Wedding bells are making their music mingle with the New Year bells. Robert may be able to tell you when.

Mr. E. Dillon installed a radio for Mrs. J. Lawrence.

IN MEMORIAM

MUIR — In ever loving memory of our sister and aunt, Catharine Muir, who passed away January 6th, 1930.

Miss Loreen McEachnie of Durham visited last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fisher.

WODEHOUSE

The festive season is over and everything is settled back to the old routine. The high school pupils returned to duties in Markdale on Monday. The public school also opened here and where the holidays slipped away to, neither parents nor pupils can account. Truly the school days are the happiest, has proven to be so as time rolls on, the old folks say.

Mrs. Harry Chaprel and daughter, Jean, were here from Meaford for a short visit with Mr. R. Fawcett and family.

Mrs. W. J. Ward and little Iris Walsh visited during last week with friends in Markdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Brown visited on New Hear's day with the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgins, Cherry Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wiley had a family gathering of their children and grandchildren on New Year's day.

Mr. R. Fawcett was at Meaford on Monday on business.

The annual school meeting took place Wednesday forenoon, December 30th. Mr. R. Fawcett the retiring trustee, was re-elected for another term. Mr. Sam Wiley Jr. again takes the caretaking at $75 per year. Victor Wiley secured the cleaning of the stove pipes and school and Harry Cherry supplies the wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bussey of Markdale and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cherry and Verna Nesbitt spent New Year's day with Harry Cherry and family at Wodehouse Corners.

The social evening by the W. I. in the church basement on New Year's eve was fairly well attended, in spite of the stormy night, and those who were present enjoyed a fine social evening.

A severe type of cold has been going the rounds in the neighborhood.

There was no mail on New Lear's day. Our faithful mail carrier, Mr. Jack Bussey, deserved a well-earned holiday.

More snow is falling and a wind from the east makes us hope that it will soon shift again.

MAXWELL

The Maxwell young people are giving their play, "Promoting Romeo," at Eugenia on Friday evening in the Orange Hall, under the auspices of the L.O.L.

Mr. Delbert Fike of Toronto spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seeley.

WILFRED MAGEE, Sec.

Mrs. Catharine McTaggart, aged 90, a resident of Sunnidale, passed away at the home of her son on Christmas Day.

CEYLON

There passed away at his home on Dec. 31st Mr. Andrew Kennedy, after an illness extending over two years. Two years ago he was operated for Kidney trouble, which finally caused his death. For a short time the past year he was also in the hospital at Markdale under the care of Dr. Carefoot, and later other doctors were consulted, but all to no avail, and he passed peacefully away Wednesday evening.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Kennedy and was born in the year 1856 on the farm where he spent all his years. He was preceded by an elder brother, William, who died 53 years ago; his father died in 1910 and his mother in 1907, a sister, Mrs. John Kennedy (Eliza) passing away 12 years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters' Miss Bella, who has always lived with her brother and was a most devoted and loyal companion to him, and Mrs. Rutledge (Mary Jane), who lives in this village.

The remains were kept until Monday, awaiting the arrival of his two nephews from the West, the funeral taking place Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. to Flesherton cemetery, where he was laid in the family plot, beside those who had predeceased him. Rev. W. J. Scott of St. John's United Church had charge of the service and was assisted by Rev. Wolstencroft, Baptist minister, giving comforting messages to the bereft.

Placed on the casket were a pillow from his sisters and George Jaynes, a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge of Holland Centre, a spray from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns and family.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. F. J. Cairns, Jas. W. McMullen, Geo. Snell, Jos. McKee, John Hatton and Fred Brown.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. Roy Rutledge of Lethbridge, Alta., Mr. Melville Rutledge, McLeod, Alta., Mrs. Alex. Stewart of Thornton, Ont. and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rutledge of Holland Centre.

This community extends its deepest sympathy to the sorrowing ones.

Masters Lloyd and Harvey Archibald spent Christmas with their mother in Proton.

Miss Laura Stewart of Bolton spent a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

Mr. A. Whittaker and Mrs. A. McMullen spent Christmas with Orangeville friends.

Mr. Alex. Knox has returned to Toronto, after spending the Christmas and New Year holidays with his mother.

Miss Margaret Sinclair returned on Saturday to her studies at Normal in Toronto.

Miss Blanche Genoe returned on Monday to business college in Orangeville.

Mr. John McMillan left the past week to attend business college in Owen Sound.

Mrs. Cecil Archibald of Proton spent New Year's day with her parents and sons. Lloyd and Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, who have been visiting the former's mother, returned to Toronto Friday.

Mr. Roy Rutledge of Lethbridge, Alta., and Mr. Melville Rutledge of McLeod, Alta., who arrived Monday to attend the fuenral of their uncle, Mr. Andrew Kennedy, are remaining for a visit with their mother.

The Sunday School will give a social evening in the church on Friday evening and invite their parents and all their friends of the community to attend. Siver collection will be taken. Lunch will be served and a program presented by the children.

IN MEMORIAM

HENDERSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Jessie Henderson, who entered in to rest January 2nd, 1929.

No one knows how much we miss you, mother,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.
—Sadly missed by sons and daughters

The gavel used by the Warden of Wellington county is said to be 82 years old.

FEVERSHAM

Misses Raby Kerton and Jean Wright of Markdale were at their respective homes here for the holiday.

The out of town visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sewell and daughter Velma, and Mr. A. Graham spent Christmas with Mrs. Sewell's mother at Flesherton.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear little daughter, Ilene Marie, who was laid to rest on Jan. 5, 1927.

She was a flower too fair for earth,
Sent here but for a while.
God marked her when He gave her birth,
And took her with a smile.
This loving bud so young and fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In paradise could bloom.
She was just a little white rosebud,
A sweet little flower from birth,
But she was called to heaven
Before she was soiled on earth.

Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Hincks.

PROTON STATION

A happy New Year to The Advance staff and readers.

The unexpected death of Mr. Wm. Ludlow came as a shock to this community, where he has spent his entire life, esteemed by old and young. Much sympathy is expressed for his sorrowing wife and for his daughter, Mrs. Edward Stinson.
