EUGENIA

Miss Georgina Smith of Toronto is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith.

Mr. Donald Henning, teller in the Bank of Toronto, Feversham, visited with Messrs. Ken Kaitting and Bert Kerton at the home of Mr. Wm. Kaitting.

Messrs. Bates Fawcett and Ralph Large are visiting in Toronto at present.

Don't forget about the chicken pie supper to be held in the basement of the United Church on Friday evening, November 7th.

Mrs. Middleton and daughter, Nancy, have gone to Toronto. Master Ronald remained here and is attending high school in Flesherton.

The teachers and pupils are busy preparing for a Hallowe'en social to be held on Friday evening, October 31st, in the school house. Everything will be in keeping with Hallowe'en. Lunch will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Falconer and children are gone to Egremont Township to be with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Harrison, who is quite ill at present. We hope she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMillan and Margaret of Markdale visited over the week end with Mrs. Wilson.

Our beautiful autumn weather was soon curtailed by the entry of Sir Winter, who, we believe, was just around the corner, by the amount of snow he bestowed upon Old Mother Earth. We hope for a few fine days, as there are many turnip crops in the fields yet.

Mrs. Percy Magee is laid up with a severe cold at time of writing. We hope she will soon be better.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston of Flesherton visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. Bert Magee, and family, recently.

We offer our heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith, who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on Thursday, Oct. 23. May they be spared many more years of happy wedded life.

Mr. ad Mrs. T. J. Maynard, Annan, announce the engagement of their sister, Helen Isabelle, to Mr. Robert Henry Linley of Maxwell, the marriage to take place the latter part of October.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fletcher was invaded by brothers and sisters and close relations on October 15th, it being the occasion of another milestone being passed by Mr. Fletcher, he being 80 years age on that date. The house was prettily decorated and at high noon 24 guests sat down to a sumptuous fowl dinner. The table looked lovely with asters and dahlias, the centre being adorned with a three-story birthday cake with 80 pink candles thereon. The cake and decorations were the work of Miss Ida McDonald, Creemore. After ample justice had been done, all repaired to the living room, when a splendid program was disposed of consisting of speeches, music, song and reading, along with good wishes from the company for many more happy birthdays. Many photo snaps were taken, which in the years to come will be happy reminders. Mr. Fletcher also received many beautiful gifts. The guests present were Mrs McDonald, daughter, Miss Ida, Mr. John McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hood of Creemore, Mr. and Mrs. H Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fletcher and Miss Poole of Toronto, Dr. and Mrs. Wolfe and daughter of Durham, Mr. Oliver, Mr. Ridsdale and daughter, Norma, of Galt, Mr. and Mrs. James Beatty of Orange Valley, Mrs. Glen McGee and daughter Dorothoy, of Vandeleur, Mrs. R. IN MEMORIAM

McGIRR—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Robert S. McGirr, who passed away Oct. 25, 1928.

Memories always wander
When twilight shadows fall,
Back to the days of happiness,
Days beyond recall.
When a vision comes before us,
So calm, so dear, so sweet,
Of those dear lips so silent,
Whose eyes were closed in sleep.

—Sadly missed by Wife & Daughter

IN MEMORIAM

MUNSHAW— In loving and affectionate memory of our dear mother, who passed to the beautiful home beyond three years ago to-day, October 23rd, 1927.

Three years ago to-day our darling
mother passed away;
What would we give, her hand to clasp, her patient face to see:
To hear her voice, to see her smile
As in the days that used to be.
Remembered always.

—The Family.
