At this time we ask you to accept this clock as a remembrance of our Aid, and may success follow you wherever you may go.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Christmas passed off very quietly in our burg.

John Robinson of Hamilton spent the holiday at Milton Bannon's.

Donald Robinson of Markdale is visiting his uncle, Milton Bannon.

Miss McCannel is to be congratulated on the Christmas concert which the scholars gave Tuesday evening. The program rendered by the pupils, who number eight in all, was well performed and showed good training. We wish to thank Mr. Cooper of Markdale for the pictures shown and Mr. White and family of the Durham Road for the music. Oh, yes! Santa was there with the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Stevens received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Palmer, of Komoka. Mrs. Palmer has been ill for some time. Mrs. Stevens visited her this past fall.

Glenn Lockhart is visiting his sister, Mrs. Bert Rowden, of Clinton for the holidays.

Miss Marguerite Stinson was home from Toronto for Christmas.

Last week we mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ludlow installing a radio. This week our pen has a sadder note to write. Mr. Ludlow has not been well for some time, but was around as usual enjoying his Christmas dinner on Thursday and on Friday he was about his chores until about eleven o'clock when he went to the house complaining of a head ache. He soon became alarmingly worse and a doctor was summoned, but he passed away about two o'clock . Mr. Ludlow was of a very bright and jolly disposition. He was a veritable "gloom chaser". No matter how blue you felt when you met him you alawys passed on laughing. He was born sixty-four years ago last November, on the farm where Mr. Thos. Wauchope now lives, which is on the Proton sideroad. Here and in Proton village he lived all his life until ten years ago, when he and his wife always passed on laughing. He was the only son of Mr. Wm. Ludlow, but had six sisters, only two surviving him: Mrs. John Acheson of the backline and Mrs. Geo. Blakely of Proton. He was a member of the Anglican church at Proton and attended regularly. Forty-one years ago he married Polly Thompson (whose mother had married Mr. Thos. Ludlow, uncle of the present Mr. Ludlow). They had only one daughter, Mrs. Ed. Stinson (Ethel) and one granddaughter, Beth Stinson. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, interment taking place in Flesherton cemetery.

WODEHOUSE

A happy new year to all.

The Christmas season this year has been favored with lovely weather, good sleighing and cars running as well, helped each and everyone to enjoy that special visit they were to make on Christmas day. Of course 'twas in Santa Claus' favor too, and he did not fail to come on Christmas eve to the delight of the many homes where the little folk waited.

The Christmas tree entertainment on Tuesday evening was a decided success in every way. A lengthy program of good variety was given, at the close of which a jolly Santa arrived to unload a well-laden tree. During the evening homemade candy was generously passed around and everyone enjoyed a splendid evening. Rev. McAuslan presided.

We are pleasd to learn little Marion Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newt Hutchinson, is recovering from a severe cold.
