AMERICAN OPINION OF GOLDWIN SMITH.

The New York World says:—We have [illegible] to determine the precise nature of obligation which we owe the people of England for their self-[illegible] in permitting themselves to be [illegible] of the counsel and instruction of [illegible] eminently eames; and philosophical [illegible] and moral teacher, Mr. Goldwin Smith, and in consecating to the transitor [illegible] that bright and shining light to the [illegible] of this hemisphere. Mr Goldwin Smith is what is termed in England a "[illegible]," and as we have no end of [illegible] in America, to send another here [illegible] is rather too much like [illegible] to the sweet, to say nothing [illegible] that English "Democrats," after [illegible] in America, are generally observed [illegible] transformed into the similitude and [illegible] of red or black Republicans—a [illegible] which some observers have attributed [illegible] without sufficient grounds, to [illegible] effects of the mal de mer, which is known [illegible] many hidden things to light, and [illegible] has been observed to change the [illegible] complexion of a native Roman to [illegible] bottle-green. Nor have we been [illegible] in the determination of the [illegible] of whether England's loss by the [illegible] of Mr Goldwin Smith has equal[illegible] by the perusal of an epistle [illegible] addressed by that gentleman to the [illegible] of England," through the [illegible] of the Beehive, a trades-union journal [illegible] London. So far are we from being [illegible] by this letter that it has been [illegible] in an entirely new class of specu[illegible] profitable speculations which [illegible] that, had the workingmen aforesaid [illegible] a little more democratic—in Mr [illegible] acceptation of that word—[illegible] have remained in their midst to [illegible] them; and that it has only been be[illegible] were, in his opinion, hopelessly [illegible] "the fear and bribe[illegible]," and were [illegible] to be led like voting cattle to the [illegible] booths by the Plutocracy, who have [illegible] place of the old aristocracy, that [illegible] broken them to come to this hap[illegible] where beer, when drank at all, [illegible] paid for by the consumer, [illegible] is wholly unknown, and [illegible] is notoriously much easier for a [illegible] to pass through the eye of a nee[illegible] to be elected to Congress under [illegible] circumstances whatsoever, our legisla[illegible] invariably selected from the la[illegible] classes—those engaged in that ar[illegible] known as "pipe-laying" being [illegible] favoured—our Presidents always [illegible] splitters, tailors, or tanners. It [illegible] that there been the slightest [illegible] of bringing about such a state [illegible] in this England, Mr Goldwin [illegible] would have remained there to aid [illegible] work; but, as the case was a [illegible] hopeless one, he resolved not to [illegible] his life in fruitless toil. The re[illegible] in Great Britain, he declares, [illegible] being a victory of democracy [illegible] a triumph of money; the House [illegible] is more than ever the rich [illegible]; no wise man can expect any [illegible] to come from such a legislature; [illegible] of the suffrage, from which [illegible] the government of the country more [illegible] than ever in the hands of the nobles [illegible] the previous, the new electors [illegible] not only failed to send even a single [illegible] of their own class to represent [illegible] but they have permitted the few old [illegible] entertained, pronounced, de[illegible] opinions to be expelled from their [illegible] Thus, Mr Goldwin Smith thinks [illegible] all this was but natural—the new [illegible] were like Adam in the garden; [illegible] tempted him and he did eat; [illegible] men of England dangled the "al[illegible] of ground" before the eyes of the new-[illegible] enfranchised, and straightway they [illegible] the wrong ticket. The most alarm[illegible] of the business is that unlike [illegible], they are not ashamed, probably [illegible] they are not naked, but are newly [illegible] garments bought with the "fi'-pun' [illegible] horny palms. And although the [illegible] published alike the tempters and the [illegible], Mr Goldwin Smith thinks it so [illegible] in accord with the instincts of [illegible] human nature that a poor man [illegible] sell his vote to the highest bidder, [illegible] has no words of condemnation for [illegible], and reserves all his wrath for [illegible]. Something may possibly be [illegible] in this, by substituting the ballot [illegible] voting, "the abolition of those [illegible] of venality, the small boroughs" (one [illegible] seats, by the way—the little borough [illegible] Tiverton elected Mr Thomas [illegible], the only man who, by any stretch [illegible], may be called a working-[illegible] member), and the transfer of the exercise [illegible] of election from the candidates to [illegible]. But after all this is done, there [illegible] little hope of a reform, since "no [illegible] has after the character of the peo[illegible] and how miserable and venal that [illegible], Mr Goldwin Smith has already [illegible] to us. He explains why he was [illegible] a candidate at the late election. [illegible] a Tory or a professing "Liberal"—[illegible] Liberal, of course, would have [illegible] him; would have run against him; [illegible] I could not have offered to fight him [illegible] my own money, and I could not have [illegible] myself to accept pecuniary aid [illegible] the most generous hands. [illegible] is not bound to ruin himself, [illegible] to degrade himself, in seeking it [illegible] Parliament, and I could not [illegible] the working men except [illegible] consistent with their honour and [illegible]. And, moreover, had he been [illegible] to Parliament, he could have done [illegible] good, for "being unfettered [illegible] to debate, I could not have given [illegible] expression to our views." [illegible] in these [illegible] Goldwin Smith, it seems to be all a [illegible] matter of money. A seat in Parliament [illegible] to be bought. Could he have [illegible] the expenditure requisite to buy [illegible] necessary number of voters, it does not [illegible] appear that any scruples of principle [illegible] would have stood in his way; as he [illegible] "that expenditure out of [illegible] pocket and could not bring him [illegible] to be let the seat go to the [illegible] who was richer and [illegible] bought his ticket for New York. [illegible] of limited wealth, is "ruin," to buy [illegible] one at the expense of others is "degradation," but for a very wealthy man to buy one out of his own pocket is to represent a constituency on terms "consistent with the honour" of the represented and the representative. If this all be really true, what in the name of common sense has Mr Goldwin Smith to complain of? From his premises the conclusion is inevitable that no one but a rich man or a degraded man can be elected to Parliament—and certainly a very moral philosopher like Mr Goldwin Smith would prefer that the legislators of Great Britain should be millionaires rather than miscreants. Under cadgetry, perhaps, constrained Mr Goldwin Smith to disclose the agony that must convulse the breast of England at the thought of losing him, by asserting that, as he is "untrained to debate," he would have been useless, because silent, in Parliament. He is a gentleman of whom a journal which does not adore him has spoken as "one who has received all the culture that Oxford could bestow, who has studied and written and even spoken upon politics for many years, and who would have addressed Parliament with the weight of a justly earned reputation, which would have far outweighed his necessary ignorance of parliamentary routine and his inexperience in debate." Moreover, parliamentary orators are made and not born—made, too, by trials repeated in spite of failures, in Parliament itself, and men waited until they ceased "to fall below Demosthenes and Cicero" ere they offered themselves for election, there would be the same dearth of legislators as of swimmers, did all boys and girls follow the advice of that careful parent of whom this the doggerel runs:

"Oh, mother, may I go to swim?"
"Oh, yes! you may, my daughter:
Hang your clothes on a hickory limb,
But don't go near the water."

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the 2nd page of pamphlet are well observed.

HORSES SAVED.—The lives of thousands of horses have been saved during the past year, and the credit is due to "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." This preparation is being extensively used, and exacts from all the highest praise. Nothing of the kind has ever before been half so successful or given such universal satisfaction; it cannot be equalled. We can confidently recommend it, and would advise all who own horses to keep a supply of it on hand—it may be the means of saving your horse's life. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers in curing Coughs, Colds, and all Bronchial affections, and cheering the afflicted, has passed into a proverb in the United States, where these marvellous Wafers are known, they bear down all opposition and eclipse all rivalry; the demand for them has steadily increased for the last twenty years, until now the sales average over one hundred thousand boxes a year. Eminent members of the medical profession without number admit that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results as these wafers. When taken in season they effect a permanent cure. Sold by every druggist and most of the respectable stores throughout the Province, at 25 cents per box.

Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb, thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.

Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.—It is amusing at times to observe the stores of the merchants who don't advertise to see the anxious proprietors looking into the streets and see the people going by wondering why they don't come in, while the stores of their neighbours who do advertise are thronged with customers. Some people will learn by observation, others will not.—Daily Palladium.

TO PHYSICIANS.

New York, August 15th, 1867.

ALLOW me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU, Dove Leaf, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.

Buchu in vacuo, Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark colour. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and ganglious decoction. Mine is the colour of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation upon inspection it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup, and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favour it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,

Chemist and Druggist of 16 years experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

"I am acquainted with Mr H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favourably impressed with his character and enterprise."

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

For weakness arising from indiscretion, the exhausted powers of nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil; in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

In affections peculiar to Females is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH, will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odour, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

A CASE OF TWENTY YEARS STANDING.

Philadelphia, Penn., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist:

Dear Sir—I have been a sufferer for upward of twenty years with gravel, bladder and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medical preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu. I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I tell much like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected, after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now, for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste or odour, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it, whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

DR. VICTOR BAUD'S ORGANIC MEDICINE.

DR V. BAUD, Graduate and Member of the Medical College of Paris, Chief physician Extraordinary for Epidemics in Paris, late M.D. of the Civil Hospitals of Algiers, has just introduced in England his ORGANIC MEDICINES.

They consist of three preparations—

THE BAUDEINE,

An efficient and prompt Remedy for Cholera, Yellow Fever, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and the excessive action of the Bowels. A gold medal was awarded by the French Government to Dr V. Baud for this valuable preparation.

Price Small, 2s 9d; Medium, 4s 6d; Large Size, 11s per Bottle.

THE DIASTATIZED IRON,

For strengthening the System.—Price 2s 9d per Bottle.

THE DIASTATIZED IODINE,

For purifying the Blood.—Price 2s 9d per Bottle.

The above Preparations are in the form of Sweetmeats, pleasant to the taste, and particularly adapted for Infants and Mothers nursing.

By the combination of the Iron or Iodine with Grass Seeds in a state of germination, they are united with organic life, which thus renders them digestible. The irritative and stubborn mineral has thus become the nucleus of an organic substance capable of being absorbed by the blood without injury to the stomach.

Agent for England and British Possessions,
E. G. DUPERNEX, 76 Wading Street.

May be obtained of all Chemists.
