewart's farm that had been there for a good many, maybe sixty, years. It was in perfect state of preservation and Mr. Moore intends to use it for axe handles. It is rumored on good authority that the Provincial government will continue the paving of Highway No. 10 from below Dundalk to as far as Markdale next summer. It will be welcome news if the County will decide to proceed with the paving of the street running east and west through town.
