THE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.

We learn from the Belleville Intelligencer) from which it appears that the Belleville builders who have examined the plans and specifications of the proposed Deaf and Dumb Asylum to be erected on the Spence Farm, that there will be quite a number of tenders put in for the construction. The following is a description of the building. It is designed in the style of Gothic architecture, modified to suit the requirements of the climate. The building is particularly well suited for an institution of the kind, being collegiate in appearance, and capable of being erected more economically than any other of the same dimensions. The building is 268 feet long, with an average depth of 78 feet. In the rear of the main building is connected with it by a covered passage, the dining room, which is 60 feet long, and 30 feet wide, a kitchen 32 feet long, by 24 feet wide, a store room, pantry, and cook room. Over the dining room is the lecture room, with the seats raised at the rear, radiating from the teacher's platform, behind which are cupboards built into the walls for writing on. The kitchen extension are the male and female ward, each having separate entrances, and supplied with baths and water-closets. There will be three entrances in the front, the main one in the centre of the building being for superintendents and visitors; the two others for the male and female students respectively.

The entrance hall is twelve feet wide, and runs up and connects with the dining-room. In front of the principal stairs, at the first landing, is a passage connecting with the lecture room.

The main corridors are six feet wide, run the entire hall, and connect with the wards at each end of the building, each being sixty feet long by thirty-seven wide, with bath rooms in the rear of each. There are also class rooms in all, four in the centre of the first floor, and six on the ground floor. In the ground floor of the main building are the superintendent's apartments, reception and clerks' rooms.

The first floor is wholly occupied with dormitories, and students' rooms, assistants' bedroom rooms, and class rooms.

The second and attic floors are taken up with dormitories, which have ceilings fourteen feet high, and are thoroughly ventilated.

There will be accommodation for over 850 pupils of both sexes; particular care has been taken in arranging the building, to have the sexes completely isolated. The dining room is to be covered passages from the male and female wards.

There will be an ample play yard on each side of the building, enclosed with high fences for the males and females; also, large covered in play in winter and wet weather.

The building will be heated with steam, the boilers being away from the building, but close enough as to connect with the fuel cellars, and the kitchen extension. The ventilating will connect with the boiler chimney stack in such a way as to secure perfect ventilation.

The outbuildings are to be erected with brick, for which can be procured in the neighborhood, and will present a façade of over 200 feet in length, and about 50 feet high, to the rear. The roof will be of the Mansard construction, fitted up with dormer windows and slated and covered with slates and galvanized iron, and surrounded with handsome iron crestings.

The roof will be in five divisions, the ends of the projecting six feet from the main walls. The lower windows will be arched, with stone mullions between them; the upper windows are to be grouped, or in pairs, with flat arches, connected together with stone string courses.

The main entrance is under the tower, and is to be arched, small arched windows on each side, flanked with massive buttresses; over the doorway are two grouped windows, with a large Tracey window, and the whole surmounted with a tower, with very steep roof and ventilation, with ornamental wrought iron work.

Tenders are required to be presented by Saturday, 15th of May.

The New York Banks have been obliged to let go nearly within the past few days to carry their customers safely over the present crisis.

The Marquis having concluded to visit the Emperor at Brussels, the physician of the Empress must not be permitted for fear of an effect on poor Carlotta.

For the first time in the history of Paris, a vessel, a little fore-and-aft schooner, is in the Seine, directly opposite the Tuileries. Parisians daily throng the quays and the bridges in the vicinity in order to gaze at the stranger. Even the Emperor and all the imperial family have paid visits to the tiny craft.

The Church Journal has an article recommending to the Episcopal Church, as an especially good work, attention to its literature. It says that the literature of that time-honored institution is more meagre than that of other religious denominations. A pretty thing is the pride of the Episcopal Church to make an instrument of power fall into decay.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post says: "When the cable came in on Saturday afternoon, it was found that the English parties and representatives of all persuasions had banded together on the terms and the propositions of Mr. Sumner's recent speech preceding the ratification of the Alabama treaty, and had decided for war before humiliation, or even great excitement in this thereto-fore quiet city. From the spirit with which the speech has been commented upon by the English, the administration knew the sentiment of resistance in Great Britain is much more unanimous and the spirit of aggression here. "It is a "situation," as Secretary Fish says. Taking the whole of it. In regard to this "situation" there are several parties and interests. The military element and the peace element are for war cannot be doubted. Then here are the great mass of business, moneyed men, reading men, and parties, who know that we are in no condition for a fight of any nature, and would go to war or proposed to go to war. Mr Fish is of this opinion. Another class, such as Morton, Conkling, Colfax, &c., think that we ought to fight, that England gets into trouble, and we should take advantage of it, and more than in sympathy with Alabamas of our own. The latter class are nervous about getting into a war because they vaguely perceives that it would be business ruin, repudiation, and a great setback in this country; nevertheless, the latter class in him is very strong, and if war was forced upon us he would go to it with a terrible momentum. As to the result of the case he won't talk about it, but he frankly says he does not understand the subject. He believes that Mr Fish is perfectly warmly in favour of Mr. Fish's proposition to bring the subject of the claims to a consideration in a friendly way."

WENDELL PHILLIPS WANTS TO ANNEX IRELAND.

(From the Anti-Slavery Standard.)

We print, in another column, Mr Conway's letter, which states, with admirable clearness, the position of our government as to Cuba. It has obeyed exactly the rules of international law. We confess our entire willingness to have had the Government go much further. The rules of international law, devised by tyrants and usurpers to enable them to perpetuate their own power, have little weight with us. So far as national non-interference means leaving the different elements and classes of a nation free to arrange themselves and shape their own institutions, we value and are disposed to respect it. But if it is strained to enact that we must sit by, neutral and indifferent, while one race murders another, as in Crete, or one class enslaves another, as in Cuba, we say, away with such nonsense and Atheism in the name of law. Whenever a man rises from his natural rights, we have a right to sympathize with and aid him. Civil and political right must be arranged by each action according to its own ideas. Men outside may and ought to leave such things to settle themselves according to the level of a nation's intelligence. But natural rights rest on different principles and draw after them different duties. A race or class battling for them has a right to all the aid we can give it.

Hence there is no likeness between our rebellion and the rising in Cuba. The Cuban patriot inscribes "Justice and Liberty" on his flag, and hence may claim the help of all the world. We would have our Government not only promptly recognize the belligerency of the Cuban insurgent, but announce to the world, as a principle of international law, that any race rising against similar wrongs should be recognized as soon as they had fought long enough to be seen and heard five hundred miles off. We deny the existence of any Spanish institutions in Cuba which, in the light of our century, deserves the name of a Government. A system which keeps one-half of its subjects in chains is not a Government. A system by which the bayonets of men three thousand miles off keep a million of men in subjection, robbing them of the fruits of industry, (allowing them no equivalent), is not a Government. To be worthy of that name and entitled to the rights of a Government, the system must discharge the duties of a Government. It must foster industry, promote civilization, protect life and property, and execute justice between man and man. No Spanish rule in Cuba has ever done this. We proclaim the right of our nationality, based on justice, to deny to Cuban despotism and barbarism the name and rights of a government. The only rightful government in Cuba is found in the patriot camp. We would have America acknowledge brotherhood with it.

We have no wish for Cuban annexation. Let her lead the West India Confederacy. If, after trying that, years hence, she seeks us, then will be time enough to entertain the question. Our only present interest is to help a nationality based on equality of races and emancipation.

The same rule we have applied to Cuba condemns the course of England during the last nine years. She strained even the unjust and equivocal rules of international law to find means of helping a slaveholding conspiracy. Hating our Government, as a possible rival, she aided to establish piracy and slavery as corner stones of a new State. We will waste no time discussing technicalties with her. Her offence is rank. The atonement is to be, full pecuniary recompense, and besides a distinct, formal disavowal of any right in future to act on the principles by which she now seeks to defend her course. Her apology is to be a consent to the remodelling of international law. No matter how long it takes public opinion in England to reach this willingness. We can wait. Meanwhile it is for us to act, respecting Cuba, on these just and enlightened principles. If Great Britain interferes we have, at little cost, a perpetual Alabama anchored off her coast, just as near to Liverpool as Dublin is to that port.

Twenty millions of dollars will make Ireland our Gibraltar; every one of her innumerable harbours will be bases for our navy; 20,000 men and $20,000,000 make Ireland our iron-clad, and every Irishman, the world over, our soldier. What interest is this to us? While this danger lasts the House of Commons has no lack of motive to do justice to Ireland. "By indirection find direction out"—acknowledge the Cuban movement. It frees 600,000 Cuban slaves. Let England hasten to give Ireland something that deserves the name of a Government; which Ireland has not had for 300 years. Let England know that the very first moment she fires a cannon to obstruct freedom or bar us from holding up struggling nations, we shall encamp in Dublin. If the thought does no other good it will surely hasten justice to Ireland; and meanwhile preserve the peace and help mightily toward the enfranchisement of the world.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

For some time past there has been a misunderstanding between the Eastern Extension Intercolonial Railway Company and the contractor, which has led to a suspension of the work. It was stated in St. John, N.B., that the company had settled with the contractor, Mr Witcham, by paying him $75,000, and that active operations will be at once resumed.

The Owl states that the Flying Squadron will leave England about the 10th of June for Bahia, where it will be joined by the Phœbe, from the West Indies; thence to Rio de Janeiro, and on to the Cape of Good Hope, which it will leave about the end of September for Melbourne and Sydney, visiting New Zealand about the middle of January, reaching Japan in March, and Vancouver's Island at the end of April; thence home, touching at Honolulu, Tahiti, Valparaiso, and Falkland Islands, so as to reach England by the middle of October next year. The same authority says that Mr Childers and Sir Sydney Dacres will go with the Reserve Fleet in the Agincourt, flying the Admiralty flag, and when they leave the fleet will be commanded by Rear-Admiral Key. Rear-Admiral Hornby will be second in command, hoisting his flag in the Duncan.

Mr Wendell Phillips denounces the English for doing what he would have our own people do; and he also flourishes about making Dublin our Alabama, off the English coast—forgetting that the British journals may find out and flourish the same sort of logic about some Alabama off or on our coast. As for the Irish people, his demonstration is not so strong as it seems; for, would not Cardinal Cullen and the Catholic hierarchy preserve Ireland for a gracious Queen, whom the Pope so lately thanked with a burst of gratitude? And if the Irish priesthood are as firm supports of the monarchy as they seem to be, our New England Republicans would have a poor chance against them on Irish ground.—N. Y. Times.

To Married Ladies it is peculiarly suited; it will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the 2nd page of pamphlet are well observed.

N.B.—One dollar and 12½ cents for postage, enclosed to NORTHROP & LYMAN, Newcastle, Ont., General Agents for Canada, will insure a bottle of the genuine, containing Fifty Pills, by return mail. Sold by all Druggists in Kingston, and medicine dealers everywhere.

Good for Man and Beast.

FARMERS READ THIS.

At this season of the year when Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, &c., may disable your hands, you should have a prompt and sure remedy at hand. Your Horses also frequently require medicine for curing Galls, Sprains, Cuts, Cramps, Weak Joints, Rheumatism, Swellings, Colic, &c., &c.

The medicine best adapted for this purpose is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. It is used both internally and externally, and where prompt action upon the system is required, the Pain-Killer is invaluable. Its almost instantaneous effect in relieving Pain is truly wonderful. It is used by Veterinary Surgeons of the highest order, and the life of many a valuable Horse has been saved by having the Pain-Killer at hand to use when the animal was first attacked.

Sold by all medicine dealers throughout the world. Be careful to get the genuine.

Price: 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

VERY NATURAL.—When a person has proved an article and found it good, and answering the purpose for which it is intended, he will not readily abandon it for one of doubtful reputation, or concerning which he knows nothing. We are led to make these remarks owing to the course always pursued by those who have used that celebrated and truly valuable horse medicine known as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." All are so well pleased with it that they will not use any other; many have waited several weeks until the agent could obtain a new supply. There is nothing equal to it as a condition medicine, or for any complaint affecting the wind of horses. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

CONCENTRATION the great principle. The system of infinitesimal doses of medicine diffused in gallons of injurious stimulants exploded. All useless material discarded. The active principle only of the most powerful and efficient remedies known concentrated in a small convenient form. HABITUAL CONSTIPATION CURED. All diseases of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels permanently relieved by using Dr Colby's ANTI-COSTIVE AND TONIC PILLS, Sugar-Coated. Recommended by the Medical Profession.

SUCCESS begets envy. Hence the efforts of certain vendors of Liniment to decry JACOBS' RHEUMATIC LIQUID. Wherever introduced, it drives all others from the market. Pain positively annihilated by its use. We have not room to enumerate the virtues accorded to it by the thousands who have used it. No medicine ever invented is capable of more extended application. It has hundreds of imitators, but not one RIVAL. Beware of Counterfeits.

GLAD TIDINGS FOR ALL.—Those who have no hair may have it. Those who have plenty, may preserve and beautify it. Those who are losing it may have its loss arrested. The hair strengthened, beautified, restored, by using HUNT'S EMPIRE HAIR GLOSS, cheapest, cleanest, best. Don't rest till you have tried a bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

TWO QUESTIONS EASILY ANSWERED.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance. Why should we use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers?" Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts per box.

OF THE INJURIOUS EFFECTS of Face Powders and Washes. All such remedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a short time destroy the complexion. If you would have a fresh, healthy, and youthful appearance, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

NOT A FEW of the worst disorders which afflict mankind arise from corruption of the blood. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA is a remedy of the utmost value.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigour of health into the system, and purges out the humours that make disease.

QUANTITY vs. QUALITY. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA. The dose is small. Those who desire a large quantity and large doses of medicine ERR.

THOSE WHO DESIRE BRILLIANCY OF COMPLEXION must purify and enrich the blood, which HELMBOLD'S CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA invariably does. Ask for Helmbold's. Take no other.

TWO TABLESPOONFULS of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla in certain affections by Benjamin Travers, F.R.S., &c. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic, with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable, as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.—It is amusing at times to observe the stores of the merchants who don't advertise; to see the anxious proprietors looking into the streets and see the people go by, wondering why they don't come in, while the stores of their neighbours who do advertise are thronged with customers. Some people will learn by observation, others will not.—Daily Palladium.
