

I. Falls school hands out academic achievements

IROQUOIS FALLS — November 24, was a special day at Iroquois Falls Secondary School teachers, students, and guests gathered to honor students for their academic achievements in the past year.

The Awards assembly was held in the lower gymnasium, and was opened by the Iroquois Falls Secondary School Stage Band with a musical prelude. Introductory remarks were made by Mrs. Fran McLean, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. David Misener, Principal at Iroquois Falls Secondary School.

There were many award categories. Kinsmen prizes for girls' highest averages were presented to Tracy Lindsay, grade 9; Natalie Lepage, grade 10; and Andree St. Jean, grade 11. Legion prizes for boys' highest averages were presented to Andrew Robinson, grade 9; Scott Andrews, grade 10; and Peter Purdy, grade 11. Music achievement awards were presented to Laurie Cloutier, Dierdre Boyle and Johanna Mauno, and Michael Ottoson for senior band, intermediate band, and junior band respectively.

Business Education awards were presented to Tracy Lindsay, Lynne Brazeau, Lori Boucher, Lenore Lougheed and Nicole Joseph. Geography Proficiency awards were given to Andrew Robinson and Davina Joeph. The Murray Dowson Technical awards were earned by Chris Larivee, Scott Jones, Robin Moreau and David Lagace in electricity; Natalie Lepage, Michel Sauve, Jean Landry and Nicole Giguere in drafting; Jason Wilson, Terry Clarke, Kelly Trembly and Diane Martin in woodworking; Tina Robinson and Stephen Jones in sheet metal; Donald Keat and Sean Bryant in auto

1987
Corinne
beaulne

Iroquois Falls
Secondary School

mechanics; and Scott Andrews and Ross Durston in machine shop.

Awards for the Grade 11 Physics Contest went to Jacques Marion and Peter Purdy. In mathematics, prizes in the Pascal Contest went to Andrew Robinson, Zane Lougheed, and Darren Romain; in the Cayley Contest awards went to Tim Graham, Kim Wilkins and Angela Garrison; and in the Fermat Contest awards were won by Michael Toffolo, Peter Purdy, Jacques Marion, David Lacoursiere and Andree St. Jean.

Francais Awards were handed out to Helene Gagne for the highest mark in grade 9, Rachel Tanguay for grade 10 and David Lacoursiere for grade 11.

The "Work Will Win" award to former Monteith-Shillington Public School students was shared by Carroll Cottingham, Alesia Hetherington, Angela Garrison, Terry Lacoursiere, Cindy Cook, and Wendy Cook.

An impressive number of certificates of merit were handed out to students in mathematics and science who achieved a mark of 90 percent or more.

This assembly was held to congratulate deserving students, and also to encourage the whole student body to recognize the importance of academic achievement.

MWI meeting

Jan 18
1989
by Marg McGee

The Monteith Women's Institute held their meeting on January 9 at the home of Jenny Mitchell. The main topic of the meeting was Agriculture and Canadian Industries: Waste Disposal. The group also discussed the annual Christmas carolling that took place in Monteith on December 21. Mrs. Raymer gave a report on gardening and recycling. The organizations received many thank you notes from seniors. The ladies distributed Christmas baskets and gifts to local seniors on an annual basis.

The February meeting will be held, Feb. 7, at the home of Kate Hoffman. In addition, the Monteith Women's Institute would like to congratulate Donald Keat and Valerie Booth for winning the 'Work will Win' award from Iroquois Falls Secondary School. Both Keat and Booth are former students from the Monteith-Shillington Public School.